HENRY WARREN.

What His Home Paper Has to Say About Him.

The Republican Convention, like the mountain, "has labored and brought forth a mouse." Henry Warren is the nominee, the lamb that is to be slaughtered on the 25th of October.

We have heretofore expressed our opinion of him as a Congressional candidate. We do not impugn his integrity; but we certainly deny that he is fit person to represent any constituency in Congress. Mr. Warren is about fifty years of age, and has been in office about seventeen years. He was sheriff of this county six years; a representative in the lower House of the Legislature two years and Receiver in the Land Office at Oregon City about nine years. So that he has had a long pull at the public teat and may be properly regarded as a chronic office seeker, one who cannot prosper without drawing his subsistence from the public treasury.

The fact that he was four times elected to office by the people of this county is not indicative of any great popularity, because the Republicans during that time had an overwhelming majority in this county, and always elected their entire ticket by very large majorities. The people think that they have done enough for him and they will not now commit the superlative blunder of electing him to a position which he is not qualified to fill. He has a very defective education, and when he was first elected Sheriff he could not write a sentence grammatically. When in the Legislature in 1864 he was a mere dummy, and was afraid to open his mouth lest he would betray his ignorance. And to-day he cannot make a public speech or express his views in a public audience with any facility. The Bulletin says he will make an "effective canvass." If he makes any canvass it may be effective in losing him hundreds of votes in each county. The Republican party is hard up when it places before the people, for Congress, such a man as Warren. Imagine him in Congress in the presence of such men as Alex. H. Stephens, M. C. Kerr, Sunset Cox and others, debating some matter in which Oregon is deeply interested, and you have a picture of a pigmy contending with giants.

The people will never submit to the disgrace of electing Warren to Congress. The Republicans have committed a great error in placing him before the people. We ask the people to try Warren by the Jeffersonian test. "Is he honest, is he capable?" He may pass the first question but he can not come up to the second. He is not capable. He is destined to be consigned to oblivion along with honest H. Smith. Their qualifications are the same.—Lafayette Courier.

IN A BAD FIX.

The Oregon City Enterprise, says ever since the Oregonian passed into the hands of Hill & Co., that Radical faction have tried to beat the office-holders by a bushwhacking course on the outside, and the Ring has always managed to get away with the outs. The leading editorial in last Thursday's Oregonian puts us in mind of an old story which will bear repeating here. In a certain county in Kentucky, where the Whig party had but a few followers, they tried for a number of years to defeat the Democrats. Finally, after trying again and again to defeat their opponents, the whigs were called together for consultation, and after much discussion as to the course to pursue to defeat the Democrats, no definite plan could be reached. Out of the half-dozen that were present, a committee was appointed to report at a subsequent meeting the best means to take in the approaching campaign. This committee reported the following day, and was in substance about as follows: Gentlemen, your committee have concluded that there is but one way of defeating the Democracy, and that is to join them, and we recommend that the Whigs vote the Democratic ticket at the next election.—Now this is about the case with Hill. He has not been able to defeat the office-holders and they have refused to divide with him so, in order to defeat them, he has gone over and joined the party. If that don't beat them there is no use for Democrats to "kick against the pricks" any longer. The editorials in the Oregonian of Thursday, Friday and Saturday have not been quoted by any of our Radical friends as good election documents for Mr. Warren and by many it has been asserted that Hill had joined the Radical party for the same purpose that the Kentucky Whigs did the Democracy. It looks so.

NO USE TO PROTEST.

The Oregon City Enterprise says the Salem Statesman protests against Mr. Warren being held responsible for the trickery of Mallory and Underwood which they perpetrated on Mr. Whitley. That protest had better be written on buckskin, so that it will last, as a warning for future Radical Conventions. It makes but little difference whether Mr. Warren had a hand in it or not. His name was the property of the Radical Convention, and whatever sin that Convention committed can only be reached now by voting against Mr. Warren. That is the only show the Radicals and Independents have who are honest enough to repudiate such trickery. It seems to us that the Radical Convention was not satisfied with piling on Mr. Mr. Warren the sins of Grant & Co., but even those of Mallory, Underwood and Ben Simpson, the latter alone would be enough to consign him to his quiet retreat in Yamhill, where this same corrupt crowd sent him a short time ago. It is too bad to have as good a man as Mr. Warren fall into the hands of such a set. But, we apprehend he will see the error of his way after the election.

OREGON WAKING UP.

The Owyhee Avalanche truthfully says: An effort is being made at Portland, Oregon, looking to the building of a manufactory for turning out boots, shoes and leather. Those engaged in the project furnish some very good reasons on behalf of the necessity of the enterprise and its paying prospects. They say that hides are very cheap in that State; that large quantities are annually exported therefrom, and returned in leather in a raw or manufactured state, transportation being required to be paid both ways. All the profit of manufacturing boots and shoes are enjoyed by others at their expense.—The natural facilities for running such an enterprise are as good there as elsewhere, and in consequence of the absence of such works many persons are idle and are forced to leave the State and get employment elsewhere. More than a million dollars worth of boots and shoes are annually imported into the State, and by combining the capital and skill requisite for such an enterprise this money would be saved to the State, and work given to the unemployed. The Oregonian gives the project a hearty support and speaks very encouragingly of its prospects, and the necessity for its speedy consummation.

Operations of Woman Suffrage in Wyoming.

According to a Laramie paper, woman suffrage works admirably there. It says: There never was a term of Court held there in a decent and comfortable place, and with decency and decorum, until the ladies were summoned to participate in it. There never was a Grand Jury that investigated offences against decency and morality until Grand Juries were composed in part of women. There was hardly a criminal punished until women took part in trial juries; and there never was an election without drunkenness, fighting and bloodshed until the wives, mothers, sisters and daughters were permitted to accompany the men to the polls; while now the elections go off as quietly as any other social gathering, no matter how heated a political campaign may be, or how important the issues at stake.

New National Union Party.

A Boston dispatch of August 21st says: A National Union Party, with Gen. N. P. Banks, for President, and L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, as Vice President, was organized here to-night by appointing a State Central Committee and adopting a platform and resolutions. Several prominent men took part in the proceedings.—The resolutions denounce the Republican and Democratic parties as partisan and dangerous; condemn various frauds on the Government by dishonest public officials; oppose great monopolies and corporations as tending to oppress the public; characterize sudden inflation or contraction of the currency as dangerous to the State; that the only way to arrive at specie resumption is to make the promises of the nation as valuable as private notes, etc. Gen. Banks sent a letter saying he was not a candidate for the Presidency, and did not want his name to stand in the way of Governmental reform, which four-fifths of the people demand.

An interesting case involving the question of fulfillment of grain contracts was lately decided in the supreme court of Illinois. By the terms of the contract for the sale and delivery of grain, the seller had the option of fixing the time of delivery at any time before the end of the year. The seller exercised such option within the time allowed, by tendering warehouse receipts for the grain, at the rooms of the board of trade, and offering to make the tender at the purchaser's office, if he should state where it was and by giving notice at the same time that if he refused, the seller would terminate the contract, which was refused. The court held: 1. That by such tender or offer to perform and refusal, the purchaser ceased to have the right to insist upon the agreement, and could not maintain an action for the non-performance of the contract. 2. Where a tender of warehouse receipt for grain was made by seller to the purchaser as above stated, the tender was sufficient, and the refusal obligated the necessity of a tender at the office of the purchaser. 3. An offer to perform is necessary where the other party dispenses with. 4. Where a party who had agreed sell and deliver a certain quantity of grain, made a tender of warehouse receipts of the grain, it was held that the fact of the seller having bought the receipts upon condition that the purchaser accepted them, could not be urged against the tender. It was enough that they would have been absolutely his had he accepted them. 5. Where a tender is not made to discharge a debt, but in performance of a contract deliver property to a purchaser in compliance with the terms of an agreement, and it is refused, it is not necessary to keep the tender good, but the party tendering may declare the contract at end, and the seller may dispose of it afterwards as he chooses.

A BUSINESS COURTSHIP.—The following scene occurred in our vicinity this week. The parties thereto are well known and respectable; the lady is fifty-five years of age, and the gentleman is five her senior. They had frequently heard of each other mutual friends but had never met until a few days ago, when the following conversation took place:—

Gen't—"Madam, what is your name?"

Lady—"My name is —"

Gen't—"My name is — I live in Liver more, where I own a ranche Abeml how would you like me for a husband?"

Lady—"Well really I don't know. I have heard of you, Mr. —, but how would you like me for a wife?"

The lady assented. The gentleman went immediately to Oakland to get a cense, and twenty-four hour after their first meeting the couple were man and wife, and by this time are on his ranch at Livermore.

Just think of it! It costs one million two hundred and fifty thousand five hundred and eighty-nine dollars and ten cents to keep the women of this country in imported corsets for one year. What a waste.—Exchange. Stay! it's not a waste, it is one of their means of support.

The Chicago Inter-Ocean has the following: A very sad and touching circumstance occurred last evening. Perhaps few among the audience who were weeping over the fictitious woes of the "Two Orphans" has any idea that one of the two, while going bravely through her part to the delight of the spectators, was overwhelmed with a private sorrow, the source of which lay near by; that in the brief intervals between the scenes in which her presence was required, this poor orphan was rushing up to her room in the Sherman House to the bedside of her dying mother; that in the last act, where the interest was just culminating, that dear mother was lying dead. Such incidents now and then occur in the actual life of the actor, and the circumstances and associations seem to deepen the solemnity of the occasion. In the present instance it was peculiarly mournful.

SAN FRANCISCO, August 26, 2 P. M.—The Bank of California closed its doors a few moments ago. Their Agencies at Virginia City and Gold Hill were notified to close with all haste.

Later—4 P. M.—On account of the failure of the Bank of California the Stock Boards have adjourned until called together by the Executive Committees. California Street is the scene of the most intense excitement. It is literally jammed with a solid living mass. The exact loss is not known, but it is estimated at millions. A run on the other banks is now going on, and it is impossible to even guess at the result. The stock market has entirely collapsed, and there is no demand whatever. All orders due in the St. C. Board today will be due on the day after the Board meets again.

It is said by supporters of S. S. Cox for the Speakership, that Mr. Blaine virtually threw the office into the hands of Mr. Randall, by recognizing him on the floor of the House in preference to any other member, during the fight on the Force bill.

CALIFORNIA ELECTION.—The election takes place in California today. There is scarcely any doubt but what the Democracy will carry the State, by a large majority.

C. T. RYLAND, who has been stumping the State of California for Irwin, estimates the total vote at 115,000, and divides it thus: Irwin, 55,000; Phelps, 35,000; Bidwell, 25,000. It is generally expected that Irwin will be elected outside of San Francisco. Bidwell is third in the race, but he will probably succeed in electing the Democratic candidate.

J. M. SHEPHERD, Esq., editor of the Baker City DEMOCRAT, passed through town, Wednesday last, on his way to Portland. Mr. Shepherd reports business at Baker City lively, and describes the country generally as prosperous.—Walla Walla Statesman.

A PARTY by the name of Smith who hails at intervals from Walla Walla and Baker City, has been giving himself unnecessary trouble concerning the whereabouts and nativity of some of our sporting gentlemen. About eleven of them have this been singled out for target operations, and they are mainly old Oregonians. Many of the boys are quite sensitive concerning any effort to give publicity to their names and hope that the matter will be kept quiet now and hereafter.—Owyhee Avalanche.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 27.—W. C. Ralston, President of the Bank of California, committed suicide last afternoon by drowning himself at North Beach. His body was found under the dock. There is a statement to the effect that he took poison before going into the water.

PAPERS MERGED.—Mr. Shepherd of the BEDROCK DEMOCRAT gave us a call on Wednesday last. He is looking well and we suppose he is prosperous. He informed us that he has bought out the Baker City Herald, and intends, sometime this Fall, to merge the two into one.—Walla Walla Spirit of the West.

Why is the Land Office flag Democratic? Because it went up for Lane and Warren? (toasted for the Republican nominee.)

We take the above extract from the Flatdealer, (a Radical paper) of last Saturday. We have heretofore stated that a certain class of Ring officials would secretly work to defeat Mr. Warren. The above little straw indicates the sentiments of the Roseburg Land office. Had there been the least chance to elect a Radical Mr. Warren would have been the last man the Ring would have selected, but as it was a foregone conclusion that Lafayette Lane would sweep the board by a handsome majority, they coaxed him to lead them out of their troubles. Alas! How sad are the disappointments of this wicked world!

NOTICE.—To all it may concern: I have procured the services of Mr. S. P. Romig, of La Grande, who is well known in this country and California as a workman in all the various branches of the trade. As a horse-shoer he is surpassed by none. I only request my friends and teamsters to come and give us a trial to be convinced. All work warranted to give entire satisfaction, and at the customary rates of the country. n14f. S. A. GAINES.

NEW TINSHOP.—Mr. G. L. Manning & Brother have opened their Tinshop on Front Street, two doors above Pap Levins' Wholesale Liquor store, where they are prepared to do all kind of work in their line on short notice and at reasonable prices. They have a neat shop and appear to be at home in their business.

A. F. and A. M.—Baker Lodge, A. F. and A. M., No. 47, meets on the second and fourth Thursday evening in each month in their Hall. Transient brethren in good standing are invited to attend.

By order of the W. M. Baker City Lodge No. 25, I. O. O. F., meets every Saturday at half past six o'clock, at Odd Fellows Hall, in the new Bank Block, corner of Front street and Court Avenue. Members of the Order are invited to attend. By order of N. G.

Chas. St. Louis has located permanently in Baker; and is now prepared to manufacture and repair all kinds of jewelry and watches. After twenty-eight years experience in the business, he feels competent to give entire satisfaction. Mr. St. Louis, is also agent for the best Sewing Machine in use, the New Wilson, price, $35.00.

USEFUL PRESENT.—Every family ought to have a good Sewing Machine. We have a beautiful new Silver Plated Wilcox & Gibbs Machine, that would be a beautiful, valuable and useful present to any man's wife, mother, sister or sweetheart, which we will sell on easy terms. We will instruct the person buying how to operate the machine. It is one of the nicest machines in our city.

The Secret.—Those who prize a beautiful head of hair, (and we know our lady friends all do), will thank us for a few words on the invaluable qualities of AYER'S HAIR VIGOR as a dressing. In our own case it heals a humor, keeps the head free from dandruff and scurf, stops the tendency of our hair to fall, and heightens its beauty. A slight touching with it removes the coarse and dry appearance which neglected hair puts on, imparts a rich gloss, and makes us presentable in the most fashionable company. Such rare qualifications, presented in a single preparation, create for it an enduring value; but add to these the facility of restoring to gray locks their youthful color, and maintaining our good looks with so small an expenditure of time and attention, and you stamp it prime favorite with the public, and ensure its permanent and enduring popularity.—Huntsville (Ala.) Republican.

How to get Stamina.—Iron frames and strong nervous systems are not the lot of all. But the feeble need not despair. By adopting the right means, they may live as long and enjoy life as much as their more robust neighbors. Physical invigoration is, however, necessary to this end; and while the spirituous tonics and nervines usually administered eventually depress both body and mind, Dr. J. WALKER'S CALIFORNIA VINEGAR Bitters invariably supply new vigor to the frame, while they regulate every disordered function.
