CORVALLIS, BENTON COUNTY, OREGON, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 26, 1890.

NO. 47.

ADMINISTRATRIX SALE OF REAL PROPERTY.

In the matter of the Estate of Joseph Thompson, deceased.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an order of sale of real property hereinafter mentioned and described, duly made by the county court of Benton county, State of Oregon, on the 5th day of June, 1890, at the regular June term, 1890, of said court, directing and authorizing me as administratrix of said estate to sell all the right, title, and interest which the said Joseph Thompson had at the time of his death in and to the following described real estate, to-wit: Lot numbered (7) seven in block number (11) eleven in the town of West Yaquina, in Benton County, State of Oregon, with the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in any wise appertaining. Now in possession of said decedent and by virtue thereof, I, Maria V. Thompson, administratrix of said estate, will on the 17th day of January, 1891, (between 9 o'clock in the morning and 4 o'clock in the evening) to-wit: at 1 o'clock p. m. of said day, on the premises, lot 7 in block 11 in the town of West Yaquina, in Benton County, State of Oregon, sell to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title, interest, and estate which the said Joseph Thompson, deceased, had at the time of his death in and to the above described premises and every part thereof. Terms, cash in hand.

MARIA V. THOMPSON,
Administratrix of the Estate of Joseph Thompson, deceased.
Dated December 12, 1890. 5c.

Something for the New Year.

The world renowned success of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, and their continued popularity for over a third of a century as a stomachic, is scarcely more wonderful than the welcome that greets the annual appearance of Hostetter's Almanac. This valuable medical treatise is published by The Hostetter's Company, Pittsburg, Pa., under their own immediate supervision, employing 60 hands in that department. They are running about 11 months in the year on this work, and the issue of the same for 1891 will be more than ten millions, printed in the English, German, French, Welsh, Norwegian, Swedish, Holland, Bohemian and Spanish languages. Refer to a copy of it for valuable and interesting reading concerning health, and numerous testimonials as to the efficacy of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, amusement, varied information, astronomical calculations and chronological items, etc., which can be depended on for correctness. The Almanac for 1891 can be obtained free of cost, from druggists and general country dealers in all parts of the country.

The plans for the new $50,000 hotel has been received by the Newport Improvement Co., and by the kindness of the secretary we were shown the elevation and floor plans, and in every respect it will be first-class. It will have electric lights and salt and fresh water bath. The fresh water supply will be had from springs. The leading features of this hotel will be all outside rooms, and all kinds of entertainments and amusements can be had in the building. The site for the hotel has not yet been selected, as the line of the motor is not definitely settled.—Yaquina Republican.

A LOST ADDRESS.

A Trinidad Lady Writes to San Francisco for It.

Mrs. Harriet McNamara of 319 State Street, Trinidad, Colorado, while visiting in St. Louis last summer, did not suffer with her usual sick headaches and indigestion. Since my return to Trinidad her old troubles came upon her. It was not the St. Louis climate that did so much for her sick headaches. The secret is told in the following letter, received by Thomas Price & Son, the well-known messengers of 524 Sacramento Street, San Francisco. Mrs. McNamara writes:—

"Three months since I was visiting in St. Louis and obtained two bottles of Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla. It was of great relief to me in my headaches and indigestion. Since my return to Trinidad I feel the need of it, and as I have lost the address I write you to ask if you will not kindly forward this letter to the proper number in San Francisco, and have me sent a few more bottles of this valuable vegetable compound."

Joy's Vegetable Sarsaparilla is an almost certain cure for sick headaches and constipation. People who have used it once will send hundreds of miles to get it, as in the above instance.

The bran-pie social and supper at the Reading Rooms, Tuesday evening, was fairly well attended and the receipts were encouraging and will be added to the Reading Room fund.

A man who has practiced medicine for 40 years, ought to know what sugar read; what he says:

TOLEDO, O., Jan. 10, 1887.
Messrs. F. J. Cheney & Co., Gentlemen: I have been in the general practice of medicine for 40 years, and would say that in all my practice and experience have never seen a preparation that I could prescribe with as much confidence of success as I can Hall's Catarrh Cure manufactured by you. I have prescribed it a great many times and its effect is wonderful, and would say in conclusion that I have yet to find a case of catarrh that it would not cure, if they would take it according to directions.

Yours Truly,

AGRICULTURAL COLLEGE NOTES.

The students are now enjoying their holiday vacation. Some of them have gone to their homes to spend the holidays but the majority will remain in Corvallis during the vacation.

College closed last Friday and will begin the next term on January 5, 1891.

A car load of tile from F. Propst, of Albany, was received last week at the college farm and is being laid by the students under the supervision of Prof. H. T. French for the purpose of draining a portion of the farm.

About 100 plats of wheat have been sowed on the college farm this fall. It is all coming up nicely and is looking fine, several varieties of commercial manufactured fertilizers, are being tested and the public will be informed as to their value for the purpose in due time.

Prof. Coote is putting in his time during vacation in setting ornamental trees and shrubbery on the college campus which will in the future add greatly to the attractive appearance of the grounds.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark, in charge of the dormitory, on Tuesday evening gave a Christmas tree social for the students in their charge. The evening was pleasantly passed.

Another installment of machinery arrived last week from the east for the mechanical hall and is being placed in position by Prof. Covell assisted by the students. Besides the engine and machinery for wood work, there will be ready for operation at the beginning of next term, a large steam shaper, a speed lathe for iron work and ten forges in the blacksmith shop. During the next term every student will be required to put in one hour per day in practical work in this particular branch.

TO PARENT IN CORVALLIS.

Have you any children who do not attend Sunday School?

These children are a precious heritage from the Lord, and your hope for the future. Solemn obligations, to train them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord, are laid upon you. You have no time to lose.

"Time, the tomb builder, all pitiless," is sweeping them on to the common doom of all flesh. Soon the rich young life, riotous in its affluence, will be spent. Train these dear children now. To this end God has given you helps, amongst which the Sunday School deserves special mention.

The Church of Christ, meeting in Fisher's hall, will open such a school on the first Sunday in January, 1891, at 10 a. m., and you are hereby most cordially requested to put your children in its classes. Let us assure you, nothing improper shall enter into the matter, methods or management of this school. Send us your children and we will strive to make you felicitous returns.

RAISING SEEDS.—A gentleman who has had many years experience as assistant experimental gardener for D. M. Ferry & Co., of Michigan, one of the largest firms dealing in seeds in the United States, writes to parties in Corvallis asking for information with a view to coming here to go into the business of raising seeds. From information at hand the writer would advise the gentleman to come by all means. There are only two seed farms, in Oregon that we know of, and with so little competition, the grade of soil to be found in Benton county, and our mild climate, we see no reason why a seed farm if properly managed would not pay well here.

Fourteen bobos were run in at one haul by the marshal at Salem last Saturday. A robbery was committed at Oregon City a few days prior, and the marshal of Salem instituted a search of box cars of the south-bound Southern Pacific freight train with the above result.

Geo. Waggoner accompanied by his son O. V. Waggoner, returned home Wednesday to spend the holidays.

CANNERY MATTERS.

A special meeting of the board of trade was held Wednesday evening for the purpose of discussing the feasibility of forming a stock company and raising means to build a cannery at Corvallis. Mr. T. O. Scougall, of Oregon City, who has had fifteen years' experience in the canning business has been in the city looking over the grounds with a view to taking some stock should the enterprise materialize, and was present at the meeting of the board last evening and gave his views as to the cost of building and operating a cannery capable of turning out 500 cases of canned goods per day, the number of hands required to run it during the canning season, the market for the goods, the prices that could be paid for fruit and vegetables, the acreage that would be required to supply such a cannery. There seemed to be a great deal of interest taken in this enterprise and we hope ere another season rolls around to see a first-class cannery in full operation in Corvallis, as it would be of great benefit to this community, especially to the farmers, who ought to subscribe liberally to such an enterprise. But those who take lead in this matter should be careful not to make a mistake by starting in on a small amount of capital, for a cannery on a small scale will not pay and will only be a detriment to the community. In order to build and operate a cannery as it should be through the first season it will require from $50,000 to $60,000 in ready cash. Of course it will not take near this sum to build a cannery; perhaps one-fourth of this amount would be enough for this purpose, but it takes the cash to buy cans, fruit, vegetables, pay employes, etc. But this is not a large sum when the benefits of such an establishment are considered, which have already been discussed in the columns of the GAZETTE. The cannery should be built and in operation by next season.

NEWPORT MOTOR LINE.—Dr. J. R. Bayley, of Newport, was in Corvallis Tuesday, having just returned from Portland. The doctor is largely interested in the Newport and Kings Valley railroad. He says it is an assured fact that the road will be built. The engineers will arrive in Newport and commence immediate operations on the line from that city to Cape Foulweather about the middle of January, 1891.

John Stewart, son of Mrs. John Stewart of this city, is down from Eastern Oregon on a visit to relatives in this county. Mr. S. left Benton county a good many years ago and settled in Crook county, where he had the choice of a vast area of good land. The result is that "Lengthy," as he was called when a boy, is now among the solid men of the eastern country.

W. A. Cleveland, Levi Long and J. M. Long, well-to-do gentlemen were in Corvallis the first part of the week. They are traveling about Oregon with a view of determining upon a location, and express themselves as being well pleased with this section of the state.

On Monday Charley Wheeler and John Brumfield went outside the incorporation to decide an altercation according to London prize ring rules. After a number of interesting rounds, the honors were awarded to the latter.
