More Returns—"Honest John" Vindicated.

Charges which are certainly well founded have been made against Mr. Whiteaker on account of his relations some years ago with the Willamette falls lock company. While the whole facts are not generally known, enough is known to make it certain that the case would not bear examination that could rebound to Mr. Whiteaker's credit. He was a member of the legislature when the bill was passed; he became the owner of stock in the company, and that stock stood on the books in his name.—Oregonian, May 13.

No one, we fancy, will dispute a statement made by Mr. B. Goldsmith formerly of the firm of L. Golsmith & Co., of this city, for his reputation for truth and veracity is so well established that even the most hardened villifier or defamer will hardly dare question it. Mr. Goldsmith says that he was President of the Willamette Falls, and Canal Co., and he informed us that Mr. Whiteaker did not own any stock in the company. As President of company Mr. Goldsmith says that he had to sign all the stock and that he never signed any for Mr. Whiteaker. We hardly think the editor of the Oregonian would make such a statement as the above without having some reasonable impression of its truthfulness, and now that the gentleman who, more than any other, should know whereof he speaks, denies that Mr. Whiteaker owned any stock in the Willamette Falls, Locks and Canal Co., the Oregonian should make the denial equally as plain and prominent as it made its charge.—Sunday Welcome.

Shall the Chinese Be Naturalized?

E. B. Watson, as an attorney in a mining suit in which the rights of Chinese and Americans were at stake a few years ago, not only expressed the opinion that Chinese could be naturalized, but urged the then Clerk of this county to take the preliminary steps to naturalize them. Workingmen of Oregon, we ask you if you want a man on the Supreme Bench who holds such an opinion upon a question so important to your interests! By such a decision your only hope to get rid of Chinese competition would be gone, and you would be outcasts in your own land, while an alien race, degraded, unprogressive and uncivilized, would have an opportunity to become inheritors of your glorious country. Let no partisan of the Chinese assume the ermine or all is lost. Ponder well on this matter and act accordingly.—Jacksonville Times.

Better than Speeches.

Several of our Republican friends have asked us why Whiteaker does not come back and canvass the State with M. C. George. We answer that he was elected to represent Oregon in Congress, and as that body is in session it is his duty to remain there. The news we get of his work back there is a greater recommendation to him than all the speeches he could make. The following appropriations for Oregon recently reported to the House for their approval shows that he is attending to his duty:

Cascades canal, $100,000.

Upper Columbia and Snake rivers, $15,000.

Upper Willamette, $12,000.

Lower Willamette and Columbia, $45,000.

Yaquina Bay, $40,000.

Coquille river, $10,000.—Albany Democrat.

Refused by Grant.

The Mexicans are telling all sorts of stories about the meanness of Gen. Grant. When the party arrived at the charming mountain town of Orizaba, a coaladero, or twisting of bull tails was given in honor of the ex-President. Among the performers was a woman, who mounted upon a fine mustang, performing many surprising feats of horsemanship. Gen. Grant expressed his admiration of her prowess and praised the horse. In the usual Spanish style, the latter was at once offered the General, who accepted it. It was, however, pointed out to him that he must make some present in return, and rather than do so he sent the horse back.

Honest John.

The Walla Walla Statesman says: Great Scott, of the Oregonian, is laboring in the greatest agony to fulfill his contract with his party in order to defeat Honest John Whiteaker for Congress. All that the Oregonian can say against John Whiteaker will have no effect upon the people at large. They know that he is honest and able, and will prefer him before any other man who is placed before them. There is hardly a possibility that George will obtain a small majority of votes even in his own district, but Honest John will sweep Eastern Oregon like a whirlwind and be triumphantly elected. We have discovered that trickery is already being used in Umatilla county by the Republicans to cause a division in the Democratic ranks. This will most lamentably fail, for the people have already discovered that they have been made cat's paws of and are justly indignant. The boast of those wire workers in our sister county that they can drive the Democrats into the Republican camp was premature and will fail most lamentably. The Democrats of Umatilla will stick to their colors, as of old, and show by their votes their repugnance of trickery, fraud and corruption no matter in whatever guise it may appear.

Personal Opposition.

The more the radicals fight Judge Kelly the more votes they will make for him. They first started out to beat both Judge Kelly and Prim, but finding that job a little more than they could get away with, have concentrated all their energies against Judge Kelly. It would be an act of ingratitude on the part of the people of Oregon, after a man had served them in protecting their homes against the savages, in the Legislature, in the Senate of the United States, and upon the bench of the State courts, in every position faithfully and honestly, to now, by their votes, endorse the foul slanders brought against him by a set who expected, because they professed to be Democrats, special favors at the hands of the Judges. The opposition against Judge Kelly and Prim is purely personal, and brought about because there were two sides to the questions presented for their decisions, and they decided according to the law and against the slysters who are now trying to elect a court they hope can be more easily controlled.—Standard.

Addition, Division and Silence.

The New York Sun reprints the pretty letter written by Kemble, the Pennsylvania bribery felon, now awaiting sentence, who is the right bower of Grant and the confidential friend of Senator Cameron. He was, until he was indicted, the Chairman of the Republican National Committee. The letter was written while State Treasurer of Pennsylvania, in behalf of a notorious lobbyist and corruptionist:

"TREASURY DEPT OF PENNSYLVANIA, HARRISBURG, Pa., March 20, 1867.

MY DEAR TITIAN: Allow me to introduce to you my particular friend, Mr. George O. Evans. He has a claim that he wishes you to help him in. Put him through as you would me. He understands addition, division and silence. Yours, W. H. KEMBLE.

To Titian J. Coffey, Esq., Washington, D. C.

Mr. Tilden's Physical Condition.

The Omaha Herald, whose editor is a familiar acquaintance of Tilden's, and a delegate to the Cincinnati Convention, makes this reply to the falsehoods that are sent abroad for political effect in regard to Mr. Tilden's physical condition: Mr. Tilden is, notwithstanding his infirm health, one of the most laborious of men. He can outwork and outwalk half of the well men of middle age in the country, and when it comes to brains, or brain work, there is not a public man in either party who can match him. For further information please refer to Horatio Seymour, William M. Ewart, Mr. Justice Field (or Cyrus) Jeremiah Black, and others of like character.

In addition to the six attorneys who reside at Dallas, 22 were in attendance from abroad during the session of the circuit court at that place the past week.

An Infernal Machine.

K. Phillips, purser of the river steamer, Orient, running from this city to Dayton and intermediate points, was made a victim of the "loaded cigar" joke, which came very near resulting in a serious manner, and as it is, has inflicted serious injuries which will incapacitate Mr. Phillips from performing his duties for some days. Purser Phillips, after the steamer left Dayton, proceeded to smoke a cigar which had been given him by some party in this city. He had enjoyed the fragrance of the weed but a few minutes and had just removed the cigar from his mouth when to his astonishment the cigar revealed itself an infernal machine, and as he was entering his office it exploded the concussion breaking the glass of his office window. The cigar had been plugged with a dynamite cartridge. A portion of the charge struck him in the face which with his forehead was badly powder burned and the left eye was also injured but not to an extent to impair the vision. A piece of the cartridge also struck one of the fingers of his left hand, badly lacerating the flesh and the thumb and another finger was also injured. The wounds of Mr. Phillips were dressed as speedily as possible and on the arrival of the Orient at her wharf in this city yesterday afternoon he was taken to his residence on Fifth street. Another cigar given to Mr. Phillips by the same party was found to be similarly loaded. The practice of presenting parties with cigars loaded with powder cartridges has prevailed for some time in the city and the attending results of the trick played upon Mr. Phillips should be a sufficient lesson to put a stop to such business
