

THE EUGENE CITY GUARD.

ESTABLISHED FOR THE DISSEMINATION OF DEMOCRATIC PRINCIPLES, AND TO EARN AN HONEST LIVING BY THE SWEAT OF OUR BROW

VOL 30

EUGENE, OR., SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 18 1897.

NO 38

WEEKLY EUGENE GUARD.

CAMPBELL BROS. PUBLISHERS
OFFICE—East side of Willamette between Seventh and Eighth Streets.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION:
One Year, $2.00.
Six Months, $1.00.
Three Months, .50.
Advertising rates made known on application.

Address all business letters to GUARD,
Eugene, Oregon.

S. LUCKEY

DEALER IN
Clocks, Watches, Chains, Jewelry, Etc.
REPAIRING PROMPTLY DONE.
All Work Warranted.

L. W. BROWN, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon.
Office and residence over postoffice. Hours:
10 a. m. to 12, 6 to 9 p. m.

E. C. LAKE.

GRANITE AND MARBLE WORKS.
New Designs and New Prices in Foreign and Domestic Marble and Granite, Monuments, Headstones and Cemetery work of all kinds for 1897.
ALL WORK GUARANTEED!
Willamette Street, near Postoffice, Eugene, Or.

A. C. WOODCOCK,

Attorney-at-Law.
Office—One-half block south of Christmas's Street, Eugene, Oregon.

A. C. WOODCOCK,

Attorney-at-Law.
Office in Walton Clock.

L. L. WHITSON,

DENTIST.
Having purchased the office and fixtures of the late Dr. W. V. Henderson, I am now ready to do anything in the line of Dentistry at the above said office.

E. BELM, B. D. PAINE, F. W. OSBURN

President. Vice President. Cashier

THE

Eugene Loan and Savings

BANK,
Eugene, Oregon.

FACTORS—D. A. Paine, J. B. Harris, J. E.
Davis, B. D. Paine, W. E. Brown, J. F.
Robinson, F. W. Osburn.

Paid Up Capital, $50,000.

General Banking Business Transacted

Interest allowed on time deposits.
Accounts entrusted to our care will receive
special attention.

Eugene County Bank.

(Established in 1882.)
EUGENE, OREGON.

General Banking business all branches transacted on favorable terms.

A. G. HOVEY, President.
J. M. ABRAMS, Cashier.
A. G. HOVEY, Jr., Asst. Cash

RESOURCES.—S. B. EARLE,
President. S. B. EARLE,
Cashier.
J. P. SNOODGRASS, Assistant Cashier.

First National Bank Of Eugene.

paid up Cash Capital $50,000
Surplus and Profits, $50,000
Eugene - Oregon.

General banking business done on reasonable terms. Sight drafts on NEW YORK,
SAN FRANCISCO and PORT-LAND, OREGON.
Exchange sold on foreign countries.
All collections subject to check or certificate of deposit.
All collections entrusted to us will receive
special attention.

GEO. H. WILLIAMS.

Is Retained in the County Square- Court House Controversy.

Suits to be Filed in a Few Days.

Daily Guard, September 17.
In conversation with Attorney W. K. Scarborough today a GUARD reporter learned that Judge Geo. H. Williams of Portland has been retained as counsel by the parties who are making preparations to file suits to join in erecting the new court house and to restore the public square.
The necessary bonds and other papers are now being made up and in a few days the suits will be filed with Clerk Jennings.

TALENT IS APPRECIATED.

Miss Elizabeth Sawyers and Mrs. Louise S. Linn Capture the Musical Hearts of Santa Cruz.

In the Santa Cruz (Calif.) Daily Sentinel of Sept. 7, is mentioned an evening of music given at the Presbyterian church of that city. The leading performers were Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyers and Mrs. Louise S. Linn, both of whom were formerly in the University of Oregon conservatory of music at this place.

"When Miss Elizabeth Patterson Sawyers struck the keys, and drew from the organ such volumes of sweet melodies that one could hardly believe one's ears that there was so much power and charm contained therein. But Miss Sawyers is not only a talented instrumentalist; her ability as a vocalist is not less worthy of hearty commendation. You might say that the lady necessarily must be far advanced, because of the fact that she is a professor of music at the conservatory of music in Indianapolis. But there are musicians who are such merely mechanically, and others whose talent is a divine inspiration. Miss Sawyers belongs to the latter. And there could be no better endorsement of this statement than her elegant delivery of Mescheroni's 'Abide With Me,' and of the contra-alto part in that inspiring duet, 'Forever With the Lord,' from Gounod's 'Redemption.'

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

"There was, however, another musician of remarkable talent, namely, Miss Fletcher Linn, leading soprano of the 1st Presbyterian church in Portland, Oregon. The fact that Miss Sawyers and Mrs. Linn are sisters convinces a musician that the genius must dwell in the family. The last mentioned lady possesses a soprano of an exceedingly pure and flexible quality, and her knowledge of the art assists her in using this great gift with excellent advantage that the longer you listen to her the more eager you are to hear her sing. In the duet, 'Forward With the Lord,' and also in the solo, 'Ave Maria,' Mrs. Linn had a good opportunity to display her magnificent vocal organ, and she surely succeeded in making use of the same. That this able artist is also an instrumentalist was fully proven in her violin-obbligato to 'Abide With Me.' The 1st Presbyterian Church of Portland, Oregon, is indeed fortunate to have in its choir such a vocalist."

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 17.

Yellow fever is spreading in the South.

Hon. C. H. Baker, of Waller, was in the city today.

R. A. Cople returned from Cottage Grove this morning.

Chas. Mayhew is at Sacramento, attending the California State fair.

Dr. W. W. Oglesby of Junction arrived up on today's 2:04 local.

Miss Jennie Peattie is now teaching in the Pendleton public school.

J. M. Shelly returned this morning from a day spent at Boswell springs.

Billie Taylor came down from Medford yesterday, and is visiting friends here.

Lloyd Cherry left for Bishop Scott Academy, Portland on today's 10:55 local.

Mrs. Dr. Chapman, we are informed, will return here from the East next week.

Stephen Smeed is today loading a car with hops, which will be shipped to Milwaukee.

A number of loggers' liens were filed against Smith & McIntyre in the county clerk's office.

S. Smeed is shipping a car of hops East today to be sold by his brother-in-law, Mr. Weaver, of Wisconsin.

Sam Goldsmith, the well known drummer, arrived today. He now has a tall pop as traveling companion.

Chas. McClure has accepted a position with the Northern Pacific railroad at Portland, as claim agent.

Henry Miller, who had trouble here a few months since with Zach Moore, postmaster, is now in Corvallis.

Harry Bristow has returned from Eastern Oregon, where he spent the summer.

Mrs. Geo. M. Miller, editor of the Pacific Empire, is visiting in Eugene for a few days.

John Bentley left this morning for Centralia, Wash., where he will visit for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Hall returned to Creswell this afternoon after an over-Sunday visit here.

Prineville Review: E. J. White and Mack Davis returned from the Belknap springs on Friday of last week.

Stanger Kineaid returned this morning on his duties at Sal, after an over-Sunday visit with his family.

Dr. T. B. Ford, presiding elder of the Eugene M. E. district, returned today from the conference meeting at Corvallis.

Miss Maud Bonney returned to her classes in music at Cottage Grove yesterday, after a two weeks visit in Eugene.

M. S. Barker killed two jack rabbits on his place Sunday. These pests bid fair to become numerous in the valley in a few years.

Miss Alice Dorris was a passenger to McMinnville this morning, where she is a member of the faculty of the Baptist college.

A letter just received gives the information that M. L. Campbell, the former Eugene insurance agent, is at Mullain, Idaho.

Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Zeigler rode to Corvallis Saturday on bicycles, and returning Sunday, were accompanied by Prof. Charles Friedel.

D. Henderson, a nephew of Mrs. I. K. Peters, arrived this afternoon from San Diego, California, and will enter the University of Oregon this fall.

Hon. E. R. Skipworth and family arrived home from Roseburg this morning. Mr. Skipworth was in attendance upon the M. E. conference at that point as a lay member.

Florence West: "L. E. Bean informs me that he is only temporarily employed by the U. S. fish commission at present. He was offered steady employment at the Clackamas hatchery some time ago but declined it."

Ross Mathews left this morning, in company with Mrs. W. H. Fenton, for Silver Lake, via the Military route where he will teach this winter. Mrs. Fenton drives a heavily loaded wagon of supplies, while Ross goes on his bicycle.

Prineville Review: Mr. and Mrs. L. S. Logan returned from their trip to Eugene and vicinity. They have made arrangements for spending the winter in Eugene and will start down in two or three weeks.

Prof. and Mrs. F. I. Washburn and family returned today from Yaguna bay where they have spent the summer. Mr. Washburn has been looking after the interests of the oysters he transplanted in Yaguna bay and Coos bay, and reports them in a very flourishing and healthy condition.

Daily Guard, September 17.

PLEASANT DANCING PARTY.

Saturday night about 20 couple of Eugene's dancers met at Army hall and until the midnight hour enjoyed themselves as only lovers of the terpsichorean art can. It is evident this will continue to be a very popular amusement with Eugene's young people this winter, and their number will be augmented by the students who will arrive in considerable numbers this week.

RESIGNED.—Dr. H. F. McCosker has resigned as supervisor of road district No. 2, and J. M. Francis has been appointed to the vacancy by the county court.

SALARY INCREASED.—The commissioners' court has increased the salary of E. Brown, ferryman at Lowell, from $15 to $20 per month.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

Session Opened This Morning With Good Attendance.

Position of Instructors.

The Eugene public schools opened this morning, and great crowds of pupils were on the streets today invading the book stores, or with books in hand, making their way schoolward.

We cannot give the enrollment today, as it was not completed this morning. Indications point, however, to a good attendance. A number of prospective pupils are still in the hop yards and orchards and for a month the attendance will be daily increased.

The opening of the public schools, together with the University, which opens one week from today will give an added life to Eugene.

A number of changes in the positions of teachers elected were made and the position each will occupy are as follows:

CENTRAL BUILDING.

E. D. Resler, Supt. and 9th grade.
Miss Ida Patterson, 8th B and 7th A.
Miss Edith Brown 7th B and 6th A.
Mrs. Bettie Humphrey, 6th B and 5th A.

Miss Etta Fisher, 5th B and 4th A.
Miss Nettie K. Ess, 4th B and 3rd A.
Miss Jennie McClure, 4th B and 2d A.

Miss Emma C. Case, 3rd B and 1st.

GRAVEY SCHOOL.

E. E. Orton, Prin. and 8th grade A.
Miss Myra Norris, 8th B and 7th A.
Miss Emma Wood, 7th B and 6th A.
Miss Ernest Whitmore, 6th B and 5th A.

Miss Edith Kerns, 5th B and 4th A.
Miss Laura Bromley, 4th B and 3rd A.

Miss Jennie Anderson, 3rd B and 2nd A.

Mrs. Ollie Slayton, 2nd B and 1st.

An Awful Accident.

Gordon Globe, Sept. 10th: "Mr. L. L. Shelly, of Mayville, is lying at the point of death at the Ribbschert hotel in Condon, the result of an accident he met with at Charley Fix's new barn Tuesday evening. It is said that he got down from his wagon and drove the team under the shed, and in doing so he was caught between the building and wagon in some way and could not stop the team in time to save himself from being very badly injured. Dr. Hogan is doing all in his power to save the unfortunate man's life, but the chances are strongly against him, as we are informed that his limbs are paralyzed, and he has prepared for death if it should come. If B. Hendricks was called in Wednesday morning and Mr. Shelly made his will, leaving his estate to his father, John Shelly, who resides in Lane county."

LATER.

"Mr. Shelly died Wednesday night about 10:30 o'clock. The remains will be taken to Mayville and the funeral will take place this (Thursday) afternoon about 4 o'clock, after which the burial will take place in Mayville cemetery."

John Shelly is a respected citizen of Pleasant Hill.

Daily Guard September 17.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late John Blume occurred at Pleasant Hill cemetery yesterday afternoon. The deceased was 64 years and 1 month of age. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. R. G. Callison. A delegation of 20 comrades from J. W. Geary Post of this city conducted the services at the grave according to the G. A. R. ritual. The funeral procession was over one-half mile long.

After the funeral the citizens of that place extended all courtesies to the veterans present. Among those who we kindly remember are Mrs. R. J. Hemphill and Comrades Joe Wilson and J. T. Martin.

TWO MORE INSTRUCTORS HERE.—Professors F. G. Schmidt and A. Lachman, newly-elected members of the University of Oregon faculty, have arrived to take up their work in the school. Professor Schmidt was elected to take the chair of modern languages, and comes from John Hopkins University, Baltimore. Professor Lachman takes the chair of chemistry made vacant by the death of Edgar McClure. He is a graduate of Berkeley, California, the University of Munich, Germany, and the University of Meissen.

FLOUR MILL PURCHASED.—Florence West: "Chas. R. David informed us a few days ago that he has purchased a flour mill of Mr. P. P. Palmer at Scottsburg. He will at once commence the work of moving the machinery to his site on the Suslaw and expects to be ready to grind this fall. We are glad to learn of this addition to our manufacturing industries of the valley as the settlers who wish to do so can raise the wheat and have it made into flour for their own use."

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 14.

W. B. Andrews is on his way to Ohio on a visit.

Hon. Burger Hermain looked for Washington.

J. C. Porter, of Schemis, was in Eugene today.

Mrs. J. W. Keeney, of Jasper, is visiting in the city.

Mrs. P. Lepold was visiting in the city yesterday.

H. F. Finn, of Gate Creek, spent last night in Eugene.

Henry Lang, the Portland drummer, was in the city today.

Miss L. E. Hanson returned today from a visit at Cottage Grove.

Hon. J. D. Starnock went to Pleasant Hill this afternoon on a short visit.

Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Howard, of Portland, arrived up on today's 2:04 local.

President Chapman has been selling a portion of his goods to second hand stores.

Harry Keeney and Sam Handsaker, of Jasper, are attending our public schools.

Miss Marian White left for Month-mouth this morning to attend the normal school.

Miss R. E. Haines left for Corvallis today to resume her studies at the Agricultural College.

Major L. D. Forrest, of Leaburg, was doing business in the city today. He is now a regular farmer.

Mr. Overton, of Linn county, has moved to Eugene. A part of his family will attend the U. of O.

Mrs. D. W. Coolidge and children returned today from an outing at Newport and points in the valley.

The moving of the old court house is progressing favorably. It has been moved to the extreme limit east.

Councilman E. K. Henderson, accompanied by G. W. Knapp, left this morning for his Eastern Oregon ranch.

The venerable craft, the Eliza Anderson, bound for St. Michaels, and supposed to have foundered, is safe at Dulcan Harbor.

W. C. Moran is doing reportorial work for the Register during the absence of City Editor Edwards, who is in the county.

P. N. Laid returned from Polk county last evening and reports seeing a great deal of grain in the shock also some wool yet.

Lelen Wooley, of Fairmount, accepted a position as clerk in H. G. Miller's bookstore, and started in on his new position this morning.

Bessie Rankin, the pacing filly, took second money at the California state fair again the other day. The race was won in 2:11.

Baker City Republican: Mr. W. Hyde Stalker, private secretary to President Chapman of the U. S. and Eugene, is a guest at the 29th local.

D. Street, of Eugene, is the proprietor of Biggs, Cal., a new line on this morning's overland train. Mr. Street has several farms in Lane county.

A team belonging to Noah Christmas took a spin from the cemetery dryer at noon today. The hack was badly used up. The team came scared at the whistle.

Miss Nettie Whitney went to Albany on today's 10:55 local. She is one of the clerks in the public schools of that city, her duties commencing Monday next.

The M.