Board of Trustees.

TUESDAY EVE., OCTOBER 29, 1867. The Board of Trustees meet pursuant to adjournment. A full Board present. The meeting was called to order by D. Linn, President, and the minutes of the preceding session were read and approved.

SENTINEL office bill, $4, for publishing notice of special election; Linn & Hall's bill for $4, for repairs on station house; M. Bellinger's bill, $5, for wood for town; O'Coyle's bill, $2, for cutting wood, and A. Fisher's bill, $1 12—referred to the usual committee.

Licenses to retail spirituous liquors were granted to John Walters and to John Noland—each one was assessed $50 for six months.

The President informed the Board that the contract for constructing crosswalks, by A. M. Berry, was completed and ready to be received by the Board; when, on motion of Mr. Funck, a special committee was appointed to examine the work and report at the next meeting, and Mr. Funck, Orth and Martin were appointed the committee.

Liquor Traffic Stopped.—We understand that the sale of liquor, by the sutlers at Fort Klamath, has been protested against by the Indian agent, as in violation of an express stipulation in the treaty with the "Klamaths," and its sale forbidden by Lieut. Small, except on presentation of a written order from him.

Expedition from Klamath.—Agent Applegate left Klamath Lake some time last week, with an escort of five soldiers and thirty-five Indians, for the purpose of meeting Superintendent Huntington. It is understood that the latter is coming to Fort Klamath by way of the Dalles.

For Rent.—Mr. Thomas Chauver advertises his property, at Dardanells, for rent. This property is pleasantly situated, and presents many inducements to those desiring to rent a public house.

Returns from California indicate that Curry has been beat some 2,000, and Swett by about 1,000.

DIED.—October 29th, at 1 o'clock A. M. James Henry, son of William Henry, aged eight years. (Chicago, Ill. papers please copy.)

FROM THE FIELD.—We published in our last issue an account of a battle between Gen. Crook's command and a large party of Indians, in which the former was said to have lost a Lieutenant and several men. We now have a rumor, by way of Fort Klamath, that the fight occurred about twenty miles from Goose Lake Valley, about the 17th of September, and that Crook's had Lieutenant Manigan and six men killed, and about twenty men wounded. His command, consisting of about 40 men, of Co. "H," U. S. Cav., jumped up a band of P-intes and Pitt river Indians, over a hundred strong, who were entrenched in the rocks and made a desperate resistance. A messenger from Crook is said to have arrived at Fort Klamath, with dispatches; but as we have no positive information, we give the report for what it is worth.

NEW TELEGRAPH OFFICE.—There is to be a telegraph office opened at Ashland, in a few days. It is intended for a repair station, but will probably be a great convenience to the people of that place. The office is to be in the store of Baum & Solomon, and Mr. Baum will run the machine. The tariff between that place and Jacksonville will probably be fifty cents for ten words.

LIQUOR TRAFFIC STOPPED.—We understand that the sale of liquor, by the sutlers at Fort Klamath, has been protested against by the Indian agent, as in violation of an express stipulation in the treaty with the "Klamaths," and its sale forbidden by Lieut. Small, except on presentation of a written order from him.

EXPEDITION FROM KLAMATH.—Agent Applegate left Klamath Lake some time last week, with an escort of five soldiers and thirty-five Indians, for the purpose of meeting Superintendent Huntington. It is understood that the latter is coming to Fort Klamath by way of the Dalles.
