THE OREGON SENTINEL

WEDNESDAY, : : June 25, 1879.

RELIGIOUS.—President Rogers, of the Ashland College, will occupy the pulpit of the M. E. Church next Sunday at 11 A. M. Rev. F. X. Blanchet will hold services at the Catholic Church at Eagle Point on Sunday, July 6th.

RETURNED.—Messrs. Eckleson and McKenzie returned from Roseburg on Friday last. Their surveying contract is located on Applegate and Evans creeks, the ground to be surveyed on the latter being above Thomas' mill.

RECOVERED.—We are glad to note the recovery of Mr. Geo. A. Jackson, who has been very low for several months but who is fully recovered. It is largely due to the beneficial effect of the water at Soda Springs where he has been sojourning.

FOURTH OF JULY.—Preparations for our celebration are still progressing. The prospect is that we will have a very pleasant celebration without interfering with any of those outside. The ball in the evening will, no doubt be well attended.

SOMETHING NEW.—Mr. K. Kubli has at his store a novel appliance the "whipple guide." It is intended to equalize the draught on freight wagons and steadies the tongue and prevents it from striking the horses. It is said to be a success and of course is patented.

LECTURE.—Prof Lowell L. Rogers President of the Ashland College and Normal School, will lecture on "Education" on Saturday evening next at the M. E. Church.. This subject has been the work of Prof. Rogers' life and the lecture will no doubt be very interesting.

PRIVATE SCHOOL.—Prof Merritt started a private school on Monday morning with over thirty scholars. It is a morning school, the hours being from eight till eleven. The scholars are all small, the object being to give them a fair start in the race for honor during the next school year.

PURCHASING HORSES.—Mr. Jay Clough left here on Thursday last with a number of fine horses with which to stock the line between Roseburg and Coos Bay. At present the mail is being packed, but very soon it will be taken through in first class passenger stages, and Clough knows just how to do it.

NEW BUILDINGS.—Mr. J. A. Cardwell will soon commence the erection of a frame building between his livery stable and Ryan's. It is to be fifty four feet deep with a store in front and six rooms in the rear. Mrs. McCully has lumber on the ground for the construction of another building for rent on her lot.

ODD FELLOWS CELEBRATION.—We are glad to announce that Ex-Governor Chadwick has accepted the invitation of Jacksonville Lodge I. O. O. F. to deliver the oration at their anniversary celebration on August 18th. Mr. Chadwick's reputation as an orator is well known, and the public may expect an intellectual feast.

MIND READING.—Prof. Rice gave four tests in this office yesterday in mind reading and in every instance walked straight to an obscure object thought of. Our devil thought he had found his brother. All we have to say is that the performance was incomprehensible. If any one thinks this is a puff they can speedily be convinced to the contrary.

BEAUTIFUL WREATH.—We saw yesterday an exquisite wreath of flowers made of zephyr by Miss Pauline Wetterer. It was made under the instructions of the ladies of St. Mary's Academy, and was the work of several months. It is a beautiful thing, combining roses, rose buds, lillies, pansies geraniums and other flowers, looking exceedingly natural and reflecting credit both on the instructors and the pupil.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES.—At a special meeting of the Board of Trustees held on Monday the 16th the following proceedings were had:

The Committee on Streets was ordered to have the sidewalks on the west side of Oregon steeet, from its intersection with Miner street to the north line of G. H. Young's lot, constructed to conform with the grade established by the survey made by J. S. Howard.

The consideration of the ordinance prohibiting the construction of wooden buildings on blocks seven and eight was deferred until the next regular meeting.

R. F. Dowell, Esq., started for Portland yesterday morning to attend to his case against Griswold.

Mr. Simon Caro, left here for Roseburg last Thursday, to take charge of the business of Caro Bros.

We learn that Mr. Jay Beach has purchased a large tract of State land near Linkville for a stock farm.

Clough and Carll have sub-let the first forty miles of the mail route between Roseburg and Empire City.

E. D. Foudray has taken charge of the Bybee & Hawkette mine as receiver, and has hands engaged in cleaning up.

Those contemplating building should confer with Edwin Smith, as very advantageous terms can be made with him.

Work is going on rapidly on the new bridge across Rogue river at Rock Point. Already five bents are in position.

C. K. Klum of Ashland is receiving new harness, saddlery and everything in his line and sells at lowest rates.

The New State Hotel is becoming noted for quiet, cleanliness and an excellent table. Its guests always look happy.

Thanks to Misses Maggie Linn and Rhoda Kinney for a nice present of cherries. The young ladies are always welcome.

P. B. Lewis, of Applegate, has gone to Fort Klamath with a four horse load of freight. He will be gone until next week.

Mr. Pat Donegan has recovered from the injury to his foot and is again at work and is ready to shoe or do anything in the blacksmith line.

The Ashland "Tidings" will appear in a new dress this week. Glad to see such a sign of the prosperity of that steady journal.

Plymale has some of the nicest turn-outs in the city and turns them out in prices in accordance with the times. He is always ready to furnish transportation for travellers.

Mr. J. W. Manning has refused three hundred dollars for a foal only six weeks old sired by Jay Beach's "Altamont."

The M. E. Church South building, at Phoenix, has been raised and mechanics are at work inclosing it. It will be a neat structure.

J. E. Beggs has the government freighting contract from Roseburg to Fort Klamath. It is at a low figure, but Joe knows his own business.

Jesse Huggins killed a California badger weighing eighteen pounds on Missouri gulch one day last week. They are quite a curiosity in this locality.

The people of Phoenix held a meeting last Monday evening to consider the question of celebrating the Fourth at home. We have not heard the result.

Look out for the "needle lottery man." Betting at his game is the lowest kind of street gambling, and might as well be thrown into Rogue river.

John Fritz, who was at Bartlett Springs about one year since, can hear of something to his pecuniary advantage by addressing the SENTINEL office.

K. Kubli is agent for the celebrated Whitewater farm wagon—acknowledged to be one the best manufactured. Examine them before purchasing any other.

Breckenfield has suits cheaper than any. A full stock of gent's furnishing goods and latest styles of standard prints. If you call, you cannot fail to purchase.

Jos S. Cone, of the firm of Cone & Welton, wool dealers of Red Bluff, is a candidate for Railroad Commissioner in California on the Republican ticket.

The Grave Creek gravel mining company have discontinued piping, the water becoming slack. They will probably continue the extension of their ditch.

Mr. Henry Klippell, Supt of the Squaw Lake Company, was in town yesterday. The mine is looking well and the depth of the bank of pay gravel is increasing.

The Board of Engineers are still taking testimony of sea Captains with regard to the harbor of refuge. Faunt leroy appears to be the main champion of Crescent city.

Our friend E. F. Leahy, of Portland speaks in a private letter of the rapid improvement of that city, and adds that railroad connection with the East is no longer doubtful.

The scholastic year of St. Mary's Academy closed on Friday last. The "sisters" left on Monday for Portland and the summer vacation will end about the last of August.

Our patriotic friends at Ashland are preparing for a splendid celebration. President Rogers of the Ashland College, is to deliver the oration, and a splendid time is anticipated.

A large number of Congressmen are going to Europe on a pleasure trip. So far as the value of their services to the country are concerned they might have been to Europe all summer.

Supervisor Jacob Ish has repaired the bridge across Jackson creek in his District in a most creditable manner. A little attention in the way of gravel to the Ross hill would not be amiss.

There is said to be an unusual amount of travel on the road to Roseburg at present. Large amounts of wool are being shipped and a considerable emigration is pushing Northward.

Wool from this county is now selling at Roseburg for 20½ cents cash and 22 cents is allowed when pay is taken in trade. The latest San Francisco quototiyns are 25 to 28 cents per pound.

The Sterling mine is becoming quite a place of resort for Sunday pic nic parties. Piping will be continued for a month yet, and the scientific manner in which the mine is worked is a source of great interest to visitors.

The members of the "Eintracht" of this place are requested to meet at Veit Schutz' hall at 7:30 this evening. The election of officers for the ensuing term will be among the business to be transacted and a full attendance is desired.

We learn from the "Union" that a serious affray took place in Yreka last week between Geo. Fiock and Chrisholock, which resulted in the latter being severely cut with a knife. At last accounts the wounded man was comfortable.

Notice the programme for the Odd Fellow's celebration which is to take place on August 18th. It is several years since this order has had a celebration and there is no doubt they will do everything to make the occasion a pleasant one.

The Republicans of California have nominated Geo. C. Perkins of "Butte" for Governor, General John Mansfield of Los Angeles Lieut. Governor, D. M. Burns of Yolo secretary of State. McKenna was again nominated for Congress in the 3d district.

We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket to the annual Fair of the Washington County Agricultural Society, to be held at Hillsborough on July third. D. M. C. Gault, formerly editor of this paper, is secretary of the society.

The "Independent" is still of the opinion that the "ring" is yet in existence in Jackson county. We had forgotten that "a ring has no end" and Kelly seems to think political rings are governed by the same rule as long as there is a treasury to plunder. However it may be we will always be found on the side of the people.

Walter Jackson with Wasserman & Co of Portland is in town.

Madame Holt, of the "Franco," is always on hand to entertain her friends, and spares no pains to make them comfortable. Her table is always supplied with the best in the market.

The managers of the Willow Springs celebration are making grand preparations for the Fourth at that place, and they propose making the Lancers quadrille executed on horseback, one of the features of the occasion. Read their ad.

Daley, Tozer & Emery, of Ashland, have a new planer in operation in their sash, door and furniture factory. It is one of the neatest pieces of machinery ever brought to this county. The company is kept constantly busy filling orders.

The Prince Imperial of France has been cruelly assassinated by the Zulus, who crept on a small party of officers while reconnoitering. Thus perishes the last of the Bonapartes except "Jerome," son of Madame Bonaparte, who recently died in Baltimore.

More trouble about the Parsons and Brantz claims yesterday on Jackson creek. Deputy Sheriff Caton went up with a warrant for John Cimborskey, who seems to have become mixed up in the affair. They should settle their titles in a legitimate [illegible]

We acknowledge a handsome cabinet specimen of gold quartz from the Sugar Pine ledge, the property of Daniel and George Green. Those gentlemen have a competency in this mine, and we hear that their supply of rock is still abundant and yielding handsomely

Mr. D. F. Leahy, Division Superintendent of the W. U. Telegraph Company for the territory between British Columbia and Yreka, was in town yesterday on his way to the latter place. He was accompanied by Mr. John A. Crouch, his chief of construction, both on a tour of inspection.

Mr. Atkinson, general manager of the Ashland Woolen Mill, has established agencies at Roseburg and Portland. The fine fabrics of this mill are commanding attention and very justly so. Every dollar invested in the cloth or blankets purchased at this establishment is so much saved to our people.

Stage drivers and travellers between this place and Ashland report the Wagner creek bridge in a very bad condition and not safe for the crossing of heavy wagons. We call the attention of the Road Supervisor of the district to the matter so that repairs can be made before an accident occurs.

Democratic papers in California seem to concede the success of the Republican ticket. It is to be hoped that Luttrell of the Third Congressional District will be replaced by McKenna, as Luttrell's whole stock in the statesman's trade is cheek of the most brazen kind and [illegible]

We took some Portland visitors to Mr. Peter Britt's beautiful place yesterday and they were a little surprised to find oranges and figs approaching maturity. They were informed, however, that the orange was an exotic. The crop of figs is large and Mr. B. expects to have ripe fruit within two weeks, and a second crop in September.

Mr. Thomas Berryman, who has just arrived from Silver creek, informs us that some of the claims on the streams are paying good wages. He entered there and thinks that there will be many claims that will not pay for working but that others will be comparatively rich. All the ground claimed and claims can be readily purchased. A few claims on Briggs creek appear to be paying well.

A subscriber who lives on the desert sends us the following, which leads us to believe that "The Desert" is a misnomer: Desert land as tried by me early york cabbage heads that weighed four pounds; pea vines seven feet high, ten acres of corn from four to six feet high and in tassel, and bean vines full of beans. Have had new potatoes for two months. Who can beat this on June 20th? J. S. GRIGSBY.

Mr. Richard Cook of the Steamboat quartz mine was in town yesterday. He says active preparations are being made to sink again in the main shaft until good rock is found if it is in the hill. Mr. Cook is a miner of thorough practical experience and thinks there is no reason why rich rock should not be soon struck. "[illegible]" has been one of our very [illegible] and we are glad to learn that efforts [illegible] to find the lost vein that was once perfectly yellow with gold.

Frank Ennis, Supt. of the Sterling mine is a business man. He started out early on Monday so as to catch his Holly Hock at the wash tub, but when only a short distance from home his celebrated horse lay down in the road, breaking one of the shafts of the buggy. This is the same animal that stopped in the middle of "Applegate" to count the salmon while Frank and his girl were shivering to death. We dont expect to go to Frank's wedding till he parts with the brute.

Mr. Sam Cameron, of Douglas county, was exceedingly anxious to marry a Miss Shoemaker last week but her friends desired him to show that he was not already sufficiently married. He assured them that a divorce had been granted in Jackson county and telegraphed to our County Clerk for the record. The reply was quite unsatisfactory and the bigamous alliance was prevented. Meanwhile the proposed bride has been spirited away and the "Independent" predicts that if her friends try to regain her by force it will make serious trouble.

NOVEL SETTLEMENT.—About two years ago the clothing of a man named M. M. Brown was found on the banks of Rogue river, and as he had been despondent for some time it was quite certain that he had suicided. His rash act was deeply deplored by his creditors, but they promptly gathered up his few worldly effects, had them sold at Sheriff's sale, and in sorrow that they did not cover the judgments divided the proceeds. Poor Brown was forgotten; the treacherous stream had swallowed up all his faults, death had paid all his debts. On Saturday last Brown resurrected himself and was met on the street in Jacksonville by Mr. Robt Westrop who shrunk aghast at the apparition. Brown recognized him and said quietly "dont be scared, I'm not a ghost." Being asked why he played such a trick he answered: "Over head and ears in debt, couldn't get out; that old jumper I left on the bank only cost six bits, shoes wore out, hat didn't cost any thing, and so I paid the whole debt with a wardrobe that wasn't worth a cent." Brown is on foot travelling towards Roseburg and all attempts at suicide on his part should be looked upon with suspicion.

WRECKED AT LAST.—Dr. J. C. Belt, formerly of Jacksonville, was last week sent to the Insane Asylum from Douglas county—cause whiskey and opium. Only a little paragraph, but a sad sorrowful sermon. Only a passing note of another human wreck, but a whole volume of fearful warning to many young men who are following in the same dangerous track. Only a few years ago in the bloom of manhood, respectably connected, trained for a noble pursuit with a fair start in life, now but a drivelling idiot. Reflect young man who are sailing your boats in the same dangerous track. Do not imagine you are stronger than poor Joe was or flatter yourselves that the devil's quicksand that swallowed him is not bottomless. Are you who sometimes violate the law by giving whiskey to boys under age know that the act is criminal and that the sin of a suicide or the responsibility of a human wreck may sometimes fall like a black shadow on your own soul.

SCHOOL BOOKS ADOPTED.—The School Board of Education have, upon the votes of a majority of the County School Superintendent [illegible] adopted the "Independent" [illegible] by A. Barnes & [illegible] Thayer, Raymond & Co. announced that they will be the authorized books until 1881. The vote stood sixteen for the Independent, two for the Appleton, three for the Bancroft series, the superintendents of Jackson, Josephine and Grant voting for the latter. The new series are of the very highest order of excellence both in point of construction and in literary selection and arrangement. Although the contract is only for two years their adoption will doubtless end the controversy for many years, as it will be next to impossible to supplant them with a more excellent work. The State will be supplied by September 1st.

SCHOOL MEETING.—The school meeting held on Saturday last was well attended and much interest was manifested. A petition addressed to the Directors asking for the re-engagement of Prof Merritt and signed by one hundred and ten of his pupils was read and a motion requesting the board to retain him for the ensuing year at the salary asked by him was adopted without a dissenting voice. The directors expressed their intention to provide an additional teacher for the next school year so that full justice can be done to all departments. We are confident that the patrons will sustain the Board in [illegible] expenditures. The directors it will [illegible] cent if they do not provide the means of carrying out their own wishes. Funds are all the Board now asks to make ours the best public school in the State.

VISITORS.—On Saturday morning Mrs. Chrisman, of Lafayette, and two of her daughters, Miss. Mary Chrisman and Mrs. Geo. H. Stewart, of Vancouver, arrived here by the Northern stage. Mrs. Chrisman is the mother of Mrs. Wm. Turner, and was a resident of this county in 1855. Stage travel was a new experience to the ladies and they speak in the highest terms of the kind and gentlemanly treatment of Agents and drivers. Indeed those who speak otherwise are exceedingly scarce.

NOTICE.—The Stockholders of the Galice Creek Mill and Mining Company are hereby notified that the annual meeting of the company will be held at the office of C. W. Kahler, in Jacksonville, at 4 P. M. on the 1st day of July, 1879.

J. W. MERRITT, Sec.

The absence of saloons in Ashland is one of the strongest arguments in favor of its college. Keep your children from temptation if you can until their characters are strong and firm and it will save many a wreck. There is nothing more sad on God's earth than to see bright eyed generous boys lounging in an idle and profitless way about saloons, familiarizing themselves with vicious habits—playing with fire that may afterwards consume them. Keep your children from temptation; if in after years they fall, they alone are accountable.
