The directors of the O. & C. railroad Tuesday elected the following officers: Henry Villard, president; Richard Kohler, of Portland, vice-president; J. N. Dolph, of Portland second vice-president; Geo. H. Andrews, of Portland, secretary and treasurer; H. H. Wyndale, of New York, assistant secretary; Anthony L. Thomas, of New York, assistant treasurer.

GIPSIES IN TOWNS.

On Thursday five wagons loaded with wandering vagabonds called gipsies, arrived here from the north. A camp was made near Dr. Jackson's residence but they were soon sent out of town as they were showing a disposition to make free with whatever they wanted. Their chief business is fortune telling and, no doubt, there will be some silly people who will pay them for making up pleasant lies with which to tickle their vanity.

MATRIMONIAL.

Our friend Geo. L. Chase, one of the best boys of the O. & C. Stage line will start for Roseburg to-morrow to be present at an interesting ceremony that is to take place at the residence of E. G. Hurlb on Wednesday evening. The other party is Miss Annie Little, one of Jacksonville's best and prettiest maidens, and we wish George and his bride their full measure of happiness. May the matrimonial "brake" never have to be applied all they get to the "home station" at the end of life's journey.

ON A TOUR OF INSPECTION.

Chas. A. F. Morris chief engineer of the O. & C. R. R. Co. and W. A. Smith an engineer of the London advisory board went as far south as the Klamath river this week inspecting lines and taking in the general topography of the country. Both gentlemen went north on Thursday by private conveyance and while somewhat reticent Mr. Morris stated that the only difficulty in the way of rapid work on the extension was scarcity of labor as the N. P. was paying higher rates and absorbing all the labor offering.

CATCHING TIMBER ON UNSERVED LEAS.

A very important decision has just been rendered in the U. S. District Court in Portland in the case of the U. S. vs. Joseph D. Young and same via Jerry C. White—parties residing in Baker county, Oregon. Suit was brought for damages for cutting timber on unserved public land and the court held that in both cases it was a trespass for which the defendants were liable in the amount of the value of the timber cut. Parties in Jackson, Josephine and Lake counties had better make a note of this decision before they get into trouble.

CELEBRATION AT KERBYVILLE.

The Odd Fellows of Kerbyville Lodge No. 55 celebrated the 63d anniversary of the institution of Odd Fellowship in America with literary exercises and a ball at Ryder's hotel on Wednesday last—the 26th inst. The exercises consisted of a procession through the streets, headed by the Jacksonville brass band, after which literary exercises were held in the court house at Kerbyville. The oration delivered by Prof. A. J. Johnson of this place, and the poem by E. V. Thorn of San Francisco were especially deserving of praise and were listened to by a large crowd notwithstanding the inclement weather that had prevailed for several days before the celebration. At the ball held at Ryder's hotel in Kerbyville a large crowd was present and a general good time had. We will give further details next week.

CLEARED.

Arion Beiber, assistant postmaster at Lakeview who was arrested by Postal Inspector Simpson on a charge of abstracting checks from a letter has been discharged by U. S. Commissioner Lanson at Portland. Mr. Beiber was accused of stealing two checks contained in a letter registered at Lakeview and addressed to Mr. Asher Marks of Roseburg by Mr. Stevens, of the former place. On the arrival of the letter at its destination the checks were missing but a third, for $100 was in the letter. A few weeks since the identical checks were found on Archy Campbell, arrested at Oroville Cal. and the hotel register at Roseburg shows that Campbell was there the day the letter arrived and he states that he found them on the street, at that place. It seems possible that Mr. Marks might have dropped them but at any rate nothing whatever could be shown to implicate Mr. Beiber. His being dragged all the way to Portland for examination on so flimsy a clue is certainly a great injustice and his friends are justly indignant. We did not give his name last week at the request of Mr. Simpson and now we are glad to note that he is completely exonerated.

Roads are again drying up rapidly but are still very bad between Grave creek and Roseburg. This season will, no doubt, and the troubles of teamsters in that section.

Hon. W. D. Fenton Democratic candidate for congress arrived here Thursday and addressed an audience at Ashland yesterday. He will speak here to-day at 1 P. M.

Says the Roseburg "Plainsdealer" of last week, Messrs. Abraham and Will his advice for three hundred loggers. Now is the time, let no one say he can't get work.

Over one hundred Chinese have gone from this county to work on the rail road and will be employed about Myrtle creek. There seems to be just as many shoes as ever.

A shooting scrape, says the Yreka Journal, took place in Shasta valley last week between a man named Burns and Henry Irons in which the latter received a serious wound.

Look out for Karewski's proposal, next week, to furnish all kinds of farm implements direct from the manufacturers and at lowest prices.

A band of about one hundred cattle belonging to Klum & Finley were driven to Ashland on Wednesday. They will be pastured there a short time and then be driven to the brush grass region.

The meanest man on record sent through a postoffice presided over by a woman a postal card on which was written, "Dear Jack! Here's the details of that scandal." And the rest was in Greek.

Prof. Darwin the noted scientist is dead. Perhaps he can now find the "missing link" and if the idea of "megatymphosis" is true he may be wandering among the baboons in an Indian jungle.

Two young children of Walt Brown, who lives in Chewaucan valley, Lake county, were poisoned last week by eating wild parsnips, but were saved from death by the prompt administration of antidotes.

The Ashland "Tidings" says J. S. Eubanks, Sr., will probably return to Ashland about the first of May to again open a blacksmith shop there. He finds no place that suits him better than Ashland, after all.

Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; PARSONS EXTERMINATOR. Burns granaries and households cleared in a single night. No fear of bad smells. Best and cheapest vermin killer in the world. Sold everywhere.

We notice Patrick McCavanaugh, whose leg was amputated last fall, sporting a brand new cork leg on the streets yesterday. He finds it a little awkward but thinks that in a short time it will be a "stump" badly.

The Republicans of the 2nd judicial district have nominated Hon. E. G. Hurlb, son-in-law of Mrs. Little of this place, for District Attorney. The nomination is an excellent one and there is little doubt of Mr. Hurlb's election.

Terrible itching and scaly humors, ulcers, sores and scrofulous swellings cured by the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures) externally, and Cuticura Resolvent (blood purifier) internally. Ask about them at druggists.

Mr. A. B. Cotton the lowest bidder on the route from Jacksonville to Wright's is anxious to find some to sub let the contract. If Mr. Cotton is bit it serves him right for bidding on a route he knew nothing about. We hope he will be made to carry the mails over it.

Prof. Vertelli's performance here last night was decidedly the best thing of the kind ever seen. His slight of hand performances are splendid and the ventriloquism hard to beat. The stage is one of the great attractions and altogether it is a show worth patronizing.

It is a singular coincidence that the "pilgrims" were the ones who forced African slavery on American and that their progeny insist on cursing our free soil with Asiatic coolies. In traffic in flesh and blood is only objection able to the modern "pilgrim" when it don't pay.

The Republican State ticket is well accepted by Republican papers throughout the State and is considered an excellent one. Mr. Moody, the candidate for Governor is highly spoken of by the Dallas papers as an honest and able business man who will fill the executive chair with credit.

John Tie took two teams to Roseburg to work on the railroad, but thought the pay was not large enough, and returned home last week. The prices paid are $4 a day for man and two horses; $4.50 a day for man, two horses and a wagon; $6 a day for man, four horses and wagon.

Geo. Dunn, says the "Tidings," who has been attending school at Jacksonville, has returned home to wrestle with farm work. A boy who can wrestle with comic sections, logarithms, angles and triangles and the like as George does, has little business on a farm—he will be needed higher up.

The Yreka "Journal" says: The Democrats are not so much opposed to preachers in politics as they pretended, and have nominated one for Governor in Oregon. Correct Mr. Nixon. Anything to win is the Democratic motto in Oregon and the real stripes here will sacrifice their religion to their politics every time.

By the use of the tilting lever, the cut of the new Champion mower may be lowered and the points of the guards turned down for picking up badly lodged grass or the cut may be raised and the points of the guards turned up so as to cut high or really pass over obstructions. Farmers buy a new Champion mower.

No person in the county could have been selected who will give greater satisfaction than Mr. E. E. Gore of near Plignix for the Agency of the Singer Co. Mr. Gore will have his general office in this city opposite the U. S. Hotel, and will attend to "not only" sell the Genuine Singer, but all collections due the Co. in this vicinity.

The Yreka "Journal" has a good word for our young congressman and its prediction that he will be re-elected will be surely fulfilled. The "Journal" says: We are pleased to hear of the nomination of M. C. George, for re-election to Congress in Oregon by the Republicans. He has been a whole team in advocacy of the Chinese bill, and will undoubtedly be re-elected by a large majority, since he has been tried and known to be true to the interests of our people.

Col. Stone, accompanied by Joe Strausser made Jacksonville a visit during the week and returned to Yreka. There is much regret here that we are to lose Col. after July 1st as his connection with the stage line will then cease. He has made many warm friends here by his genial manner and honorable dealing with everybody.

We hear many Republicans regret that our fellow townsman, Mr. Beekman, did not receive the nomination for Governor; but there should be general acquiescence in the justice of throwing the nomination to Eastern Oregon. Mr. Moody cannot expect to receive the vote in Jackson county that Mr. Beekman would but deserves the full vote of his party and will get it.

The Salem "Statesman" reports that the President was hung in effigy by the citizens of Jacksonville and intimates that it was not a smart thing to do. The "citizens" of Jacksonville did no such thing. It was done by a number of boys aided by one citizen from the country, no attention whatever was paid to the affair and it ought not to be published as a public demonstration—which it certainly was not.

John Hurlburt, one of the engineers of the O. & C. R. Co., who has been at work all winter running lines on the Siskiyou mountain, went north on Wednesday to be absent about ten days. He says no definite line has yet been adopted over the mountain and that it is impossible to predict yet anything near the length of the tunnel through the mountain. His party was left in charge of an assistant and the work is proceeding on this side of the mountain.

Col. Jas. P. Goodall is an Independent candidate for State Senator for Jackson county at the ensuing June election, and will speak in the grove at Ashland, May 6th, at Phoenix, May 8th, at Central Point, May 9th, at Eagle Point, May 10th, at Rock Point, May 11th, at Grants Pass, May 12th, at Evans Creek, May 14th, at Uniontown, May 16th, at Sterling, May 17th, and at Jacksonville, May 18th, and will discuss the political subjects of the day from an Independent standpoint, especially on matters pertaining to the Pacific coast.

We are sorry to clip the following from the Ashland "Tidings" and hope its fears may be unfounded. It says: "It is generally believed that this year's peach crop in this neighborhood has been ruined. The trees were all out in blossom when the snow storm of last Sunday night came. The snow was accompanied by rain, and in the morning was frozen hard on the trees. If any of the peach blossoms escaped destruction, it will seem marvelous. A good many cherries, as well as some other kinds of fruit, have also been nipped in the bud."

DEATH OF MRS. TAYLOR.—We have to record the death of Mrs. D. H. Taylor which took place at the family residence across Bear creek on the 23d inst. Mrs. Taylor's maiden name was Mary Jane Fitts. She was born Dec. 16, 1837 at Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio and came to Oregon in 1867 to join her husband, Dr. E. H. Greenman and was widowed by his death in 1871. In 1874 she was married to Mr. D. H. Taylor living happily until her death, which was caused by cancer of the stomach, after an illness of two months. On Tuesday the remains were brought here and laid in the Greenman lot in our beautiful cemetery. "Jennie" as she was familiarly known by her friends, was an estimable and loving wife who will be sadly missed by a bereaved husband and a large circle of acquaintances throughout this whole county and by her parents who still live in the old home in Ohio.

SOON IN TROUBLE.—The band of Gipsies who arrived here on Thursday evening began work on Friday morning and in the afternoon one of them was arrested on a warrant procured by Maggie Jones who charged her with stealing $14.00. She was brought before Justice Huffer and the evidence showed that $5.00 of the money was a fee for telling Mrs. Jones's fortune and that the balance was taken by the Gipsy on pretence that the planets had to be consulted and the money would be returned in a week. As Maggie did not seem to have made objection the Justice discharged the prisoner but the opinion of the court was that theft was intended. People had better give these vagabonds a wide berth and watch chickens and clothes lines as they pass south.

FOUR SCORE AND TEN.

On Tuesday the 25th inst. Mrs. Mary Myer, the aged mother of W. C. and B. F. Myer of Ashland passed peacefully away, the day being the nineteenth anniversary of her birth. To few indeed are given the years given to this venerable matron—just a score more than the most allotted to mankind. To few still is given the pleasure of seeing the infant representative of the fourth generation, beyond them. Such a pleasure was enjoyed by Mrs. Myer last Sunday, when she took little "True Aiken" to her bosom just as her own well spent life was ebbing away and the scene is described as most affecting. To how few of mankind is vouchsafed a life of nearly a century and to her how wonderful must have been the changes that she witnessed in the busy world and how full must have been her pleasure at seeing each succeeding generation—bons of her bone, and flesh of her flesh—fill it reached the fifth, growing up worthily around her. Ninety long years ago a little star rises in the horizon of Time and on the last recurring anniversary it fades out from mortal sight as a star fades in the coming of sunrise—the spirit is returned to its giver in all the purity and simplicity of childhood and to her who waited, so patiently and so long, the problem of life is solved at last. The last work of the matron was a little gift for her great-grand daughter, finished only a week ago and the busy fingers were stilled forever. The remains of the worthy lady were laid to rest, on Thursday, in the family burying ground opposite Ashland and there are none left who will not remember her with loving and kind emotions. She leaves 20 great grand children, 24 grand children, 7 living grand children and one great grand child, the latter the infant daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Aiken of this place.

DREADFUL ACCIDENT.—We again note another of those fearful accidents that result from careless handling of fire arms. This time it is Ira Dunlap, son of Dave Dunlap of Big Butte, who is the victim and it is only wonderful that he escaped with his life. The young man had been working at Crump's on the Sterling road and on Wednesday morning was preparing for a hunt when the accident occurred. He was armed with a yager and resting the breech for a moment on a rickety totometer chair, the weapon ripped and was discharged the who's charge inflicting a flesh wound in the boy's left side; passing upward through the arm close to the shoulder joint and just grazing the brachial artery. Although no bones were shattered and the joint is uninjured the wound is a very severe one but Dr. Aiken, who was called to dress it, thinks that if inflammation does not supervene the patient will come out all right. Ira was a steady good boy and it is hoped he will recover without the loss of his arm.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS.—Never Despair! Something that never fails—Fever and Ague.—To the sick it is of little consequence how they are cured, whether from a rational view of the disease or by the rules defined for the guidance of the profession, so long as the cure is certain and expeditious. To a suffering man the question on the relative merits of quinine or calomel is uninteresting. The faculty may wrangle and discuss their various theories, but Dr. Holloway's treatment dispels doubt ere the disciples of Esculapius have finished the first stage. Holloway's Pills are the only remedies which effect a speedy and radical cure without danger of a relapse. Read the advertisement elsewhere.

IMPORTANT CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the signature of J. HAYDOCK, surrounds each box of Pills and Ointment. Boxes at 25 cents, 62 cents and $1 each.

There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

HOLLOWAY & Co., New York.

DIED AT THE HOSPITAL.—An old man, aged 73, named William Potts, died at the hospital last Monday morning, being a stranger from Arizona en route for Jacksonville, Ogn., to stop with some old friends he knew in early days of California mining. Mr. P. came afoot from below, and stopped overnight in town the first of last week starting next morning for Jacksonville. Before reaching Anderson's ferry he was taken with cramps of the stomach, and fell in the road, where he lay all night, crawling to side of road to be clear of getting run over by the stage coming along in the dark. Some person coming past noticed the man by the road, found he was very sick, and notified Mr. Anderson, of the ferry, who hitched up his team, and placing a mattress in the wagon, brought the man to the hospital, as he was without any means. He was duly cared for, and seemed to be improving until Sunday, when he was again taken with cramps, and died Monday morning.—Yreka Journal.

STRAIGHT WHISKY.—We clip from the Nevada Daily Transcript of January 26th as follows: As a great deal has been said about John L. Burns and Davenport whisky in the Transcript, it will not be out of place to mention the fact that Mr. Burns has made one of the most important sales of fine liquors yet effected in the county, to Mr. Mike Hanley of Nevada City.

We understand that Mr. Hanley has made a purchase of some of the most expensive straight whisky that has ever gone into the county. John L. Burns, agent for the celebrated "Davenport," has been most fortunate in making such a fine sale to such a responsible gentleman as Mr. Hanley, who has the reputation of keeping the finest liquor in the county. When this invoice of straight whisky arrives, Mr. Hanley can look for an increase of trade.

Studying the Sorghum Question.

The National Academy of Sciences, at a meeting in November last, appointed Prof. Claudius D. Moreney, J. L. Smith of Kentucky, Dr. Goeman of the Massachusetts Agricultural College, and Prof's. Brewer, Johnson and Stillman, a committee to investigate and report of the sorghum sugar industry with reference to the methods employed and results obtained in experiments made by Prof. Collier during the past three or four years at the department of agriculture. The committee made their report to-day. It is a voluminous document and approves all the chemical work done in the department of agriculture by Prof. Collier. It declares sorghum to be the best sugar-producing plant next to sugar cane in Louisiana and the tropics; that it is as rich in actual cane sugar contents, and that it has the merit of variability and adaptation to various soils and climates of the United States.

STATEMENT UNDER OATH.

"I HAVE been afflicted for twenty years with an obstinate skin disease, called by some M. D.'s Psoriasis, and others Leprosy, commencing on my scalp, and, in spite of all I could do, with the help of the most skillful doctors, it slowly but surely extended until a year ago this winter it covered my entire person in form of dry scales. For the last three years I have been unable to do any labor, and suffering intensely all the time. Every morning there would be nearly a dustpanful of scales taken from the sheet on my bed, some of them half as large as the envelope containing this letter. In the latter part of the winter of 1881 I commenced cracking open. I tried everything, almost, that could be thought of, without any relief. The 12th of June I started West, in hopes I could reach the Hot Springs. I reached Detroit, and was so low I thought I should have to go to the hospital, but finally got as far as Lansing, Mich., where I had a sister living. One Dr. ——— treated me about two weeks, but did me no good. All thought I had but a short time to live. I earnestly prayed for die, cracked through the skin all over my back, across my ribs, arms, hands, limbs, feet badly swollen, toe nails came off, finger nails dead and hard as horn, hair dead, dry and lifeless as old straw. Oh, my God! how I did suffer!

My sister, Mrs. E. B. Davis, had a small part of a box of Cuticura in the house. She wouldn't give up; said 'We will try Cuticura.' Sure was applied on one hand and arm. Eureka! there was relief, stopped the terrible burning sensation from the wound, the itching, the cracking, the Cuticura and Cuticura Soap (the great skin cures). I commenced by taking one tablespoonful of Resolvent three times a day, after meals; had a bath once a day, water about blood heat, used Cuticura Soap freely; applied Cuticura morning and evening. Result, returned to my home in just six weeks from the time I left, and my skin as smooth as the sheet of paper.
