

NOTICE

Land Office at Roseburg, Ore., June 29, 1882. Notice is hereby given that I have designated the OREGON SENTINEL as the paper in which I shall hereafter publish all pre-emptions, homestead and applications for mining patents for lands lying near Jacksonville, Jackson county, Oregon.

WANTED.—A girl to do general housework. For particulars enquire of Mrs. G. H. Aiken.

RAILROAD TERMINUS.—We received the following from J. H. Small, railroad agent at Myrtle Creek, last evening: "I have received official notice from Supt. Brandt that freight will be sent to Riddle the twentieth inst. Will you please make public. Trains will also leave there about the same time."

NEW SETTLERS.—The three Germans who arrived here last week have purchased 200 acres of land on Butte creek of Slinger Herman and are now on their way to Myrtle creek to meet their families and the other members of the colony. There are eight families in the company and we welcome them as permanent residents here.

LOST.—Three grain sacks, one of them containing some books, were lost on the road between here and Phoenix this week. The same party had a white vest and shirt taken from him at Eagle Point a short time ago, and having seen the latter articles since he warns the party in possession to return them at once and thereby save trouble.

John Hall, one of the County Commissioners of Josephine county made us a pleasant call yesterday. He has been employed at the Wimer-Simmons mine for some time past but from now on he will go out in the hills prospecting for a time. He reports considerable difficulty with Chinamen employed on the C. C. W. R. but since Chin bosses have taken charge things seem to work smoother.

RELIGIOUS ITEMS.—Elder M. Peterson will hold services at McClelland's school house in San's valley next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, and at Pankey's school-house in the afternoon at four o'clock. Regular services at the Catholic church, Rev. F. X. Blanchet officiating. H. C. Fleming preaches at the Mount district school-house Sunday morning at the usual hour. Rev. B. J. Sharp will preach at the M. E. church in this place next Sunday, morning and evening.

PIONEER RE-UNION.—Quite a large attendance of Pioneers and their families was present yesterday on the sixth annual re-union of the society held at the Court House square in Jacksonville yesterday. The programme as published last week was carried out and all present voted it a grand success. The dinner was the finest that we have seen on a picnic ground and the ladies in charge deserved all the praise given them. Lack of space prevents further comment this week.

DEPARTED.—Samuel B. Grubb died last Monday morning at 3 o'clock from the injuries received on the mountain ten days before. His suffering was intense much of the time, and would have been unbearable but for the alleviating effects of opiates. The nature of the accident almost precluded hope of his recovery from the first, and yet death lost none of its pangs for the bereaved ones by the brief respite it gave to the departing spirit. The funeral was on Wednesday. The cortege left Dead Indian early in the morning and arrived at the cemetery about twelve o'clock.—"Tidings."

Reports from the new wagon road say that the work is progressing rapidly. But six miles now remain to be graded to intersect the old road at the North Fork, from which point the old road will be used a part of the way making cut-offs, and going around high points instead of going over them. The locators of the old road seemed to have been possessed with the same idea as one of our prominent citizens when out prospecting, who report says, first scales the highest mountain peaks, and then dives to the deepest canyon. This mode has been avoided by Mr. Wimer, and we are told by a gentleman who has traveled the mountain roads of California for a number of years, that this road compares very favorably with any mountain road he has passed over.—"Crescent City Record."

TO OUR MERCHANTS.—As Jacksonville shippers have had considerable trouble with their freight of late we publish the following facts in regard to the situation as furnished us by a correspondent. The depot building, which is a very fine one, even nicer and more commodious than the one at Albany, was roofed in last Wednesday evening and the office and warehouse portion will be ready for occupancy in a few more days. Messrs. Marks Wollenberg & Co. a very reliable and wealthy firm are hurrying on a large warehouse and will also have it finished in a few days. They are going into the commission and forwarding business at that place and guarantee satisfaction. The terminus of the stage line will not be changed from Myrtle Creek before next Spring as the distance to Riddle is only about two miles shorter on the traveled route with a worse road to go over. Our advice to merchants is to stay with Myrtle Creek this winter, and when the warehouse now in course of construction is finished they will have no further trouble in finding their goods.

LOCAL ITEMS.

Have you heard from Maine? Pay day at the railroad to-day. We only print one edition each week. Balloting for U. S. Senator begins next Tuesday.

Joseph Rapp keeps us well supplied with watermelons. Thanks. Jacksonville has twenty-three brick buildings at the present time.

Wm. G. Kenney returned from the railroad this week on a short visit. W. Weydeman has succeeded A. A. Sutton as chief clerk at the U. S. Hotel.

The Crescent City Wagon Road will be ready for travel about October 1st. Isaac Skeeters of Josephine county is in town this week buying winter supplies.

S. S. Douglas and wife of Portland is here on a visit the guest of L. J. C. Duncan. S. Cohn went to San Francisco this week to purchase new goods for his store here.

Ex-Governor Chadwick and J. Brandt, Jr. paid Josephine county a visit this week. The Commissioner's Court will be in session to-day to consider bids for the old Court House.

E. Jacobs kept his store closed last Thursday and Friday on account of Rosh Hashannah. The Pioneer ball at Holt's hall last evening was well attended and was a success throughout.

Joe Taylor's comedy company was advertised to show here last evening after we went to press. The Rev. F. X. Blanchet will pay a pastoral visit to the boys working on the railroad next week.

The sum of $34 was realized at the last meeting of the mite society at the residence of Wm. Hoffman. A fine shower of rain fell here last Thursday evening clearing the smoke and purifying the atmosphere.

The Portland Business College has issued a college "journal," which is a model of typographical neatness. All kinds of advertising and job work done at this office at the lowest rates. Ask for our prices and be convinced.

Col R. F. Maury will accept our thanks for a fine mess of the best sweet potatoes we have ever seen on this coast. W. L. Record has built a house on Oregon street where he can be employed in fixing up marble work this winter.

Bids for the foundation of the new Court House and the sale and removal of the old one will be opened at noon to-day. The Sister's school commenced last Monday with a large attendance and the district school will begin on the 18th inst.

The race between Lulu Riggs and Honest John at the Salem Fair Grounds last Saturday was won by the former. Chas. J. Howard has resumed work on the railroad surveying and mapping on the right of way on the extension south.

Last Saturday night was a lively time for rows and boisterous conduct and Marshal Payne had his hands full for a while. An interesting communication from Myrtle creek has been unavoidably crowded out this week but will appear in our next.

Henry Bauten has bought the Louie Petzold property opposite Veit Schutz brewery for $200. A cheap piece of property. Iuka Tribe of Red Men of Yreka done a generous act last week in donating $50 to the family of John Cimbersky of this place.

Theo. Schultz, a twelve year old son of Chas. Schultz, fell from a tree this week and was considerably bruised up but broke no bones. J. A. Wilson of Josephine county returned from a rusticating trip to the Lake country this week and expects to start for home to-day.

Happy Jack's saloon in the U. S. Hotel is the popular resort. Mr. Montgomery keeps none but the finest brands of liquors and cigars. Max Muller returned from San Francisco last Wednesday. Look out for his new ad when his goods arrive—which will be in a few days.

At the trial of Wm. Webb, charged with horse stealing the jury returned a verdict of not guilty at Lakeview this week and defendant was discharged. Dan Cardwell has sold his saloon at Riddleburg and accepted the position of riding boss for the railroad company. He paid his family here a visit this week.

The Ashland Woolen Mills have established a flourishing trade with the Portland and San Francisco market and they are crowded to supply the demand. Railroad tickets for the round trip from Myrtle Creek to Salem Fair Grounds will be sold at $7 each during the continuation of the State Fair commencing Sept. 18th.

The "Examiner" says that it is rumored that the Harrer family and one Hazelton, old residents of Goose Lake valley, have been massacred by Indians in Arizona. Peter Britt and son and Robt. A. Miller returned from Crater Lake last Thursday. Mr. Stewart the artist, who accompanied them, has extended his trip to Mount Shasta.

The County Commissioners want sealed proposals for the covering of the bridge across Rogue River in Florence Rock precinct. Bids will be received till October 3d.

Miss Laura Hubbell wrenched her knee this week and throwing it out of place while at work in the kitchen. She was improving at last accounts and will be up again in a few days.

If you want a sewing Machine call at E. C. Brooks' drug, watch, clock, and jewelry store. His machines are a little finer and his prices a little snigger than any other bugger's.

The "immense circulation" of the "Times" required a second edition last week to supply the demand for the different opinions prevailing on the Court House question. The demand was met.

A number of the young men of Jacksonville have associated themselves together for the purpose of studying music and organizing a brass band under the leadership of Prof. Adam Schmidt.

Capt. S. L. Dolson was in town this week and reports the survey progressing finely. His party is now camped at Woodville, working south, and the line is definitely located as far as Grants Pass.

On account of the absence of Judge Deady at the seaside the trial of Charles Griffith on the charge of giving liquor to Indians has not yet taken place. The trial will probably be called next week.

Rev. J. S. McCain and wife passed through town this week on their way northward. He has been relieved from the position of post carpenter at Fort Klamath and will now go to preaching, so we are informed.

Death to rats, mice, roaches and ants; PARSONS EXTERMINATOR. Barns granaries and households cleared in a single night. No fear of bad smells. Best and cheapest vermin killer in the world. Sold everywhere.

County assessor Nichols arrived in town this week and when he gets through with this precinct the assessment for 1882 will be complete. He reports an increase over last year's assessment in the sections he has visited.

The government telegraph line to Lakeview, Oregon, and Camp Bidwell, Cal., is now complete and in working order. The tariff to any point on that line is 50 cents for the first ten words and three cents each for every additional word over the first ten.

Commercial Tourists going to Josephine county can travel by stage and attend to business as well as otherwise. Mr. McMahon says he can give them one or two hours at the different stores on the route in which to transact business and still make his connection.

W. R. Willis, says the "Plainsdealer," will go to Jacksonville in a few days for the purpose of seeking a good location for his prospective saw-mill. Willis & Abram have a contract for getting out several million feet of lumber for the O. & C. R. R. extension in Jackson County.

Circuit Court will be held in the city hall while the new building is in course of construction and John Orth will furnish jury rooms in his building. No expense will be attached to this change as everything required is offered free of charge till such time when the new building can be used.

Frank Huffer, surveyor with Turner's party, was taken ill with fever and ague this week and on that account was forced to quit work. Although his contract is not yet finished we learn that Mr. Turner will quit work to-day and return home. It seems that they have struck a rough piece of work.

The Sister's new building has been finished and can surely be called an ornament to the town. David Linn done the carpenter work, Carter Bros. the painting and Wm. Huggins the plastering. The latter is an artist in his line and the plastering in this building will compare favorably with any to be found in the State.

From R. W. Derickson we learn that he has a mill at the Horsehead mine in Josephine county about ready for work and in a few days more will be ready for crushing quartz. He also informs us that he is more than pleased with the prospects of the new mine and feels confident that he has struck a bonanza. We hope to see his expectations realized.

The copper mine located in Josephine county by Chas. Hughes and others a short time since has been sold to Henry Villard, the railroad King for $10,000. Ex-Governor Chadwick and Supt. Brandt of the O. & C. R. R. negotiated for the purchaser. An excellent mine has been found and the work of developing the same will now be prosecuted with vigor.

As the Butte creek, Sam's valley, Central Point and other subscribers of the "Times" failed in getting the whole edition of that paper last week we volunteer in publishing what he sold to his Jacksonville subscribers, and what he didn't say to others, on the Court House question, and the article will be found in full in another column with the proper credit attached.

The Yreka "Journal" says that at a meeting of the Board of Directors of Mt. Shasta Agricultural Association held Sept. 12th, the entries to races Nos. 1 and 9 were opened, and the four following entries were made in the race No. 1: James Sutherland enters b. m. Nellie; Jay Beach enters b. s. Altamont; G. W. Stephenson enters chestnut g. Professor; Mismen brothers enters b. h. Dexter. It was decided that if three horses started, to hang up the purse and declare the race filled.

LITTLE SUSAN'S PIE PARTY.

Little Susan wanted to give a party—a pie party, because she didn't know how to cook anything but pie—and she wanted to ask the Forbiller girls and the Bidnotter girls to her party. So she asked her mother if she might. Her mother said yes, but she didn't have anything to make pies out of, except sour grapes, and it would never do to give them to the Bidnotters, because they hated sour grapes, and it wouldn't do to sweeten 'em, for that would make the Forbiller girls mad, because they liked sour grapes.

Then Little Susan was very sorrowful. She must have a party, cause all the other girls had one, and they were already beginning to call her "real mean" and to say that she was afraid of the Bidnotters. But she didn't want to make the Bidnotter girls mad, 'cause they lived in the country and she often went there to get apples and melons and nuts; and she couldn't make the Forbiller girls mad, 'cause their father kept a confectionery and they often gave her candy, and "liquish" and ju ju paste and the like.

At last a bright thought struck Little Susan, and she thought for her mother and asked if she might make a pie—only half of sour grapes for the Forbiller girls, and the other half sweetened for the Bidnotters. Her mother said she might. So Little Susan made a pie, and asked the Bidnotters and the Forbiller girls to her party. And they came, and Little Susan divided the pie, giving of the sour half to the Forbiller girls, and the sweet half to the Bidnotters.

Little Sentinella Forbiller was the first to taste the pie, and she said to herself, "Umph, it aint very good—'tain't sour enough, but you couldn't expect anything better from Little Susan—but oh my, I guess it's sour enough to set all the Bidnotters' teeth on edge." And then Little Sentinella looked around to see the Bidnotters make faces at the sour stuff. But she was very much surprised to see they were not making faces at all, but seemed to like the pie well enough. So she nudged the elbow of big Butilla Bidnotter who sat by her, and said to her cunningly, "Nice sweet pie, isn't it?" "Oh! it will do," said big Butilla, "it aint sweet enough, but what more could you expect from Little Susan. She was afraid she'd make you folks mad if she made it very sweet, but as it is, I guess it's sweet enough to make all you Forbiller's teeth ache."

"Sweet!" cried Sentinella, and she grabbed a piece of big Butilla's pie and tasted it. Then she screamed out to the rest of the Forbiller girls that Little Susan had sweetened the Bidnotter's pie. So the Bidnotters found out that the Forbiller girls had sour pie, and then all of them—the Forbiller girls and the Bidnotters—grabbed pieces of pie, and threw them at Little Susan, and pelted her until she was quite completely pelted. Then Little Susan wished she hadn't made that party.

Moral. When you make a party, give the same pie to everybody, and maybe you will please somebody.

IN MEMORIAM.

At a regular Council of Oregonian Pocalontas Tribe No. 1, Imp. O. R. M., of Jacksonville, held on the sleep of the 5th sun, corn moon, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

WHEREAS, the Great Spirit has seen fit to remove from our hunting grounds our esteemed brother John Cimbersky, to the unknown land of spirit above, thus leaving an empty seat around the council fire of our Tribe and

WHEREAS, true to the custom and spirit of their people, his surviving companions desire to record his valor, acknowledge his goodness and preserve his memory, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That in the departure of our brother from the lodge of his people and from the hunting grounds of his father, we have lost a comrade whom we respected for his kind dispositions, his many virtues and his noble qualities of mind and heart.

RESOLVED, That we, as members of Oregonian Pocalontas Tribe No. 1 Imp. O. R. M., do deeply mourn our brother's death, yet feel assured that our loss will be his eternal gain, and hope that this may be a warning to every brother of our beloved order that his time may come, and be the means of binding him more closely to this order and all other good institutions.

RESOLVED, That we tender our warmest and heartfelt sympathies to the widow and children now lingering lonely in the silent and deserted lodge of our departed brother and friend, humbly asks the Great Spirit who fills quietly but continually the towering oak of the forest, to spare in mercy, and to care lovingly for the stricken mother and the tender plants that grew around the fallen tree, and daily watch over them until they go to meet the absent one in the great council of the spirit land.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions, under the seal of this Tribe, be presented to the widow of our deceased brother, and that they be published in the Jacksonville papers and daily entered upon the minutes of the Tribe.

CHAS. NICKELL, E. B. WATSON, T. T. MCKENZIE, Committee.

The two lines run by the Hulbert party were brought to the same grade, and were practically made one line a few miles below Ashland. Two separate lines are being run, however. The route follows near the old wagon road much of the distance to Phoenix. Further down the valley the line will probably diverge again—one being run on each side of Hanley Butte.—"Tidings."

Jacksonville people are not expected to vote on the Court House question judging from the fact that Bro. Leeds failed in sending any of his "requests" here.

FROM THE CAPITAL.

SALEM, Sept. 13, 1882. About mid-night on Saturday last many of the citizens of Salem were awakened by a pistol and the cries of J. C. Long exclaiming Oh! my God! my God! What shall I do! And in going to the house of Mr. Long his wife was found dead near the door. The ball of the pistol had entered her temple and passed through her head. Mr. Long testified before the coroner's jury that his wife committed suicide, but the jury was of a different opinion, and they found she was killed either by her husband or J. W. Bingham, both of them were in the house of Mr. Long at the time of the homicide. They both had a trial yesterday before the committing magistrate and he found the evidence against them to be strong and he committed both of them to jail to await the action of the grand jury. The justice was requested to allow them bail. In his opinion the presumption of their being guilty of murder is positive.

Both houses of the Legislative Assembly were organized on Monday by the election of the following officers: In the House, Hon. Geo. McBride of Columbia, was elected Speaker; J. W. Strange, of Douglas, chief clerk; S. M. Irvine, of Benton, assistant clerk; E. C. Hadway, of Yamhill, sergeant at arms; E. B. Caliph, of Clackamas, door-keeper; and the speaker appointed E. E. Hewett of Polk and Frank Nicklin of Lane for pages of the house. In the Senate, Hon. W. J. M. Connell, of Yamhill, President; Austin Myers, of Douglas, chief clerk; Wm. W. Gibbs, of Multnomah, a son of ex-Governor Gibbs, assistant clerk; Wiley Chapman, of Clackamas, sergeant at arms; C. E. Dubois, of Multnomah, door-keeper. The President appointed a son of Major Rinehart and a son of Capt. Waters, as pages.

The election of all the officers were proceeded with quietly. In the House the Democrats voted unanimously for Hon. A. C. Stanley, of Jackson, for speaker, and in the Senate they voted unanimously for Hon. John Meyers, of Clackamas, for President. A large majority of both Houses appear to be young men and new members. I know but few of them, much less than any legislative body that has ever assembled in Oregon. However I might mention a few of the old pioneers: Wm. Waldo of Marion, J. D. Haines of Baker, formerly of Jacksonville, N. H. Gates of Wasco, Abernethy of Multnomah, formerly of Josephine, Starkweather of Clackamas, and last though not least our own representative, P. P. Prim.

The President of the Senate and Speaker of the House are both young and promising men and no doubt they will both make good presiding officers. At three o'clock last evening both Houses met in joint convention and canvassed the vote for Governor, and Hon. Z. F. Moody was declared duly elected Governor for four years, by a majority of 1412.

Governor Thayer will deliver his message to-day and Mr. Moody will take the oath of office, but it will be too late to send it by the mail to-day.

The all absorbing question is who shall be United States Senator? It is a question easily asked but hard to answer. At this time Mr. Mitchell will have about 27 votes and Judge Boise the balance of the Republicans. If the general party rules of a caucus prevail there is no doubt of Mr. Mitchell's election, but he has bitter enemies and warm friends in both houses, and his enemies may keep out of the caucus and possibly force a compromise, or join the Democrats and elect a dark horse unknown to history or fame. Republicans cannot afford to elect a Democrat, and all of them will never join the grangers to elect Mr. Boise. So my guess is the dark horse is so black he will wander in Egyptian darkness until Mr. Mitchell serves six years in the Senate, and even then the people of Oregon will not need their services. B. F. D.

A Serious Affray.

A number of men working with a threshing machine near this place came to town last Sunday night and after imbibing considerable of the ardent announced themselves in readiness for anything that was on the programme. Shortly after this a row started between Wm. Colwell, Chas. Dodson and Tom Curly in which some of the parties engaged received nothing more than bruised heads. After this, about eleven o'clock p. m., Charles E. Hanna, a clerk in Reames Bros' store, arrived on the scene and making some remark favorable to Curly in the first trouble a row was started with him in which pistols and knives were freely used. During the affray young Hanna was shot in the face by Colwell, just below the left eye, the ball ranging downward and lodging in the back of the neck near the base of the skull. After being shot and lying helpless on the ground, some one, said to be Chas. Dodson, a stranger here, rushed on him and cut his throat, inflicting a serious though not a fatal wound. Hanna was immediately removed to the U. S. Hotel and Dr. Aiken summoned and his condition at last accounts was so much improved as to give strong hopes of his recovery. Colwell was arrested immediately by Marshal Payne and Constable Birdseye and lodged in jail, after which the Constable and Sheriff Jacobs went to Cardwell's ranch, where the crowd was camped, and arrested Dodson. Both parties will have a hearing before Justice Huffer on Monday next, the trial having been postponed to that date on account of the absence of the District Attorney and nearly all of our lawyers.
