OREGON SENTINEL.

BATURDAY, JANUARY 28, 1885.

A number of our town subscribers failed to get their papers last week. A carrier unacquainted with the route caused all the trouble.

ANOTHER CORPORATION .- The "Star" says the Little Klamath Water Ditch Company has flied articles of incerporation with the County Clerk of Klamath county, with J. F. Adams, W. C. Crawford and B. F. VanBrimmer as incorporators. Capital stock is $10,000 and the principal office at Linkville. The stock has nearly all been subscribed. B. F. VanBrimmer, J. F. Adams and W. C. Crawford were chosen directors, B. F. Van Brim mer president and J. W. Hamaker was appointed treasurer. An assess-ment of fifty cents per share was levied, and the company will proceed at once to construct about eight miles of irrigation ditch and a large flume across Lost river.

FOUND DEAD .- Henry Carter living at Squaw Lake in this county left his home a few days before New Years with the intention of hunting some cattle that had strayed off. Not coming back a search was instituted this week by his neighbors when his dead body was found in the mountains some distance from his home. How he come to his death is not known but it is believed that he must have been thrown from his borse receiving injuries to disable him and that he perished before assistance came. Mr. Cartershas been a resident of this section for a long number of years, was about 42 years of age and leaves two brothers and numerous friends to Medford on the cars. mourn his death

A RAILROAD RUMOR -It is thought subsidy to the road above De'ta is forfeited that the road will run east of Shasta butte If this is true it is altogether likely that cinct yesterday. They had to swim the road when it leaves Delta will run through what is known as Grass valley into Butte creek valley; thence down said valley by the way of Topsy, cross ing the Klamath river at or near Plevna bridge, following threld survey made by Jesse Applegate several years ago. Our information comes from a gentlemen who lives in Butte creek valley, California, who says that there departure again on short notice. are a number of surveyors at present In the mountains east of Shasta Buttewhire gives room for a great deal of speculation among those who are endeavoring to keep themselves posted as to the future location of this long boped for road Should the railroad friends, owing to the fact that it could once. not pessibly effect their town in the least and Yreka could always boast of being the metropolis of Siskiyou county. But where, we ask will it intersect with the Oregon road! Will someone who knows give us the desired information?-"Star.
