65 "No good can come out of Nazareth." Never were we more forcibly struck with the above idea than upon reading the last contribution of Chadwick, alias Ewald. Such a rigmarole of empty bombast we have not seen in a long time. The brain from which it originated, we should think, could be compressed into an ouuce vial. We have no doubt was intended, laughed right out at the silly weakness exhibited by the author.

Of the number of exchanges received at this office, we recognize the [4ilwankee Sentinel & Gazette as one among the best. We feel in reading it, that we ald like to have it in our power to take the editor by the hand and give it a good hearty shake; he comes so near to our ideas of what an editor should be.

Or The Times editor was on a tour through the country above last week .-We think he is too late if he was looking up the "tother" half section. If he was a widower be might still win; but we fear the first of December will still find him in the vocative case—a stubborn, stiffnecked old bachelor.
