Clackamas county Female Seminary.

THE second term of this Institution will commence on Monday, Sept. 1st, and continue eleven weeks.

The Trustees are happy to inform the public that teachers of high and varied acquirements and of long experience have been secured, who will devote themselves to the welfare of the pupils committed to their charge.

A large and convenient Seminary building has been erected, and measures taken to secure all necessary apparatus for the school.

Oregon City, the location of the Seminary, possesses several important advantages. It has a well deserved celebrity for healthfulness, being free from the intermittent fevers common to the river towns. It is convenient of access: steamboats plying on the Columbia and Willamette from below the falls, and those above, will meet at this place.

PROSPECTUS OF A NEW MONTHLY

MAGAZINE.

On the 15th of January, 1852, will be published,

THE FIRST NUMBER OF THE

OREGON MONTHLY MAGAZINE,

An entertaining Miscellany,

DEVOTED TO

Literature, Science, Art, Poetry, Moral Tales, National Biography, Amusing Sketches, Incidents, Essays and useful Knowledge

IN COMPLIANCE with a usage long established, at the commencement of a new Journal, we lay before the public an outline of the plan upon which this, the pioneer magazine of the Territory, shall be conducted.—

In this Territory, the Newspaper Department is amply and adequately furnished, but there is still a vacuum which is the object of the proprietors of "The Oregon Monthly Magazine," to fill. The superior necessity of establishing an Entertaining and Instructive Journal, will be readily acknowledged, and as such we venture to offer the present Periodical to the Public.

In Religion and Politics it will be Neutral—bound to no class, creed, or party,—but its pages shall ever be devoted to the instruction and amusement of the people, and the most strenuous exertions of the projectors shall be used in order to verify our motto, and also to render "The Oregon Monthly Magazine"

A FRIEND TO ALL,—TO NONE A FOE.

In Literature a suitable selection will be made from all the Popular Reviews, Magazines and most Eminent Literary productions,—European and American,—which may tend to interest and instruct the reading public.

In National Biography will be given a succinct sketch of the most distinguished Americans who have rendered themselves eminent, and their names popular by their patriotism and valor in "the camp, the court, or the field."

In the Arts and Sciences, it will keep pace with the times, and record everything of interest and importance appertaining thereto.

In Poetry its pages will be graced with Original Pieces, together with culled flowers from the bosom of the sweetest and most popular bards.

To those who would follow the well-known maxim of Dr. Johnson, its pages will prove a welcome visitor, as each number will contain Comic Sketches, Original Stories, Anecdotes, and Bons Mots.

Each number will consist of Thirty-two Pages of Letter press, printed in a good type, on fine paper, and enclosed in a neat cover.

TERMS—$3 a Year, or $1 for Six Months. No subscriptions taken for less than Six Months.
