

LODGE DIRECTORY.

DANIEL LODGE No. 4, K. of P. Meets in the Castle Hall, Pendleton, every Wednesday evening.

CHURCH DIRECTORY.

Episcopal Church—On the third Sunday of each month, the Rev. L. R. Wells will officiate, and preach in the morning at 11 o'clock in Weston, in the evening at 7 o'clock in Pendleton.

For The Traveler.

THE NORTHWESTERN STAGE Company's stages leave Pendleton for Umatilla daily between 2:30 and 3 o'clock P. M.

LOCAL AND OTHER INTELLIGENCE.

Salmon are not running in the Umatilla river this summer as plentifully as common, and the Indians thought it was on account of a dam put in for the flouring mill in this place.

The school house in Pendleton is in a very leaky condition, so much so that it is very uncomfortable for scholars attending school, on account of our oft-repeated rains.

On Tuesday, 15th inst., Dr. Samuel G. Going, veterinary surgeon, 1st cavalry, was drowned in the Grand Ronde river.

Men owning stock, particularly hogs, ought to be ashamed to allow them to run at large in town. Scarcely a day passes without some one who otherwise would be considered very correct in his morals, losing his temper and using swear words.

The O. S. N. Co. have arranged to keep a boat at the Lower Cascades from the time of her arrival until the boat reaches the same point from Portland next day.

Byers, of the Pendleton mill, runs day and night—and the mill, too, for the master of that—and turns out the best article of flour shipped to the Portland market.

The resignation of General Sprague as General Superintendent and Assistant Land Commissioner of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company on this coast, was accepted by the Board of Directors of that company on the 18th of April.

A bill authorizing women to practice law in all the courts in this State has passed the Legislature of Minnesota.

We learn with regret of the serious illness of Rev. Mr. Crowell.

Born, May 19, 1877, to the wife of A. P. Shull, a son, weighing eight pounds.

The services at the M. E. Church last Sunday evening were largely attended.

Teams are passing through Pendleton daily, bound for the Palouse country.

At the Episcopal Church last Sunday, four children and two adults were baptized.

Born, Thursday, May 24, 1877, to the wife of Mr. J. Barnhart, a son—an eight-pounder.

If you want Umatilla county and Eastern Oregon generally to prosper, subscribe at once for the EAST OREGONIAN.

We acknowledge the receipt of a fine pair of dressed chickens, for which Mrs. J. C. Franklin will please accept our thanks.

Frosts have nearly ruined the gardens in this vicinity. An old saying, that three white frosts bring a rain, is fully verified at this place.

The Mt. Pleasant Baptist Association will hold its annual session at Pilot Rock, commencing June 14th. A large attendance is expected.

About once a week some white man has to "come out" to poor Lo with a horse that has been absent from the recreation for two or three years.

Prof. Taylor's college for ladies and gentlemen will commence September 1st. A complete business course will constitute one of its principal features.

Wool is being pressed and forwarded to market at a lively rate. As soon as the weather becomes settled, the steamers from Umatilla to Portland will reap a rich harvest.

Why ought the Russians by next Christmas to be the happiest people on earth?—By that time they will have "plenty" of Turkey. P. S. This is original—or was.

The cause of religion seems to be prospering under the ministerial labors of Rev. W. H. Pruet, of the Baptist Church.

An entertainment for the benefit of the Episcopal church will be given at Malacoy's hall on the evening of the 6th of June, by the local musical and dramatic talent, assisted by that inimitable genius, Mart Taylor. Programme next week.

We understand that Miss Ellen Hill, daughter of Mr. A. Hill, living near Pendleton, was thrown from her horse Tuesday morning last, while on her way to school, and was badly injured. The horse got frightened at some emigrant wagons.

Sheriff Swackhammer, of Union county, stopped in Pendleton Monday night, on his way to the penitentiary with two convicts—a white man named Ladd, sent for one year for attempted murder, and a Chinaman for ten years, for killing another Chinaman.

Mrs. Raley has retired the old Dr. Dickerson house, and will occupy it the first of the month, after which the weary, laborer and footsore will have to depend on Messrs. Cream & Landry at the Pendleton hotel, for the comforts heretofore dispensed at the hands of Mrs. Raley.

The Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. of Oregon, has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: W. J. Snodgrass, M. W. Grand Master; H. H. Gilroy, R. W. D. G. M.; John Kenworthy, R. W. Grand Warden; John M. Bacon, R. W. G.; I. R. Moores, R. W. G. T.; J. F. Backensto, R. W. G. Rep.

Pendleton Lodge, No. 52, A. F. & A. M., contemplates having a picnic and public address on the 24th of June, St. John's day. A committee of arrangements consisting of Messrs. Turner, Dismway and White has been appointed. Due notice will be given in the EAST OREGONIAN.

TO BE MARRIED—On the first of June at Walls Walla, Charles S. Storm, formerly of the Kingdom of Wurttemberg, will be married to Miss Lizzie Broad, of Bavaria. The ceremony will take place at the residence of the father of Mr. S., among relatives and friends. May you be happy, Charles!

On last Sunday evening, about five miles above Pilot Rock on Birch creek, a gang of hoodlums filled the door of the school house so full of poles and rails that the school man had considerable difficulty in making an entrance next morning. Cause, pure, unadulterated "Old Nick"—so we are informed.

John Bowman, within the last week, has been adding to the attractions of his lively stable, and also improved it in a sanitary point of view. He has had all the inside whitewashed, and it looks neat and cozy. Dave Wright, of the Pioneer stable, is up with the times also, and has superior accommodations for all. Success to you, gentlemen!

That citizens of Pendleton will patronize a Walls Walla in preference to a Pendleton manufacturer. I write this from the fact that certain persons not only patronize the Walls Walla firm, sending their own money out of this county, but try their best to have others do the same.

Mr. Stang came to this town last Fall, expended over $2,000, became a citizen of the town and county, and interested himself in the prosperity of the place. He keeps the Portland dailies and other miscellaneous reading, and patronizes the EAST OREGONIAN. He sells beer at the same price per keg that it has always been furnished from Walls Walla, makes a market for barley, and furnishes a better article of beer than is made anywhere else east of the Cascades. Now Walls Walla and his friends here are trying to induce the people to patronize foreign manufacturers of beer. Citizens of Umatilla county, patronize home manufacture!

The matter between J. H. Kandle, executor of the estate of J. W. Jones, deceased, and J. C. Franklin, has been compromised, and the cattle were not sold.

On May 24th a license to marry was issued to Arthur Grimes and Rebecca A. Reed, both of Milton, Umatilla county. I. C. Dismway returned home Monday from Portland, whether he went as a representative to the Grand Lodge, I. O. O. F. Barnhart, Lee & Co., since they first began, have graded and baled about 20,000 pounds of wool.

Our regular correspondent at Weston sends the following: We have a bakery at Weston now—something we have long been in need of.

Mrs. McAllister, wife of Rev. E. A. McAllister, of the Universal persuasion, preached at the Weston school house on Sunday last.

It has been raining here for the last two or three days, and our streets are again muddy. Crops are looking very well in this part of the country.

We have a telegraph office at Weston. Mr. E. H. Holland, of the Dalles, is the operator. The line is only in working order from Walls Walla to Weston at present, but there is a gang of men in the mountains putting up the wire, and the line will soon be in working order all the way through.

WAR NEWS.

Along the Danube the Turkish positions are of great strength. English authorities think that the Russians, even if they succeed in passing the river, will be in great danger. Turkey's superiority in ironclad gunboats, it is said, enable her to cut off Russian forces crossing the river from their supports in Roumania, and bring the invading army into a position as desperate as that of the French at Sedan.

Kars, says the New York Times, is considered by the highest military authority the military key to Asia Minor. Having possession of it, the Russians will find a comparatively easy access south to Erzerum, and then, either capturing or masking this place, they can descend into the fertile plains of Trebizond and take or destroy an enormous quantity of the agricultural wealth of the Ottoman empire, and finally gain a foothold at Trebizond, or some other point on the Black Sea.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg, dated May 19th, says the Russians have taken Anahban, with 60 guns and large quantities of stores. The Russians lost 235 men. The Turks fled.

At Vienna the government has received simultaneously from St. Petersburg and Belgrade formal assurance that Servia will not take part in the war.

The Herald's Vienna correspondent states that during the Czar's visit to Bucharest the Russians will attempt crossing of the Danube at four points on the same day. The whole German army has been ordered to be ready for action next week.

Apparently the first great battle of the Russo-Turkish campaign will be fought at Toprak Kaleh where the Russians, marching from Bayazid, must force the mountain passes guarding the approach to the Erzerum plain. At last accounts their main body was still four days' march distant from the pass, therefore the commanding reported from Batoum probably indicates only secondary operations in the investment of Kars. If the Russians pass the mountains, there will be slight obstacles to a union of their main forces operating in Asiatic Turkey, for the overthrow of Mukhtar Pasha, whose defensive position will be exposed to overwhelming numbers approaching from opposite directions. A decisive engagement in that quarter may be expected within a week.

News is received of a Roumanian vessel full of Russian soldiers having been sunk by the Turks.

THE THOROUGH-BRED STALLION.

ALU-THER

MESSES FIELD & MOOREY having become the owners of this celebrated horse, will give horse owners an opportunity to view his fine form and to purchase him at a low price.
