

SPECIAL TELEGRAM

To the East Oregonian.]

Strong and startling news came from the classic region of Butter Creek. It seems that a "school marm," whose name it is unnecessary to mention, but who is engaged in shooting the young idea in that region, had in attendance, among others, a young and festive lad, not overly young either, for he has grown bare-footed on the top of the head, owing, no doubt, to the friction of the years that have rolled over it. Well, this lad was taken bad with—well a hankering after said "school marm," but the course of true love did not run any more smoothly than is its wont. He did not exactly get on the blind side of her, but he loaned her some newspapers and took his rent in kisses, without making a contract to that effect, whereupon the lady showed fight, and he conducted the balance of his skimming at long range, firing billeted love with love, and the green-eyed monster jealousy accusing her of having "smoke" a smile at a little boy which struck said festive youth in the gizzard. The directors were called in to investigate, since which time our ardent lover has pursued his education at home; and so endeth the chapter.

U No Wno.

England has declared war against Russia. A good thing for the people of the United States. Our agriculture and wool products will for some time bear a good price.

We are in receipt of the prospectus number of "The Land Register," a spicy local weekly, published by D. H. Stearns at East Portland. From the introductory we clip the following:

"Not a candidate for office nor a 'reformist.' As an educator, a failure years ago, with a score of lusty country boys as students. Not oily tongued or cheeky enough for a labor champion, I can find no other hobby upon which to ride into the newspaper field than pursuit of plain bread and butter with a fair allowance of meat."

As its name indicates attention will be paid to the real estate interests of Oregon. We cheerfully place the Register on our list of exchanges, wishing the editor all the success imaginable.

TIME'S CHANGES.—In 1864, George B. McClellan and George H. Pendleton were candidates for president and vice-president of the United States. After fourteen years they now re-appear in public life, the one as governor of New Jersey and the other as a successful candidate for the senate from Ohio. Things have changed considerably since 1864, remarks the New York Sun. Then the Republican party was united and strong under the leadership of a rightfully elected president; now it is divided and weak, and distrustful of the man who wrongfully sits in the white house. Then the conduct of the war was the sharp party issue; to-day the question before the people is whether the stealing of the presidency through fraud should go unrebuked.

L. F. Holman, the man who escaped from the county jail, is again in his old quarters. As already stated he was arrested at Sacramento, and Sheriff Thompson notified of the fact, deputy sheriff Thump, at once started to bring the fugitive back, and found him in the Sacramento jail. A friend had given him $100 which he used to start on his journey. He traveled by way of the John Day country, and suffered great privations on the route. At Sacramento, when arrested, he was disguised in a pair of false whiskers, and thought himself perfectly safe. Some one evidently recognized him, and in roguish parlance "ave him away" to the police. His wife had passed through Sacramento, supposed on her way East, and it is possible that through her "movements his whereabouts became known. He is now secure, if ironed, and it is not likely that he will have another opportunity to escape.—W. W. Statesman.

Meeting—Central Committee.

Pursuant to notice the Democratic County Central Committee met at the Court House in Pendleton, February 10th 1878.

G. W. Webb in chair. On motion of J. S. White, of Weston, J. H. Turner was elected Secretary.

On motion of S. M. Pennington, of Meadown, the vote of the Hon. J. L. Morrow at the last election was taken as a basis of representation in the convention, and that each precinct be allowed one delegate for the precinct, one for every 25 votes cast and one for every fraction of 12 or over, giving to the precincts the following number of delegates, viz:

Milton 5, Weston 7, Pendleton 4, Alta 3, Lower Willow Creek 2, Lower Butter Creek 2, Upper Willow Creek 4, Meadows 3, Umatilla 2, Upper Butter Creek 2.

On motion Pendleton was selected as the place, and Friday the 5th of April at 1 o'clock p. m. as the time for holding the convention and to continue over Saturday the 6th if necessary.

The committee recommended that the precinct meetings be held at the usual places of voting in the several precincts on Saturday the 30th day of March at 1 o'clock p. m. The following resolutions were also adopted unanimously:

Resolved, That we recommend that Democratic clubs be organized in each precinct in the county, and that we thoroughly organize for the approaching campaign.

Resolved, That we invite all irrespective of the past political differences who intend to vote the Democratic ticket at the June election to unite with us, attend the primaries, participate in the meeting and assist in selecting delegates to attend the County Convention.

On motion Secretary ordered to furnish local papers with copy of proceeding for publication. G. W. Webb, Chairman. J. H. Turner, Secretary.

The silver bill has passed and is now a law. "The dollar of our dad's" is now gone, again. Hallelujah!

From Milton.

EDITOR E. O.—Thinking that a few items from this vicinity would probably be of some interest to the many readers of your paper, I cheerfully submit the following:

Rev. N. Ford of this county delivered a lecture at the public school house in this place on last evening. Subject, "The ten commandments," but confined his remarks principally to the fourth commandment, against the doctrine of the Adventist. It was, to say the least, an able address; and the people of our little burg would like to have him come again, because such a treat was really refreshing to all, except the Advent brethren.

Valentines have been all the rage here for the last few days. Van sent one to an old friend of his, which he thought suited very well, but the fellow wife got hold of it first. It represented a henpecked husband. Van has been on the lookout ever since.

Reubin Kinney's dwelling is nearing completion. George Ingle passed through town this morning with Noble, the man that is supposed to have poisoned Newland, on his way to the Pendleton lock-up.

I am sorry to say that Robert Frazer is confined to his bed, and has been for several days, with consumption. Politics are discussed here by but few individuals. No candidates for office here as yet.

J. T. Moss has rented his Hotel to Mrs. White and says he is going back to his ranch and raise faters and peddle vegetables and butter.

The railroad blacksmith shop has opened a meat market in the same corner that they shod horses in. Come one, come all, but no whiskey bills taken in exchange for beef here.

Last week two of our citizens let whiskey get the best of them $5.00 apiece and costs.

If that fellow that went into Kilberry's store and used such unbecoming language the evening of the lecture, repeats it, he will get his name in the paper. M

A CARD AND PROSPECTUS.

HAVING OPENED A FREE INTELLIGENCE OFFICE, for the purpose of aiding and assisting persons in our State by all possible means in my capacity, where ever they find of all leading journals, published in Oregon and Washington Territory, I have also determined to establish a journal, to be called "THE OREGON AND WASHINGTON LAND REGISTER." The object of which is to bring Land Owners and Real Estate Agents into closer communication with the thousands of immigrants who are arriving in this city with the ultimate purpose of securing for them the best possible means of bringing lands, and other property, for sale to their notice.

Descriptions of farms and other property for sale will be condensed to occupy ten lines (20 words) or less, and will be charged for at the rate of $1 each. It is more than possible that from twenty five to 50 thousand people will be added to our population during the spring and summer of 1878. Nearly all immigrants who come to Oregon and Washington Territory land first at Portland, and will receive a copy of this paper, as it will be distributed gratuitously. It will therefore be the best possible means of bringing lands, and other property, for sale to their notice.

Descriptions of property for sale may be written out in full, giving character, location, price, terms of sale, and all advantages, and be in paper or other form, which will be substantially condensed to the required space, and the letter numbered, in correspondence with the prospectus, and the copy returned to the advertiser. No charge will be made for sales arranged through the agency, but the advertiser will be bound to pay the postage on the prospectus, which must be forwarded with the description. It may be sent in by registered letter, or by post order at any risk.

Correspondence on all subjects connected with the description of all property in the State and Territory, respectively solicited. I keep a register at my office in the State and Territory of all lands, mortgages, mortgages, etc., which is open to the inspection of all persons. Notices of stock warrants respectfully solicited. All matters connected with publication in the Land Register must be written on one side of the paper only, and be in paper or other form of February, 1878. All descriptions of property for sale will be inserted in the order of their arrival—those coming first on the outside page.

Believing that this publication will be greatly to the advantage of both buyer and seller, I respectfully solicit the patronage of the public. Address all communications to me at Portland, Oregon, U. S. STEVENSON, Portland, Or., December 20, 1877.
