LOCAL AND OTHER INTELLIGENCE.

Lecturer—A female lecturer by the name of Peckham, we believe, held forth at the Baptist Church at this place last Monday evening.

Place of Worship—We are glad to learn that our fellow citizens are going to have a place of worship of their own in our town.

Water Spout—From Mr. Sander we learn that there was a terrible water spout occurred on Birch Creek, on the 24th of May.

Improvements—L. Bachelder of Portland has bought property in Umatilla addition and will start a business at an early day.

Merchandise—A man told East Hoyle on the stage between Walla Walla and Boise that a secret organization existed in Umatilla County for the purpose of killing Indians.

Another Good Indian—From a Umatilla Indian who lives on the banks of Columbia river, near Sweitzer's Island, we learn that an Indian, while attempting to cross the river in a log canoe, was blown away by a heavy wind and drowned.

Scuttler—Hon. Jas. D. Fay committed suicide at Eugene on the first day of May by shooting himself through the head with a pistol.

Personal—Judge Langford, a prominent attorney of Walla Walla, called on us this week. He was in town with a view to locating among us.

Bonheur & Co. sent us a circular in reference to school books. We don't see any merit in the Pacific Coast series, and anything to beat them in our market for us.

Attention, Carpenters—Next Monday is the day the contract for building the bridge across the Umatilla river above town is to be let by Mr. Pennington.

Strained honey at 12 1/2 cts per lb. and the best chosen ever brought to town at J. Hexter's. Don't take our word, but go see for yourself.

WHAT IT COVERS.—A full list of readers of the Pacific Coast series costs $4.00, retail price in the valley. These books are at once half worn. It will take them $2.00 to replace these with new books of the same series.

Trinity Cross.—A subscription was put in circulation in Pendleton for the purpose of raising funds to build a wagon road to Trinity Creek mines, and in a very short time $600 was raised.

Tustin, John Bull like, grows red in the face and frets and fumes at us, (Mr.) He talks about a proper use of the English language, etc. The last we heard of Mr. Tustin he was looking for this chap and was offering a pair of gum boots for the return of this innocent that had gone abroad.

Mr. B. B. Bishop, administrator of the estate of Luke Seely, deceased, has sold the herd of cattle belonging to said estate to the National Cattle Co., of Baker Creek. Consideration $1,100.

At a meeting of the Board, Ladies No. 4, K. of P. on the 4th inst., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: F. Page, President; A. C. J. B. Kossy, V. C.; J. W. Ellis, S. C.

The Columbia River Conference of the M. E. Church will meet at Walla Walla August 7th. Oregon Conference, Portland, August 24th. Oregon Assembly will precede.

Teeth and his correspondents are all looking at our book. Bark away go little boys at our side go by the mess.

The prospects for a fair price for wool are very good. Quotations, San Francisco, from 20 to 25 cts for Oregon wool.

Free Billings—has been elected president of the N. P. R. by the voters of the district. 100 miles of this road will be built this summer.

We had a genuine Missouri thunder storm this week.
