

Visiting.—We note the jovial countenance of Dr. Egan, of Weston, on our streets. He is here on professional business.

Called.—T. B. Trevel, of Corbett, Fallig & Co., paid us a visit on Thursday. He reports business in the upper country very good.

Hyemal.—Two couples committed the sin of matrimony in town last Sunday. Verily, these must be flush times in the land of the Umattilas.

Game Below.—J. O. Frizer and J. L. Sperry have gone to Portland to take charge of their wood commission business, as the market will soon open.

Celebration.—Yesterday last was St. Patrick's Day, and of course the hearts of all Irishmen were rejoiced. Tom Milarky ran up his big flag in honor of the occasion.

Thanks.—We are under obligations to our friend Jackson, of the U. I. & O. Stage Co., for a treat to a nice little picnic. We wish others would follow the noble example set by Jackson.

Early Crop.—Jerry Dupuis, Esq., has been this week engaged in shearing 700 Angus goats. He says they will average three pounds of wool, or hair, as fancy may denominate it.

Amusements.—Jackson, the indefatigable, is happy. He has procured a miniature steam engine which works a half dozen or so of monkey tricks, and takes great pride and pleasure in exhibiting his "trick" to curious spectators.

Funeral Obsequies.—The funeral services of the M. E. Church South will be preached at the grave of Mrs. Nellie C. Turner on the 4th Sunday in March, Rev. J. W. Compton and W. W. Gigney officiating. Her late friends are cordially invited to attend.

New Goods.—I. Hathaway has just received a large and fresh stock of candies, fruits, etc., and has also fresh oranges and lemons, in addition to all goods of the sort he usually carries. Good cutter is a thing he most prides himself on, and he keeps constantly on hand a large supply of the choicest article. Call and see him.

False Report.—Crimley Saeley returned a few days ago from a visit to his sheep camp. He reports that everything was doing well, and that the reports of his heavy losses in sheep were to a great measure unfounded, as his stock has wintered well. He proposes to move his family to the place where his stock are on Snake River—and all shearing time is over.

Returned.—Miss Bell Bishop, for a long while the right lower of the E. O. office, returned a few days ago from the home of E. R. Bark, Esq., in Dayton, where she has been attending school all winter. She has been the recipient of many cordial welcomes on the part of her many friends. Mrs. Bark, her sister, accompanied her, and is now residing in Pendleton.

The Railroad.—Mr. Barber, state surveyor to Umattilas, tells us the railroad company are at work on the proposed line of their route. They have a force of some 300 men engaged in clearing the track and grading in the neighborhood of the Four Mile House, and will put on a much larger number with teams in a few days, and settle down to business in sober earnestness.

Still Better.—The Baker County Rev. will cite Jacob Frizer as an example of success in sheep raising and, quoting from the E. O. of last week, rates his financial status at $27,303. That won't begin to touch the amount that he has his losses pay the assessment on the many sheep he has stock around the country. He is a much "solider" man than that in reality.

Dollar for Dollar.—We are glad to be able to announce that the estate of "Uncle Jimmy" Johnston will doubtless be sufficient to pay off all his debts and leave him a margin over. The report of the assessor, which has been filed, shows an assessment of his property amounting to $14,200, while all claims against it (some disputed and expenses of assessment not included) aggregate $11,735.90.

Good.—In pursuance of an order of the County Court 250 young trees have been purchased, and are now being set out in the Court House square. This is a good move, and one we are very glad to see taken. It is a disgrace to such a county as Umattilas to have its public buildings and grounds in the condition they were in a year ago, but under the liberal-mindedness of our present County Court everything is being made to assume an entirely different aspect.

Accident.—We see by the Baker County Reveille that Sheriff Travillion, of that county, met with a painful but not serious accident on Tuesday last. It seems Mr. Travillion was carrying a heavy Colt's navy revolver, 45 calibre, and unintentionally let it drop on the jail floor. It struck on the hammer and exploded, the ball striking him in the fleshy part of the leg and ringing upward, passed entirely through. No bones were broken, as fortune would have it, and while Mr. Travillion will doubtless be laid up some little time, no serious consequences are anticipated.

Lumber.—We call especial attention to the "ad" of the Eagle Saw Mill, to be found in our column of "New Today." Messrs. Van Shull & Bean, the proprietors, have a fine mill in good running order, have a large stock of lumber already cut out, seasoned and of the best quality of material, and have in addition an enormous amount of seasoned logs on hand, which they are rapidly converting into lumber. Their mill is so situated as to be accessible to all points of the country, and we would be pleased to see them a liberal patronage on the part of all our friends.

Inmate.—On Monday last a Mrs. Cook was brought to Pendleton from Umattilas and committed to the Sheriff's care, charged with being insane. She is the wife of a Mr. Cook, living near Centerville (it seems she and her husband had agreed upon a mutual separation and division of their property. This was effected, and Mrs. Cook with her portion and their three children started to her relations in Missouri, but when she reached Umattilas her mind became so much affected that she had to be brought here by the County Court. After an examination by Drs. Pruitt and Lindsey the Court became satisfied that she was a fit subject for the asylum, and sent her down on Thursday in charge of Ex-Sheriff Sperry and Jacob Frizer, Esq. We understand the husband will furnish means to carry the children back to Missouri.

The Sprman Idea.

The following version of a late episode which was a topic of general conversation in Pendleton, is taken from the Oregon States Zeiting, published at Portland. The translation we are indebted to the United States Zeiting, published at Portland. The translation we are indebted to the United States Zeiting, published at Portland. The translation we are indebted to the United States Zeiting, published at Portland.

The nice little town of Pendleton is not only known for its excellent flour, but it has also lately taken the premium for celebrating a wedding.

The city lawyer had asked for and received the hand of the city time surveyor's daughter. The wedding day arrived, and both of the parties belonging to Pendleton's highest aristocracy, their friends rejoiced that they would give them an equally high toned serenade.

The wedding guests arrived at the bride's house at about 11 P. M. A whole hall of Pendleton's best young men assembled around this house a little after this time, intending to dispense with the usual dinner, and to spend the evening in a social and musical way.

With these facts staring me in the face I feel as though I had a good broad field to work in, and I feel confident that to those who have never witnessed a wedding in this part of the country, and whose transactions have actually come under my own personal observation, would come as near giving people a true and general knowledge of the country, the people, their mode of living, business, etc., as any other course my limited experience as a writer could suggest.

With the object above stated in view, I shall—provided the editor thinks it worth the necessary space—commence with my next series of letters, and if they, when I have done, have succeeded in making known to the reader what he has intended they should, then I shall feel amply rewarded for my efforts.

In my last letter I stated that J. Pat. Smith had arrived here with a couple of thoroughbred horses. Yesterday morning while he was getting his outfit ready for exercise, the Hambleton hitched to his buggy and the Clydesdale being led behind, Mr. Smith observed when driving near the creek that the horse kept edging toward the water. He had watered him at the usual time but allowed him to drink again. A few moments after the horse commenced staggering and rearing. Mr. Smith fearing he would break his buggy let him loose, drove on and tied up the horse, but he could return the horse had fallen, and lay with his limbs straightened and quivering. As quick as possible Mr. Smith inserted his knife in the horse's mouth for the purpose of bleeding him, but the blood refused to flow, and in two minutes the horse was dead. He was valued at $3,000, and a heavy loss on Mr. Smith.

E. H. Clark, of the firm of Curtis & Wise, wool commission merchant in town, soliciting customers. The citizens of Heppner, are to tender D. D. Squiers, of the Amateurs, a complimentary dinner in a short time. It shows their appreciation of what Mr. Squiers has done toward making the post winter pleasant for us. We predict for him a crowded house.

As I write, 9 P. M. the ground is covered with a thin layer of snow, and it is still snowing. Fred Hawker, who with Frank Monkers engaged in the salmon business early last summer, is now a proprietor, but has been by his honesty and square dealings since engaged in that business, drawn to his place a good class of customers, and made many a firm friend. Fred is the kind of a man that is sure to prosper.

J. P. Bush left here a few days ago for the upper country. We learn he has gone for the purpose of securing a hotel. His hope of the one he is now proprietor of here expires on the first of April. We are in hopes J. P. will have to stay here. We can't spare him.

Beans are still thirty cents, but with a downward tendency. MONITOR.

HEPPER ORK March 18th 1881. EDITOR E. O.—Seeing that Communications from our town find favor, or at least appear in your paper, perhaps one under a new cognomen would be alike fortunate.

While we deprecate the conduct of certain officials in our town, and other of our citizens; I would say to "Detective," and "Monitor," I would not be well for us as citizens, to try to correct those who indulge in acts that are calculated to bring the blush of shame to the cheek of the more refined, in some other manner than through personalities in the paper, by which there is nothing gained, except perhaps a name abroad that is anything but enviable. I would suggest official decapitation seasoned with such advice as would be thoroughly understood.

Now to minor matter. D. A. Herren's new store is complete. An examination of the structure, reveals that he has a first class job, both as to carpenter work, and painting. Dave informs us that he will start to San Francisco in two weeks to purchase a stock of general merchandise.

Dave is a tip-top little fellow and we speak for him a liberal patronage. Ed Bishop lost his gentlemanly clerk, I. N. Donaldson, and our urbane little constable Johnny Lockman was missing at the same time; they were subsequently found in St. John as associate bondholders of the City Hotel, vice Gilmore retiring, we have no doubt they will succeed as they are fine fellows, generally known, and well liked.

Put Smith lost one of his fine horses by death, cause unknown, sorry, but they that have most lose.

Mr. Meachen, a disciple of Blackstone is in town, hasn't learned whether he expects to locate permanently or not; we hope a Heppner can certainly afford more than one lawyer and competitor in the town.

Our enterprising townsman, H. H. Hallock, talks of starting a paper in the near future. By the friends of Heppner such an enterprise should be encouraged. Yours for the town. Vox POPULI.

Roscoe Conkling is called a great statesman, and yet it is hard to find any bill originated by him that has attracted any attention except one, which he is alleged to have originated, and which is to come before a Rhode Island Court.

The U. S. Senate has passed a bill to provide for a branch deaf letter office for the Pacific Coast at San Francisco, and thus avoid the trouble and delay of transmitting uncalled-for letters to and from Washington.

LETTERS FROM HEPPER.

HEPPER, March 13, 1881. EDITOR E. O.—Having exhausted my fund of local hits, etc., I have concluded to take up a subject which I am of the opinion will interest not only the people living in close proximity to the point from which the communication is sent, but the general reader also. There are thousands of people living at a distance who regard Oregon, and especially Eastern Oregon, as the "fallings" of the world. They think that when God made the world he had a little gross left and that he wadded that together, trampled it under foot and so left it, and those people I mentioned think that the country known as Eastern Oregon is just exactly that hatch. They have no idea how people live here; what their pursuits are, or anything about them, only, I believe they are generally regarded as a class of ignorant, half civilized, off-scourings of humanity, living more like wild beasts than men. I have very good reasons for thinking that this is the prevailing idea in the Eastern States, for I once lived there myself and I used to think so, and I have heard hundreds of others express themselves similarly.

With these facts staring me in the face I feel as though I had a good broad field to work in, and I feel confident that to those who have never witnessed a wedding in this part of the country, and whose transactions have actually come under my own personal observation, would come as near giving people a true and general knowledge of the country, the people, their mode of living, business, etc., as any other course my limited experience as a writer could suggest.

With the object above stated in view, I shall—provided the editor thinks it worth the necessary space—commence with my next series of letters, and if they, when I have done, have succeeded in making known to the reader what he has intended they should, then I shall feel amply rewarded for my efforts.

In my last letter I stated that J. Pat. Smith had arrived here with a couple of thoroughbred horses. Yesterday morning while he was getting his outfit ready for exercise, the Hambleton hitched to his buggy and the Clydesdale being led behind, Mr. Smith observed when driving near the creek that the horse kept edging toward the water. He had watered him at the usual time but allowed him to drink again. A few moments after the horse commenced staggering and rearing. Mr. Smith fearing he would break his buggy let him loose, drove on and tied up the horse, but he could return the horse had fallen, and lay with his limbs straightened and quivering. As quick as possible Mr. Smith inserted his knife in the horse's mouth for the purpose of bleeding him, but the blood refused to flow, and in two minutes the horse was dead. He was valued at $3,000, and a heavy loss on Mr. Smith.

E. H. Clark, of the firm of Curtis & Wise, wool commission merchant in town, soliciting customers. The citizens of Heppner, are to tender D. D. Squiers, of the Amateurs, a complimentary dinner in a short time. It shows their appreciation of what Mr. Squiers has done toward making the post winter pleasant for us. We predict for him a crowded house.

As I write, 9 P. M. the ground is covered with a thin layer of snow, and it is still snowing. Fred Hawker, who with Frank Monkers engaged in the salmon business early last summer, is now a proprietor, but has been by his honesty and square dealings since engaged in that business, drawn to his place a good class of customers, and made many a firm friend. Fred is the kind of a man that is sure to prosper.

J. P. Bush left here a few days ago for the upper country. We learn he has gone for the purpose of securing a hotel. His hope of the one he is now proprietor of here expires on the first of April. We are in hopes J. P. will have to stay here. We can't spare him.

Beans are still thirty cents, but with a downward tendency. MONITOR.

HEPPER ORK March 18th 1881. EDITOR E. O.—Seeing that Communications from our town find favor, or at least appear in your paper, perhaps one under a new cognomen would be alike fortunate.

While we deprecate the conduct of certain officials in our town, and other of our citizens; I would say to "Detective," and "Monitor," I would not be well for us as citizens, to try to correct those who indulge in acts that are calculated to bring the blush of shame to the cheek of the more refined, in some other manner than through personalities in the paper, by which there is nothing gained, except perhaps a name abroad that is anything but enviable. I would suggest official decapitation seasoned with such advice as would be thoroughly understood.

Now to minor matter. D. A. Herren's new store is complete. An examination of the structure, reveals that he has a first class job, both as to carpenter work, and painting. Dave informs us that he will start to San Francisco in two weeks to purchase a stock of general merchandise.

Dave is a tip-top little fellow and we speak for him a liberal patronage. Ed Bishop lost his gentlemanly clerk, I. N. Donaldson, and our urbane little constable Johnny Lockman was missing at the same time; they were subsequently found in St. John as associate bondholders of the City Hotel, vice Gilmore retiring, we have no doubt they will succeed as they are fine fellows, generally known, and well liked.

Put Smith lost one of his fine horses by death, cause unknown, sorry, but they that have most lose.

Mr. Meachen, a disciple of Blackstone is in town, hasn't learned whether he expects to locate permanently or not; we hope a Heppner can certainly afford more than one lawyer and competitor in the town.

Our enterprising townsman, H. H. Hallock, talks of starting a paper in the near future. By the friends of Heppner such an enterprise should be encouraged. Yours for the town. Vox POPULI.

Roscoe Conkling is called a great statesman, and yet it is hard to find any bill originated by him that has attracted any attention except one, which he is alleged to have originated, and which is to come before a Rhode Island Court.

The U. S. Senate has passed a bill to provide for a branch deaf letter office for the Pacific Coast at San Francisco, and thus avoid the trouble and delay of transmitting uncalled-for letters to and from Washington.

LETTER FROM VANSYCLE.

VANSYCLE, March 15th 1881. EDITOR E. O.—This canyon is becoming quite notorious lately in regard to free fights. A few days ago there was a school meeting held at the house of our neighbor, Ben Stanton. All went well in the cause of education until W. H. Rheam and Willis Doyle, changed the subject to building ditch fences, and taking payment in cows. It seems Mr. Doyle had hired Mr. Rheam (commonly known as the "Vansycle Dutchman") to dig a ditch, for which labor he was to receive a cow. But for some cause Rheam backed out and wanted cash. This Doyle refused to furnish; so one word brought on another until it came to a rough and tumble fight. It seems the most of the trouble led to Rheam from the appearance of his face. However, it is said he drew a knife but failed to use it. For this last act Mr. Doyle had him arrested and taken to Weston and fined $10. The affair will cost the county at least $100.

NEW ROAD. We notice our public spirited neighbor, Mr. A. Rasmussen, started with a petition for the location of a county road, commencing on the road about W. W. Caviness' in Cold Spring, thence north to the State line to First creek. This road will give a direct communication between Pendleton and Walla Walla. We have no doubt but the prayer of the petitioners will be granted, as this road is a public necessity. At the last term of court there was a road ordered viewed and surveyed from Cold Spring to this canyon. We find two-thirds of the people along the line of said road object to its being opened. They say it is entirely unnecessary, and that it will have been positioned for in the first place. In fact the people along the line of the road knew nothing of it until they saw the order of the court. A certain individual, more noted for bluster than brains, says there were thirty-two petitioners for the road. We don't believe it, but if there were they certainly do not live in the vicinity.

We saw some time ago a notice signed R. H. Fay, stating that a white person would be permitted under any circumstances to graze cattle or other stock on the reservation. We believe it a poor rule that don't work both ways, and would ask Mr. Fay if he will be kind enough to have his wards gather in the dozens of cayuse horses that run through this section of country. Last year bands of sheep were permitted to roam on the reservation for $10 per month. Then the Indians rebelled. At present it will cost $50 per month. An impious individual at our elbow whispers $10 for the priest, $10 for the agent, and the original $10 for Lo. Begone, then, we don't believe it.

We like to read "Monitor's" communications from Heppner, as a general thing, and are glad to see by his last letter he is recovering from his disgust of the human race, etc. Horace would give him this advice: "Above all things, Monitor, if you can, take to your side, I pray, with mortal man."

"THE OLD PIONEER" is the name of a brand of whiskey that is all the rage at present. It is pure and leaves no headache. Ye drinkers call for it and be happy.

A Missouri editor printed a two-column editorial on the best breed of dogs, and a contemporary took him to task for devoting so much space to his family affairs.

We like a good thing and therefore always smoke the APPETITE & JEWELL, a very fine cigar indeed.

Every one who enjoys a good cigar should try the celebrated "Stallion" cigar. W. H. West is the agent.

Strong the best cigar. THE APPETITE & JEWELL are the best.

MARRIED. PHAZER-WEBB.—At the residence of the bride's father, in Pendleton, on the 12th inst., Mr. Frank Frizer to Miss Kate Webb, daughter of G. W. Webb, Esq. Ceremony performed by Rev. W. H. Pruitt.

Had we been consulted in this matter beforehand, we cannot say that we should have advised any such rash venture. Since, however, the happy couple have "crossed the Rubicon," we can only extend our hearty congratulations and hopes that their life journey may be prospered by Elysian breezes, and that the shades of sorrow may never cross the portals of their threshold.

DEED. GAULT.—At Pilot Rock, March 10th, after a lingering illness, Mr. D. M. Gault, his wife, who was taken sick about the same time that he was, preceded him in the grave a few weeks ago, and two small children are left orphans on the world.

R. B. BISHOP, JUSTICE OF THE PEACE, Office over EAST OREGONIAN.

Notice is hereby given that the following brands of cattle belong to the undersigned, viz: Row lock on left hip; stirrup on left hip; 7 on left hip, and male shoe on right hip.

All persons are hereby warned not to interfere with cattle having the above brands, either dead or alive. Cattle skiners will therefore let them alone.

W. H. BARKER, L. C. ROGERS, JESSE MOORE.

Entray Notice. TAKEN UP BY THE SHERIFF'S LIVING ABOUT 12 miles west of Heppner, Umattilas County, Ore., one mare about 10 hands high, ear in forehead, branded circle 4 or 5 on left shoulder, and 1 B. connected, 7 over 8 on left hind; had been running about my place for two years; very wild, no saddle or harness marks. Appraised at $200 this 2nd day of March 1881, by A. Malloy, J. P. RHEA.

FOR SALE. A desirable parcel of land situated near the flouring mills in Pendleton, consisting of two and a half lots with substantial dwelling house and other improvements on it. Terms reasonable. Apply at this office.

Lost. A dark bay brand with Howland Wampo's brand (Z on the right hip) coming seven years old, one white fore foot and one white hind foot, cross-ways, has been crossed well back towards his withers, a few saddle marks and small star in forehead, 14 hands high or thereabouts. I will give $10 to any one delivering the horse at Henry Bowman's stable in Pendleton. Feb. 22, '81.—20th A. G. BATESMAN.

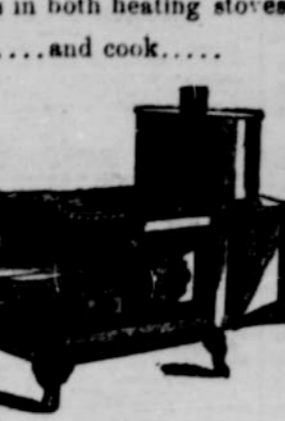

FOR SALE. I offer for sale my hotel and stock in Pilot Rock, as I am compelled to close my business on account of ill health and the recent death of my wife. This is a good opening for an enterprising man and will prove a good business investment. For terms apply in person or by letter to D. M. GAULT, Feb. 23, '81.—26th Pilot Rock, Oregon.

G. W. Webb & Son,

MADE STREET

PENDLETON, OR.

Dealers in both heating stoves, and cook....

A large stock of hardware and cutlery constantly kept on hand.

FIRE-ARMS AND AMMUNITION.

INTEREST CHARGED ON ALL ACCOUNTS AFTER 30 DAYS.

PENDLETON HOTEL,

Main St., Pendleton, Or.

THIS CENTRALLY LOCATED

POPULAR HOUSE

Having been entirely refitted and rebranded, is now open for the reception of guests.

THE TABLE

Will at all times be found furnished with the very best of the market of fresh, and every attention made to satisfy the patrons of the house.

The Beds

Are all new, and the rooms have been furnished with the most comfortable and with every convenience usually found in a first class house.

Best House East of the Mountains. The resident and traveling public are respectfully invited to call.

M. E. FOLSOM, BLACKSMITH.

Corner of Main and Alder Streets.

SHOEING

And all general work to the Blacksmith line done well and with dispatch.

J. BAYLER, SADDLE AND HARNESS MAKER.

KEEP Constantly on hand a complete supply of Harness, Saddles, Bridles, Whips, Spurs, Collars, Halters, Sashes, and every thing needed in our line. Call and see us before sending below. Our Repairing promptly attended to.

PIONEER LIVRY FEED AND SALE STABLE.

Shop on Main Street opposite Pendleton Hotel, Pendleton, Oregon.

WOOD! WOOD!

The undersigned is now prepared to supply the people of Pendleton. All orders left with me or at the law office of Tress & Butler will be promptly attended to. Those wishing dry wood for next winter should send in their orders at an early day.

Commercial LIVRY FEED & SALE STABLE.

HENRY BOWMAN, Prop'r. Main Street, Pendleton, Oregon.

HARRY ROBERTS, BRICK LAYER AND PLASTERER.

ALSO LUMBER AND WHITENING. Jobbing promptly attended to.

R. ALEXANDER & Co.

Summers to

LIVERMORE BEAGLE

Post Office Building, Main street, Pendleton, Oregon.

Dealers in general MERCHANDISE Etc., Etc.

NEW FIRM! NEW STORE!

NEW GOODS!

A full, complete and entirely new stock of general merchandise, Hats, Caps, Boots and Shoes.

And the largest and most complete stock of ready made CLOTHING.

Ever brought to Pendleton, just received direct from San Francisco.

Call and Examine

Our goods before buying elsewhere.

Country produce taken at highest cash price.

Goods sold at WALLA WALLA prices.

R. Alexander & Co.

LOT LIVERMORE. J. W. ELLIS.

LIVERMORE & ELLIS.

VILLARD HOUSE.

OPENED FOR THE ACCOMMODATION OF THE PUBLIC.

New House, New Furniture

Situated in the Heart of the Town.

Adjoining the Court House Square. Its Ventilation and the circulation of air is improved by surrounding built-up. In its Architectural Construction, Furnishings and all modern conveniences it challenges comparison from the very best houses.

THE BEDS

Are all new, well roomed, clean and comfortable.

THE TABLE

Will at all times be supplied with the very BEST THE MARKET AFFORDS.

No pains or trouble will be spared by the proprietors or the employees to make the

VILLARD

THE MOST POPULAR RESORT EAST OF THE MOUNTAINS.

We ask only a fair and impartial trial of our establishment in support of its claims.

LIVERMORE & ELLIS, Proprietors.

W. H. Marshall, Blacksmith.

Successor to Marshall & Folsom.

NEW SALOON.

Main Street, Opposite Court House.

WESTON ACADEMY, WESTON, OR.

Second term will begin MONDAY, JAN. 31, 1881.

NEW YORK STORE!

Silk Hankerchiefs, Lubin Cologne, Gents Silk Scarfs, Ladies Silk and Lace Ties, Ruching, etc., etc. At the New York Store.

WESTON ACADEMY, WESTON, OR.

Second term will begin MONDAY, JAN. 31, 1881.

WESTON ACADEMY, WESTON, OR.

Second term will begin MONDAY, JAN. 31, 1881.

WESTON ACADEMY, WESTON, OR.

Second term will begin MONDAY, JAN. 31, 1881.

J. H. Sharon & Co.

Are now ready for business at their

STEAM

PLANING MILL, SASH AND DOOR FACTORY AND LUMBER YARD.

UNDERTAKING

AGENTS FOR BENTLEY & HAWNS STEAM SAW MILL.

BON TON HOTEL.

RESTAURANT