

THE PLAINDEALER

MONDAY, FEB. 11, 1895.

T. K.
Sells musical goods for less than Portland prices.

Ho, Ho, Boos, Look Here.
Come and see our hard times $20 suits and $6.50 pants. Guaranteed for one year at Chicago Tailor's, in with Milliken.

Brown's Case Appealed.
Saturday W. R. Willis and A. M. Crawford filed notice of appeal in the case against S. G. Brown, convicted of murder in the first degree and sentenced to be hanged on Friday of this week. The matter was taken before Judge Fullerton, and he ordered a stay of execution until the appeal can be heard in the supreme court.

Wanted in Coos County.
John G. Manning was arrested in San Francisco Friday afternoon. He is wanted in Coos county on charges of robbery, arson and jail breaking. Last year he and a man named Owen broke into the store of the Southern Oregon Mercantile Co., and stole a large amount of money and goods and then fled the place. Manning and Owen escaped from jail together. Owen was recently arrested in Sacramento.

Under New Management.
The theater is now under the management of Will Madison, of the Roseleaf, he having leased it at an annual rental of $100. Owing to unavoidable circumstances, the theater has not been a paying proposition heretofore, but it is certainly to be hoped that the circumstances will be reversed in the future. The theater is the best arranged of any in the state outside of Portland, and as Mr. Madison will book only first-class attractions it is quite likely that he will meet with success.

School Fund Apportionment.
The county school fund will be apportioned in April, and the state fund in August, as usual, and as required by the school law. The article in the newspapers relating to the school fund was somewhat misleading. The article in question refers only to that part of the state school fund yet due the various counties for the year 1894, and has nothing to do with either the county or state fund for the year of 1895; which will be apportioned as usual and at the proper time.

A Fitting Sequence.
Sen. Congressman Hermann is a man whose election would give great satisfaction. But the bosses do not seem to want him. His election would not be a fitting sequence to the example set in Washington by the election of Congressman Wilson to the senate from that state. He has served so long in congress that he could step on in congress the seat better than any other man who could be named from Oregon. He would protect every great interest of the state.

Funeral of Miss May Brown.
The funeral of Miss May Brown took place Friday afternoon, and was largely attended. It was announced that the services would be held in St. George's Episcopal church, but before the time announced for the services arrived the church was filled to overflowing by friends of the deceased, and it was decided to hold the services in the opera house. The services were conducted by Rev. Theo. Neil Wilson and were witnessed by a large number of friends of the deceased and family. The casket was covered with beautiful flowers. The Pythian Sisters and Knights of Pythias attended the services in a body. After some very appropriate remarks by Rev. Wilson and the singing of several hymns by the choir, the remains were taken to the Masonic cemetery and interred in the family lot. May rest in peace.

January Weather.
Following is the monthly meteorological summary taken at Roseburg, Oregon, for the month of January, 1895: Mean temperature, 40; highest temperature, 62; date 9th; lowest temperature, 10; date 25th; greatest daily range of temperature, 26; date 25th; least daily range of temperature, 3; date 3rd. Mean temperature for this month for 18 years, 40; prevailing direction of wind, southeast; total movement of wind, 2971 miles; maximum velocity of wind, 15 miles; date, 24, southwest, 5th. Total precipitation, 5.45 inches; number of days with .01 inch or more of precipitation, 19; average precipitation for this month for 18 years, 6.19; total precipitation in precipitation during month, 1.59 inches; total precipitation from September 1, 1894, to date, 10.47 inches; average precipitation from September 1, 1894, to date, 2.89 inches; total deficiency from September 1, 1894, to date, 2.41 inches; average precipitation for 21 wet seasons, 35.59 inches; number of clear days 8; partly cloudy days 12; cloudy days 11. Time, Casson, Observer.

Engineers and Officers Agree.
The engineers and the Southern Pacific officials have patched up their differences, says the San Francisco Chronicle. The dispute is practically settled, at least, though one or two more conferences will be required to arrange all the details. The members of the committee from the brotherhood who have been waiting upon the officials up in the general office ever since the new scale of wages went into effect made that announcement Thursday afternoon after spending several hours in close conference with General Manager A. N. Towne, General Superintendent J. A. Fillmore and the other representatives of the company's interests. The officials refused to corroborate the statement when questioned about the matter, but remarked that an agreement would probably be reached by Tuesday. Just what the terms of the agreement will remain a secret until the whole matter is settled. It is known, however, that the company has agreed to make certain modifications in that part of the new wage schedule which affects the engineers, and the latter have given their unanimous approval. It is also known that the wages of the engineers are to be raised to $1.00 a day, and that the wages of the other divisions are to be raised to $0.75 a day.

THE SAME OLD CH ESTNU.

There is no change in the Situation at Salem.

Aside from the withdrawal of Congressman Hermann's name, there has been no change in the situation at Salem since our last report. The vote total was as follows: Dolph 36, Hare 10, Williams 9, Lowell 10, Weatherford 7, Lord 6, absent 13.

Following is the result of the ballots thus far cast for United States senator:

Dolph	36
Hare	10
Williams	9
Lowell	10
Weatherford	7
Lord	6
Absent	13

Jack Abraham is continually receiving new goods in the line of gentlemen's furnishing goods. His low prices for goods, and his ready sale to his customers, causes the continual replenishing of the shelves at his store.

Mrs. T. S. Hawkins, Chattanooga, Tenn., says, "Shiloh's Vitalizer 'Saved My Life.' I consider it the best remedy for a debilitated system I ever used." For Dyspepsia, Liver or Kidney trouble it excels. Price 75c.

Judge Shattuck of Portland has decided that where a jury serves all night they are entitled to two day's pay or $4. This is a decision that will affect the whole state. It is the principle that one legal day is only 12 hours.

W. A. Baker, a photographer, aged 41, a native of Michigan, committed from Washington county for bigamy, and received at the penitentiary November 29, 1893, to serve two years, committed suicide in his cell at the penitentiary at Salem Wednesday night by hanging himself.

A very material change has occurred in the weather during the past 24 hours. Yesterday was a regular spring day, while today has the appearance of winter, although it is not cold. Early this morning rain commenced falling which was soon followed by a light snowstorm.

The Fireman's Fund Insurance company is recognized all over the Pacific coast as being the leading company. Its policies are accepted by the U. S. Government without question. Place your insurance in this old and well known company. C. B. Cannon, resident agent.

West Oregonian: We regret to note that Mrs. Littlefield, wife of Capt. R. S. Littlefield, superintendent of the government works at Bandon, has been adjudged insane and sent to the State Asylum at Salem. The Captain's many friends sympathize with him in his distressing trouble.

Bunco Kelly, convicted of the murder of George W. Sayres at Portland on the 26th of last September, was Saturday sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary. He will be taken there today. When the court passed sentence on him he remarked: "Judge, I'd rather you'd hang me than that."

At Hillsboro Friday B. F. Dant, a veteran of the civil war, about 50 years of age, and paralyzed in the right hand, shot Mrs. John Mueller in the right hand, and Mrs. Manning, her daughter, in the right arm, and then blew his brains out. The refusal of Mrs. Manning to become Mrs. Dant is assigned as the cause of the deed.

Adjutant General Mitchell of the National Guard has made his report for 1893 and 1894. It shows the national guard of the state consists of twenty-three companies of infantry, two troops of cavalry and one battery of artillery, one engineer corps, three hospital corps detachments and two bands. The returns show that for 1895, 45,000 men are liable to military duty in the state.

Report in Roseburg.
Julian Rappert, the New York Tribune correspondent, afloat around the world, reached Roseburg Saturday evening, registering at the Van Houten. Rappert is enthusiastic in his praise of Oregon, asserting that in all his journey from New York to Halifax and across the continent he has seen no such country as this. Immigration literature while widely distributed throughout the East fails lamentably to portray the country as it is and the advantages to accrue from a residence in its boundaries. Rappert's itinerary hence includes a visit to each and every telegraph station along the main line from Roseburg to San Francisco, and from across the Pacific Asia and Europe and thence back across the Atlantic to New York.

The Early Bird Fooled.
A case of counting chickens before they are hatched is reported. As the party's name is familiar to our readers we give the incident: It appears that Senator Dolph was anxious to hurry back to Washington as soon as he was re-elected, and requested the secretary of state to make out in advance his certificate of election and have it ready for signature and acknowledgment upon the ballot being cast in the legislature. He had no doubt of being returned and had his private car, which is furnished him by the railroad company, all victualled and ready for the trip east.

A Sudden Death.
Sunday morning, after an illness but 24 hours, Mrs. Christabelle Toomlin, wife of Chas. Toomlin, died at the family residence at Melrose, of congestion of the lungs. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon. She was an estimable lady, and highly esteemed by all who knew her.

T. K.
Has just received a fine lot of costumes for the mask ball, February 14th; also has completed his list of prizes, which can be seen in the window on Tuesday. Call on T. K. and get your tickets and save the rush at the door. Supper at the banquet hall.

T. K.
Has ordered a large shipment of Washburn musical goods direct from the factory.

T. K.
Keeps over forty different kinds of musical instruments constantly on hand.

For Over Fifty Years.
An Old and Well-Tried Remedy.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Is pleasant to the taste, sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Beware of cheap imitations. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, and take no other kind.

Several copies of the Hawaiian Star, published at Honolulu, have been received by parties in Roseburg from Father Noel, who is now in the islands for the benefit of his health. The Star appears to be the official paper, and contains a number of proclamations by the president relative to the late uprising there.

'Twas A Grand Success.
The entertainment given under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church at the opera house Friday evening was one of the most enjoyable affairs that ever occurred in Roseburg. The exercises opened by the singing of two choruses, sang by about 20 ladies and gentlemen. Of the two choruses sang the Anvil chorus received the most commendation from the audience. Mrs. Lynne, Mrs. Short of Wilbur and Mrs. Conover then gave voice each to a solo, all of which were received with much applause. Edward McKenzie then placed a piano solo in which he showed much taste as a musician. Recitations by Miss Bradley, Miss Ames, in which they displayed good elocutionary ability, were next in order. Then Miss Thompson discoursed most excellent music on the violin, accompanied by Mrs. Flint on the piano. This was a splendid performance and received the plaudits of all present. Then came the Angels Landered by Dollie Snyder and Millie Landers, two girls about 12 years of age. It was performed to perfection. They were accompanied in the execution of this serenade by E. McKenzie on the piano and Miss Thompson on the violin. Now came a table set by seven ladies, Misses Lucy Stanton, Ella Boyd, Belle Willis, Winnie Bitter, Ella Bradley, Kearney and Lena Kearney. This table was the great feature of the evening, and elicited the highest encomiums of the large audience present. The exercises closed with a grand supper and games, and at the midnight hour all dispersed to their respective homes well pleased with the evening's entertainment and the best wishes for all those who participated in the joyful exercises of the evening. The writer of the above notes hopes he has not materially erred in presenting the main features of the entertainment. If he has it is his wish to do all parties justice.

Waging War on Gossips.
The editor of the Cottage Grove Echo-Leader says the following bit of choice rhetoric at some of the local gossips: "A few white-livered scabs and lousy scabs may imagine it is smart to let their tongues wag too much about the private and personal affairs of the editor of the Echo-Leader. We advise such to go slow and learn to peddle, if they prefer not to see some things in cold type which are, and have been done, right here, that would indicate to the public that some people are not just the pinks they would like some folks to imagine. Shows that if, should be worn. The editor of the Echo-Leader is doing wonderful work for his own country. He is attending to his own affairs, and is quite able to do so without the necessity of white-livered puppies trying to get into his soap dish. Their home affairs require their undivided attention. We may be quietly slumbering, but don't put on gloves to go for skunks. When we want it we will seek for satisfaction in a manner that may justify the livers of some wretches."

Notice.
All persons indebted to C. K. Hill of Roseburg are asked to call and pay on or before March 4, 1895. By so doing they will save costs. This is the last notice. C. K. Hill.
