Used a Razor.

CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—Albert J. Leitch, 67 years old, ordered his son John, 37 years old, to return a peach to a basket from which he had taken it. John refused to do so, and the father, with the assistance of another son, George, attempted to enforce the order. The peach was wrested from John, and the father and second son were about to eject him from the house, when he drew a razor and slashed his brother across the right cheek. George retired. John then turned the razor upon his father and cut him a number of times. One wound, just under the ear, it is believed, will result fatally.

John made no effort to escape and was locked up. The old gentleman is reputedly wealthy. In explanation of the action John said: "It was my business to cut somebody's throat."

A Murderer Escaped.

EAGLE PASS, Tex., Sept. 20.—Encarnacion Minose killed his wife by cutting her throat from ear to ear. He cut off the head of a man who interfered, and then stabbed his cousin. He escaped, but has been caught in Crockett county, Texas, and will be brought back.

CITY COUNCIL.

The following ordinance was read 1st, 2nd and 3rd time and passed:

CITY ORDINANCE NO. 134.

An Ordinance entitled an ordinance prescribing the manner of conducting city elections, and the manner of canvassing the returns and issuance of certificates of election.

The City of Roseburg does ordain as follows:

Sec. 1. All city elections held hereafter in the City of Roseburg, Oregon, shall be conducted in accordance with the laws of the State of Oregon governing general elections, and the provisions regarding the same as set forth in the charter of said city.

Sec. 2. The common council shall on or before the first regular meeting of the council after an election has been held proceed to canvass the returns from the different wards and to make abstracts of the votes; and it shall be the duty of the recorder to immediately make out a certificate of election to each of the persons having received the highest number of votes respectively and to deliver such certificate to the person entitled to it, on his making application to the recorder; provided, that when a tie shall exist between two or more persons the council must determine the same, and then and there proceed publicly to decide by lot which of the persons so having an equal number of votes shall be declared duly elected. And the said recorder shall make and deliver to the person thus declared duly elected a certificate of his election as hereinbefore provided.

Passed the board of trustees Sept. 20, 1905.
 JOHN H. SHUPE,
 Attest, Chm. Board of Trustees.
 F. M. ZIGLER, Recorder.

The recorder was instructed to procure pen, ink and paper for the different voting wards, and the marshal instructed to see that ballot boxes were at all the polling places.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

An Exciting Race.

On his return from Walla Walla with his prisoner, F. H. Skinner, who was arrested at that place on a charge of swindling parties in this county, Sheriff Cathcart had a very exciting chase yesterday, this side of Irvin station. Mr. Cathcart, not wishing to be too severe with his prisoner, did not put the shackles on him on taking the cars at Portland for Roseburg, thinking he was able to manage his man without them.

Soon after leaving Irvin station, Skinner asked leave to go into the water closet. Permission was given and while he stood guard at the door he had the peanut boy go to the steps at the front to keep watch on the outside. Skinner, soon after entering the closet, leaped out at the window while the train was running at the rate of 30 or 35 miles an hour. The peanut boy immediately gave the alarm and the conductor rang the bell for an immediate stop. While the car was yet at least a ten mile rate, Cathcart leaped from the train and ran after Skinner, who had by that time got about 300 yards the start. The race with each now was as if for dear life. Skinner was probably a little the worse for his sudden contact with terra firma and his flight was laborious across the newly-plowed field.

But with that desperation which the circumstances inspired by the consequent chagrin his prisoner's escape would cause him he put in some tall running. During the chase Cathcart fired once at his escaped prisoner. Skinner soon became short of breath and gave up and surrendered. Cathcart returned to the cars with his man. The shackles were put on him the balance of the journey and he is now behind the bars. Those who witnessed the chase all agree that it was a race, which for excitement, beat a horse race at a county fair.

The Poultry Show.

The exhibit of poultry at the fair the north side of the pavilion is not very extensive, but is all of popular breeds, as the following list will show: Wyandots, Plymouth Rocks, Minorcas, Brown Hamburgs, Langshans and White Leghorns of the hen family; Bronze and White Holland turkeys; China geese and a coop of pigeons. They are all fine birds that would delight a poultry fancier. This department of agriculture is beginning to receive more attention than has formerly been the custom. The old dunghills are being superceded by a better and more economical class of barn-yard fowls, by the stimulus given higher breeding through the agency of these fairs.

Honey.

E. V. Byers of Sumner came up yesterday evening with a load of ambrosial sweetness. Mr. Byers has some of the nicest honey ever brought to this city.

That made from the early flower is superb, though it is not as delightful to the eye as that made from white clover. It is truly excellent and no mistake, and at prices by the case very reasonable. Persons fond of honey should avail themselves of the opportunity to secure a case of it before it is too late.

The officers of the fair are: E. Dixon, president; F. A. McCall, secretary; F. D. Owen, assistant secretary. Other employees are: R. B. Dixon, marshal; S. C. Bartrum, assistant marshal; W. E. Linn, supt. of pavilion; Mrs. W. C. Winston, supt. of fruit; Miss Fannie McKean, supt. of fancy work, needle work, etc.; Miss Lillie Gilliland, supt. of art. Hon. W. H. Leeper, supt. of stock department; F. D. Owen, Misses Lucy Stanton, Abbie Parrott and Addie Stewart, entry clerks; J. B. Cannon, Geo. Petrequin and H. C. Slocum, ticket sellers; W. H. Howard, Green Mathews, T. B. Cannon and B. Brockway, ticket takers; J. T. Hinkle, night watch at pavilion; J. Bullack, J. L. Grimes, A. O. Rose and J. S. Gilkerson, guards.
