City Marshal Jarvis has been having some of the prisoners from the city jail clean off the squares, at the various street crossings. He wishes the property owners between the blocks would do likewise and this would make the streets so much better than they have been. Marshal Jarvis reports that J. Brooks, who owns the block in which the Wollenburg Bros. store is located, has expressed a willingness to grade and gravel his part of the street between Main and Jackson, abutting on this property, and now the bank people are thinking of doing likewise, which would greatly improve a piece of street which has been very bad, every winter.

Burr Jones was arrested on a charge of violating the ordinance which prohibited the selling of meats on the street without a license. He has engaged Attorney Albert Abraham to defend him, and proposed to test the said ordinance, by appealing the case to the circuit court, in case it goes against him. He says that he offered to take out the regular meat market license, but refused to pay the $5 per day which the ordinance places upon all who sell on the streets, unless it is in cases where the farmer kills his own cattle and thus offers it for sale.

A very pretty party was given by Mrs. F. W. Haynes, at her home on Rose street, Wednesday afternoon, in honor of her little daughter, Teka's fourth birthday. Fifty little folks had been invited to enjoy the affair and they had a right jolly time of it. The mothers of some of them were also in attendance and likewise had a nice time. Little favors in the shape of tissue paper caps were given each boy and girl, and these were worn out to the dining room, where delicious refreshments were to be had, and where each little guest was presented with a little cake, upon which was a little birthday candle. It was a very unique and enjoyable affair.

Listen!

Did you hear the cry? Hundreds after hundreds of monuments and tombstones cry out in anguish over the load of moss and grime deposited on them by Father Time.

Those silent sentinels over the last resting place of departed friends feel debased by their unsightly appearance, and ask for a new dress. Ask to once more stand smiling and contented, with the appearance of their first coming.

A few of the old ones now wear that smile of welcome to friend and stranger. Apply to Marsters Bros. for information or address C. A. Berkman, Roseburg. He will make the old look like new. Respectfully, C. A. Berkman. 95-1f

A Judicial Inquiry

A well known traveling man who visits the drug trade says he has often heard druggists inquire of customers who asked for a cough medicine, whether it was wanted for a child or for an adult, and if for a child they almost invariably recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The reason for this is that they know there is no danger from it and that it always cures. There is not the least danger in giving it, and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by A. C. Marsters & Co.
