DANTE'S HUMOR.

The humorous side of Dante is analyzed in the Westminster Review by George Frothingham, who is a great admirer of the famous poet and who has in previous writings expressed his appreciation of Dante as a nature poet and as a novelist.

Although Dante's great poem is a "comedy" in the sense of being a drama working to a happy ending, we do not look for ridiculous situations in it, such as we usually associate with the idea of comedy. Ridiculous situations occur nevertheless, and there is no lack of humor even in the poet's description of the sufferings of the lost. Dante's humor, however, is of the unconscious kind, arising from a total lack of perception of the ludicrous. It is said that he was never seen to smile, and we can quite believe it, since he never forsakes sober seriousness in his writings, and it is his deadly earnestness that betrays him into occasional comicality.

The sinners in hell, the poet tells us, are relegated to their proper quarters on the judgment of Minos, who indicates the particular circle to which the culprit is consigned by wrapping his tail so many times around his bestial body. Fancy the trembling sinner waiting to count the coils that he may know his fate!

It is a horrible punishment which is assigned to those guilty of simony, to be buried head downward in a circular pit, with only the legs and feet protruding, while flickering flames glide over the soles of the latter, inflicting exquisite torture, yet our sense of humor is provoked by the description of Dante standing over one of these holes and holding a conversation with its occupant, "reversed, and as a stake driven in the soil," while numberless legs wriggle in continual motion around him.

Arrangements for Perfecting Organization of Coos County Fruit Growers.

A meeting of the fruit growers of this section was held in the city recorder's office recently, and after reading the minutes of the previous meeting it was proposed that the name be changed to the Coquille Valley Fruit Growers' Association of Coquille. F. S. Dow was present and addressed the meeting, and in his remarks stated that he was in favor of such an organization, and advised that a county association be formed and incorporated, so that buyers would not be compelled to do business with several associations, but with only one body; that last year 25,000 boxes of apples were shipped from this county, 5,000 of them being Gravensteins. He advised growers to make these apples a specialty, as they come at a time of the year when other fruit is scarce and there is the least fluctuation in prices.

Others also spoke in favor of county organization, with delegates from the several localities in Coos county. A motion was made that the chairman appoint delegates to attend the next meeting of the Myrtle Point association with a view of joining that body, and to work together to form an incorporated county association. The chair appointed as such a committee Messrs. Davis, Hooten, Howie and Holverstott. The chair appointed all present as a committee on future work to obtain a larger attendance at the next meeting, on April 4.—Coquille Sentinel.
