W. B. CURTIS, P. M.

Mrs. Duebner III.—Mrs. Duebner, a prominent Marshfield woman, is reported quite ill of bronchitis and the grip.

Alliance in Monday.—The Alliance will reach Coos Bay from Portland early Monday, sailing from Portland tomorrow.

Lutheran Church Services.—There will be service this evening 8 p. m., at the church. Rev. B. F. Bengtson, pastor.

Eureka Sails To-morrow.—The Eureka is due in here from Eureka early Saturday and will probably sail for Portland at 1 o'clock.

Merchant Not So Well.—It was stated today that Ben Merchant, who has been ill at the General Hospital for sometime, was not so well.

Enterprise in Today.—The gasoline launch, Enterprise, which was recently purchased by R. D. Hume, reached Coos Bay from Wedderburn today laden with salmon.

Plant in Tomorrow.—Agent F. S. Dow today received word that the M. F. Plant had sailed from San Francisco yesterday at 4 o'clock and will reach Coos Bay Saturday.

Called to San Francisco.—J. R. McDonald and wife left last evening, via Drain, for San Francisco in response to telegrams announcing the serious illness of Mrs. McDonald's mother.

Build on Broadway.—A. T. Haines has ordered plans for a store building to be erected on South Broadway, near the new Mangan building. It may sell or rent it and if he does, he expects to put another building on an adjacent lot which he also owns.

Boat House Robbed.—Carl Swelgin, who has been living in a boat house anchored off Front street, near the Stave mill, reported today that someone had cut a hole in the roof of it and robbed his trunk, taking his clothing. The crime was committed while Mr. Swelgin was at Bandon. There is no clue.

Sunrise Meeting.—The Young People's societies of a number of the churches have arranged for a "Sunrise meeting" Easter Sunday morning, at 6 o'clock, at the Presbyterian church. A feature of the service will be special music under the direction of C. J. Mills.

Postpone Baseball Meeting.—As a result of only half a dozen turning out last evening, Manager Charles Howard decided to postpone the meeting to arrange for the baseball season. He will call another meeting soon and attempt to do something. If Marshfield wants a baseball team, it is simply up to them to get out and help the movement along.

Young Couple Weds.—L. D. Belleu and Miss Ethel Boone were married last evening by the Rev. W. R. F. Browne, the ceremony being solemnized at 8:30 and was witnessed by about fourteen intimate friends. Following the ceremony, a wedding supper was served. The bride is the daughter of Captain A. D. Boone. Mr. Belleu is a lineman for the local telephone company. They are the recipients of the well wishes of a large number of friends.

Gets Valuable Claims.—S. F. Pierce, formerly of Coos Bay but now of Curry county, was in Marshfield this week en route home from Roseburg where he participated in a timber claim drawing. He secured two claims near Port Orford, one for himself and one for his wife, that are said to be worth between $12,000 and $15,000. He said that there was a great rush for the Curry county lands. Other lands in the Unquya valley are to be thrown open in a few days.

LADIES should not fail to inspect the beautiful line of Easter hats and bonnets at the Clarke Millinery.
