BAD ATTACK OF DYSENTERY CURED.

"An honored citizen of this town was suffering from a severe attack of dysentery. He told a friend if he could obtain a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, he felt confident of being cured, he having used this remedy in the West. He was told that I kept it in stock and lost no time in obtaining it, and was promptly cured," says M. J. Leach, druggist of Wolcott, Vt. For sale by JOHN PREUSS.

Eureka In and Out.—The Eureka arrived today from Portland and sailed a few hours later for Eureka. She was heavily laden with freight from Portland.

Revival Meetings.—The Rev. Mr. Bledsoe of Portland, is conducting revival services at the First Baptist church this week and will hold meetings every evening.

Funeral Sunday.—The five-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sundbaum of North Bend, who died Friday was buried yesterday in the I. O. O. F. cemetery in Marshfield. The Rev. B. F. Bengtson officiated.

Hume Loses Horse.—One of R. D. Hume's thoroughbred two-year old fillies, lately shipped up from San Francisco to be trained for the Marchmont races, died of colic last week at his Wedderburn farm. — Port Orford News.

Medical Association Meets.—The Coos County Medical Society will meet in Dr. E. Mingus' office in Marshfield at 8 o'clock this evening. Officers will be elected for the ensuing year and the remainder of the session devoted to an informal discussion of general topics of interest to the profession.

Honor Dr. E. Mingus.—Dr. E. Mingus has been appointed advisory committeeman for the Marshfield district by the American Health League, a committee of about one hundred leading medical and philanthropic workers of the country. The object of the league is to secure the establishment of a national health bureau which will educate people and enable them to better care for their health. Also to gather data on contagious diseases, etc.

Patronize Good Literature.—W. Scott Ford, the veteran newspaper man, has taken the agency for Coos County for the Saturday Evening Post and Ladies' Home Journal of the Curtis Publishing Company of Philadelphia, and is calling upon the citizens of Marshfield for their subscriptions to these popular publications. The merit of these two journals as literary productions are too well-known to need any praise or advertisement.

THE ALLIANCE WILL SAIL FROM COOS BAY FOR PORTLAND AT 8 O'CLOCK TUESDAY MORNING.

Personal Notes

H. F. FIELDER left today for Eureka on business and pleasure.

R. D. MURPHY and A. L. HAMILTON left today for Eureka on business.

DR. CULIN of Coquille, came over today to attend a meeting of the Coos County Medical Society here this evening.

MISS MARY BLACK and MRS. JOHN PREUSS are home from a brief rest and recreation trip to Bullards, Oregon.

MR. and MRS. O. J. SEELEY and baby returned to their home in Coquille today after a visit at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Mingus.

E. S. BARGELT will leave on the Alliance tomorrow for Portland to attend the State Convention of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Bargelt, who is presiding at the meeting will return with him the last of the week, probably.

TOM HALL and EUGENE O'CONNELL returned today from Ten Mile where they have been fishing for a few days. They had excellent luck and brought back the fish as evidence to substantiate their stories.

TOM BENNETT, a son of J. W. Bennett, arrived today from Portland where he has been visiting since the close of his year at Leland Stanford University. He was accompanied by J. N. Teal of Portland and the two accompanied by J. W. Bennett will go to Ten Mile for several days fishing. General Funston who expected to come was unexpectedly called back to San Francisco. He will come here for an outing later in the year.

Advertising, and all those who are not now subscribers, especially these who like literature of an entertaining and instructive character, will doubtless give Mr. Ford an order. He deals with subscriptions only.

Young Girl Dies.—Blanche Jackson, the seventeen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Davis Jackson of Catching Inlet died at her home there today. She had been ill of consumption about six months. The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

Wedding at Coquille.—Invitations were received by Marshfield friends today for the marriage of Miss Lillian Ruth Way and Paul L. Sterling which will be solemnized at the W. M. Way home in Myrtle Point Wednesday evening, June 17th. Miss Way was formerly agent for the Pacific States Telephone Company at Myrtle Point. The young couple have scores of friends in this section who will unite in extending best wishes for their happy future.

Show Didn't Make Hit.—The Francis Travesty Company failed to score a hit in Marshfield. The attendance at Saturday night's production in the Masonic Opera House was light. There were some bright, catchy parts to the program but the rest of it was wearisome. In consequence of the result Saturday night, no attempt was made to play here last night.

Gets Diamond Ring.—Mrs. Hayes Temple of North Bend, has received a handsome diamond ring from L. B. Phillips, an aged resident of Portland, as an appreciation of her work for his family. Mrs. Temple is one of the few licensed lady embalmers in the northwest and several months ago cared for a case in Mr. Phillips' family. He was so highly pleased with her work that he made her agree to accept some little tribute and the diamond ring came a few days ago.
