

COOS BAY'S SOCIAL SIDE

social way. Monday night, a dance was given at Eckhoff hall in which a large number participated. Tuesday evening, the officers of the boats were entertained at a smoker in the Commercial club hall. Tuesday afternoon, the ball game between the "Jack Tars" and the North Bend was largely attended.

Mrs. L. J. Simpson of North Bend, who by the way didn't go to San Francisco, as had been reported, is entertaining a number of friends at a house party at Ten Mile over the Fourth. Mrs. Keating, her mother, Mrs. Troutman and brother, Teddy, are among her guests. Mr. Simpson who was called to San Francisco on business is expected home during the week. His sister and a friend may accompany him back to spend the summer on Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. Hendricks of Portland, will occupy the McCormac residence during the absence of the family at their summer home on South Coos river. Mr. Hendricks is architect of the new Chandler hotel and the new high school building.

There was an unexpectedly large turnout of Coos Bay women to the races in Marshfield yesterday afternoon and it is expected that a correspondingly large number will be present this afternoon. It has been a well-known fact that the Coos Bay women have been about the best patrons of baseball here but that they were equal admirers of racing was a happy surprise to the horsemen. Not only are they admirers but they proved to be good judges of animals as a few young men discovered yesterday.

There is a well defined rumor afloat that two Coos Bay school-ma'ams, who have been teaching at not far distant places will soon graduate from Cupid's college with diplomas for life. A Roseburg minister's son is mentioned as one of the favored and the long and short of the other story is that it is a very tall man and the girl—well, she is not so tall. No prizes are offered for successful guessers.

The marriage of Frank M. Stewart and Miss Jessie B. Merrill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Dean Wednesday evening came as a decided surprise to the friends of the couple. Only close relatives were in attendance. Mr. Stewart is proprietor of the Coos Bay Monumental Works and the bride is a well-known Coos Bay young lady, being a daughter of Mrs. L. White and a sister of Mrs. George Dean and Mrs. H. O. Pratt. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. D. W. Thurston of the First Baptist church. The couple immediately went to their new home and have been the recipients of felicitations from a host of friends.

Miss Miriam Van Waters of Portland, who is a guest of Miss Alice McCormac, is a member of the Sunday staff of the Portland Oregonian and one of the promising young writers of Oregon. She recently completed a postgraduate course in the Oregon University in Eugene, and during her school work found time for many clever magazine articles in addition to her routine work as staff correspondent of the Oregonian. Coos Bay readers are familiar with some of Miss Van Waters work, her description of the manner in which Eugene received the news that the university appropriation carried was given a half page with special illustrations. Miss Van Waters returns to Portland Tuesday.

MISS MARION BOWLER of Boston, Mass., arrived on the Eureka this morning via Portland to spend the summer with her friend, Miss Kaufman.

MARSHFIELD, OREGON

July 1st, 1908

I have purchased the stock of the Pioneer Hardware Company, Marshfield, Oregon, formerly owned by Eugene O'Connell, E. K. Jones, and others, and have assumed management and control of same. It will be my earnest endeavor to please all my customers in the way of good goods, low prices and courteous treatment.

My long experience in the retail business in your community, as well as my late experience as salesman on the road for Baker & Hamilton, of San Francisco, combined with my vast facilities for handling stock, enables me to purchase my goods and place them in your hands at a much lower figure than my competitors.

In order to establish myself and get in touch with the trade, I will, for the first thirty days beginning July 1, 1908, make a special 10 per cent reduction on all cash purchases.

Respectfully yours,
FRANK E. HAGUE, Mgr.
