Worked In Mine.

Robert Marsden, Sr., of Marshfield, was much interested in the report of the explosion in the Maypole coal mine near Wigan, England, this week. He worked in the mine for years until he came to America twenty-one years ago next month. All of his early life was spent at Wigan and he and Mrs. Marsden were married there.

Wedding Licenses.

The following marriage licenses were granted the

M. Taylor, of Bandon. Charles I. Wilcox and Ervie Wallen of this city. George Farrier of Langlois and Mary McKeele of Bandon.

Located at Sellwood.—Word has been received here that the Rev. D. W. Thurston, who recently resigned as pastor of the First Baptist church in Marshfield, has accepted a call from the Baptist church at Sellwood, a suburb of Portland.

Improve Corner.—Clay Moore and Robert Marsden, Jr., are greatly improving the appearances of the corner of Front and 'B' streets by giving the exterior of their places of business a coat of paint. Just the first story is being painted, but it is working a transformation in the appearance of the place.

Road Is Changed.—Cloudy Surveyor Gould and Viewers Griffin and McKay are at work on the old Coos Wagon road between Dora and Fairview. They expect to relocate most of the old road and put it on a better grade. As the work will take them several weeks they will camp out along the road.

School Directors Meet.—A large number of school directors met at Myrtle Point yesterday to discuss the welfare of the public schools of the county. It was stated that more than one-half of the directors in the county were present. State Superintendent J. H. Ackerman, and County Superintendent Bunch met with them. It is proposed to hold regular meetings of the directors in the future.

Many Hear Impersonator.—A fair sized audience greeted W. Eugene Knox, the impersonator, at the I. O. O. F. Hall Thursday evening and were delighted with the entertainment. Mr. Knox was introduced by R. A. Copple who had arranged the entertainment under the auspices of the W. O. W. lodge. The numerous other entertainments detracted from the attendance and the event was worthy of a much larger audience than enjoyed it.

HARRY McKEOWN arrived yesterday from Hibbing, Minn., to look over the Coos Bay country, which is to be his future home. He is a partner of E. D. LaChance of Hibbing and the two have made a long term lease of the new $75,000 Chandler hotel, which is under construction here. Mr. McKeown is an old friend of A. H. Powers and Jake Goldie. He is much pleased with the prospects and says that Coos Bay is a better place than Mr. LaChance pictured to him. They are in readiness to come here just as soon as the hotel can be completed.
