DIARRHOEA

There is no need of anyone suffering long with this disease, for to effect a quick cure it is only necessary to take a few doses of

Chamierlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy

In fact, in most cases one dose is sufficient. It never fails and can be relied upon in its most severe and dangerous cases. It is equally valuable for children and is the means of saving the lives of many children each year.
In the world's hurry no medicine has ever met with greater success.

thus, who has made considerable money on Portland real estate, left Wednesday night for Coos Bay to enjoy an outing and look into property at Marshfield and North Bend. He sails by the Breakwater."

New Sills For Building.—When the old sidewalk along J. W. Bennett's building at the northwest corner of Front and 'B' streets was removed, it was found that the sills were badly decayed. New and heavier sills are being put in on the piling foundation.

Al. Waterman to Nevada.—In a business letter to The Times, Al. H. Waterman, the well-known traveling man, requests the change of the address of his paper from Aberdeen, Washington to Reno, Nevada, where he is to be located for a time. Al's many friends will wish that he may locate a gold mine in that land of fortune.

Buys Race Horse.—It is announced that John Herron has bought Teddy, the galloper, from O. J. Seeley of Coquille. Teddy together with Mr. Herron's other two horses, Dr. Rowell and Creserton, will run in the state fair races at Salem. Perry Mauzey and Bobbie Wilson will ride them. Mr. Herron will also go over.

Bandon Couple Remarry.—At the Methodist parsonage on Thursday, at 8 p. m., Russell A. Kent of Bandon, and Mrs. Nora A. Kent of Bandon were married, the Rev. W. R. F. Browne, pastor of the church, officiating. The couple were divorced some time ago but have decided that their separation was a mistake. Mr. Kent operates a launch on the Coquille.

Many Go to Picnic.—A large number are planning to attend the Labor Day picnic and celebration at North Bend Monday. The parties in charge have arranged an entertaining program covering the entire day and winding up with a dance in the evening. The day has been set aside as a holiday and will probably be generally observed by the local mills and factories.

Mrs. Mingus Undergoes Operation.—Mrs. E. Mingus, wife of Dr. E. Mingus, is rapidly recovering from an operation which she underwent on account of an injury to her wrist sustained in a runaway several weeks ago. She did not take any anaesthetic. While the operation will deprive her of the use of her left hand for some days, she has not been laid up by it.

Must Undergo Operation.—Frank Riebe who sustained a fractured limb in the railway drawbridge accident near the depot a few weeks ago will undergo an operation Sunday. It seems that the fracture was not reduced so as to heal properly and it has been decided to attend to it at once. That the operation will be successful and eliminate the danger of any permanent ill-effects is earnestly wished by Mr. Riebe's many friends.

W. O. McCann Cleans Paving.—Contractor W. O. McCann, who is putting in the bituminous rock paving in Marshfield has been surprising his friends by personally keeping the new pavement on Front street clean. With a large street brush, he goes over the paving almost daily and sweeps off the dirt and refuse, making the street neat and clean. If Marshfield citizens generally would take a similar interest, it wouldn't be necessary to have cleanup days semi-occasionally. Mr. McCann is doing the work voluntarily, merely to set an example and to show how easily things can be kept looking well.
