The policy of the Coos Bay Times will be Republican in politics, with the independence of which President Roosevelt is the leading exponent.

TEN REASONS WHY YOU SHOULD TRADE WITH COOS BAY MERCHANTS.

- Because: You examine your purchase and are assured of satisfaction before investing your money. Because: Your home merchant is always ready and willing to make right any error or any defective article purchased of him. Because: When you are sick or for any reason it is necessary for you to ask for credit, you can go to the local merchant. ... Because: The mail order merchant does not lighten your tax or in any way help the value of your property. ... Because: If your town is good enough to live in it is good enough to spend your money in. ... Because: The best citizens in your community patronize home industry. ... Because: If you will give your home merchant an opportunity to compete, by bringing your order to him in quantities you buy out of town, he will demonstrate that, quality considered, he will save you money.

DON'T KNOCK—IT'S A FOOL'S GAME.

Some one said to the writer the other day: "Why don't you go after the real estate men. They are hurting the country." Continuing he said: "If a stranger goes to Smith and asks Smith to show him a farm or a lot or business property and the same does not suit and the stranger does not buy from Smith, the stranger never gets away without hearing an awful roast for the property listed and for sale by every other real estate man. If Brown or Jones or some other fellow first gets the stranger the story is the same. Every man in the business is doing the same thing. To the last man each is trying to beat the other fellow out of a sale and as a result the whole country is getting a black eye in the minds of many people who are looking for locations."

If Coos Bay is harboring any such peanut vendors of real estate there is not much use of going after them, for they are impervious to reason or appeals to patriotism. It is to be hoped that the man who thus libels the real estate dealer is misinformed. No class of men come in contact with more seekers of new homes than the land men and they should be broad enough to realize the necessity of boosting the country even though they do not sell every prospective customer they meet. If some one in Coos Bay or in the Coquille valley sells a farm to every newcomer every piece of land in the Bay or Valley will in time feel the stimulus given by an active and rising market. Knocking never sold anything, never boosted values or made anybody rich or happy and if it is being practiced here we should have a reform or a new brand of real estate salesmanship. Probably however, reports of its prevalence are exaggerated.

"Maids from Alaska" are not CHILLY propositions. They will give you a WARM welcome at the Masonic Opera House, FRIDAY night, October 23.

WITH THE TOAST AND TEA

GOOD EVENING.

Nothing but harmony, honest industry, and frugality are necessary to make us a great nation.

GEO. WASHINGTON.

When You Are Gone. The sun will rise and set the same, Men will work and strive for fame, Forgotten soon will be your name, When you are gone.

Flowers will blossom in the spring, And silvery wood notes loudly ring, As feathered warblers sweetly sing, When you are gone.

Friends will grieve about your bier, And on your grave will drop a tear, You'll be forgotten in a year, When you are gone.

Above you ever and anon, Will pass the long years, one by one, Remorseless time sweep on and on, When you are gone.

And millions yet will follow thee, Gray age, glad youth and infancy, Will join you in eternity, When you are gone.

The cradle, coffin, and the grave, Will hold alike the king and slave, The proud, the humble, and the brave, When you are gone.

Age will mourn, and youth will laugh, One-half will give the other half A tear, a tomb, an epitaph, When you are gone.

It is easy to join in the shouting after the victory is won.

IT IS NOT EASY.

- To apologize. To begin over. To be unselfish. To take advice. To admit error. To be charitable. To keep on trying. To be considerate. To avoid mistakes. To endure success. To be a clean man. To obey conscience. To keep out of ruts. To profit by mistakes. To think and then act. To forgive and forget. To make the best of little. To subdue an unruly temper. To maintain a high standard. To despise underhandedness. To shoulder a deserved blame. To recognize the silver lining. To accept just rebuke gracefully. To smile in the face of adversity. To value character above reputation. To discriminate between sham and real. BUT IT ALWAYS PAYS

NAME COMMITTEE TO GO TO ROSEBURG

Chamber of Commerce Selects Col. Grimes, I. S. Kaufman and F. H. Clark to Represent Coos Bay.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, Col. W. M. Grimes, I. S. Kaufman and Francis H. Clark were named as a committee to represent Marshfield at the meeting of the Oregon-Idaho Development Congress in Roseburg. Mr. Clark is now in Portland and has been wired to go from there. Col. Grimes is expected back from Ten Mile today and will probably leave tomorrow for Roseburg. Mr. Kaufman has not been feeling well and Walter Lyon may be sent in his place.

The Oregon-Idaho Development congress will have an important session there and will probably pass on a number of matters that will be of vital interest to Coos Bay so that it is highly important that Coos Bay be represented there.

"MAIDS FROM ALASKA" will arrive at Masonic Opera House Friday night, October 23.

Malthoid Roofing

H. D. Richards, General Mgr. Orleans Gold Bar Mining Co., of Orleans, Cal., U. S. A., writes: "Within 20 feet of the burning building was our implement house, full of machinery. This house was covered with Malthoid. The heat was intense and scorched the building, but, with a small hose, the building was saved and I attribute it to the Malthoid. Shakes and shingles are not in it with Malthoid."
