County Seat News As Told By The Herald.
In Coquille, Dec. 28, a daughter was born to Chas. Mathison and wife.
E. A. Howey and his son, Leland, will start for Corvallis tomorrow, where Leland will begin a course at the Oregon Agricultural College.

The Coquille football team journeyed to Bandon on Christmas Day where they did up the seaside team by a score of 15 to a goose-egg. There will be a return game played in this city on New Year's Day.
W. B. Avery sold his interest in the McAdams blacksmith shop last week to his partner, S. H. McAdams. Mr. Avery is endeavoring to get possession of the old Sleeper shop on Second street.

The regular annual meeting of the Coquille Valley Fruit Growers Association will be held in Myrtle Point on Wednesday, January 6. A new board of directors and a new set of officers are to be chosen.
O. A. Kelly of Riverton, was in town Saturday, the first time for several days, and moved about with some difficulty, having gotten a fall down the stairs of his home 12 days previous, receiving severe bruises about the head and shoulders.

Our local contemporary, the Coquille Sentinel, has undergone another change of management, in that Rex Large retires from the paper, transferring his interest in the lease to his partner, J. C. Savage.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jess have rented their farm near Johnson's mill and last Monday started for Mountainview, California, with hopes of the change benefitting Mrs. Jess' health.

C. A. Peterson, Jr., of Riverton, was up the last of the week and informs us that he and Herbert Adams are getting along very nicely with their mine, having reached a stage of development which places them in a position to put 50 to 75 tons of coal daily. It is to be hoped that shipping facilities will be obtainable and that such an output may be maintained in the near future. Their coal is of excellent quality.
