Wind, Northwest; clear.

BIRTHS.
TIMMERMAN — To Mr. and Mrs. Max Timmerman at the home of Mrs. Timmerman's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Barzee, in North Bend, July 2, a son.
RUSSELL—To Mr. and Mrs. Willard Russell of North Bend, a daughter Wednesday, July 8, 1909. Mother and child are doing nicely and Papa Russell is as proud as a prize winner at a county fair.

Eureka Arrives.—The Eureka arrived this morning at 5 o'clock and sails this afternoon at 2 o'clock for Eureka.
Build Addition.—The hall at Sumner is being enlarged by the erection of an addition that was made necessary by the increasing crowds that attend entertainments there.

Mrs. Chase Honored.—Mrs. Chase, wife of Senator W. C. Chase of this city, was elected Grand Chief of Pythian Sisters at the state convention held at Pendleton lately.—Coquille Herald.

New Bus.—The Chandler received a handsome new bus on the Breakwater that will be placed in immediate commission. It is the first rubber tired bus in Coos county and was ordered through O. O. Lund.

Rebuild Line.—The telephone line on South Coos River is being reconstructed, a copper wire replacing the old one. It was first proposed to put in a double line but was found to be too expensive. The North Fork line will be connected up within a few days.

Inspect Roads.—Judge Hall and the county commissioners expect to start in on the annual inspection of roads in the northern and western part of the county next week. It is expected that the quarterly session of the county commissioners will close Saturday.

Porter Mill Resumes.—The Porter mill in Old North Bend resumed operations this morning after several days shut down. The electric power plant in North Bend will also be started today and the current sent from there instead of the Marshfield plant.

Probes Charges.—Deputy Prosecuting Attorney L. A. Liljeqvist of Coquille, is in Curry county this week investigating charges of fraud in connection with some land deals in that section recently. It is expected that the matter will be taken up by the grand jury at an early date.

Married Here.—Matti Rankila and Miss Hilma Seilna Peikkala, both of Ten Mile, were married at the Lutheran parsonage in Marshfield yesterday, the Rev. B. F. Bengtson officiating. The bride is the step daughter of John Shutter, a well-known Ten Mile rancher. They will reside at Ten Mile.

Making Improvements.—Carpenters began work today on some important alterations and additions to the Hub Clothing and Shoe Co.'s store made necessary by increasing business. A partition is being removed and additional shelves being installed to provide for a larger stock and give more room for doing business.

Enjoy Picnic.—The members of the Ladies Art Club are enjoying a picnic at Eastside today.

Entertains Firemen.—The members of the Marshfield Fire Department were treated to a spread at Corthell's Delicatessen last evening. Refreshments were served and the fire boys went away more than thankful to Mrs. Corthell for her kindness.

Hurt By Auto.—According to the Humboldt Beacon, published at Fortuna, Cal., T. J. Godfrey, well-known in this section, recently had quite an accident with his automobile. It appears that the steering gear broke and the machine went over a grade and 125 feet to the bottom of a gulch. Mr. Godfrey was not seriously hurt.—Coquille Herald.

Suckers Numerous.—Jay Tower returned last evening from South Coos River where he has been fishing for a few days. He says that he never saw so many big suckers in South Coos River as he did on this trip. The fish were voracious, going in among the mossy rocks on the bank of the river to feed on worms. They kept their heads above water, offering fine targets.

Think It Dynamite.—M. E. Maguire, father of the lad whose hand was badly injured by a dynamite explosion yesterday, thinks that it was a regular dynamite cap instead of a "dynamite cane" cap. He says that he was informed that some boys had stolen some dynamite caps from a warehouse and he thinks that one of these was given to the boy. The lad is getting as well as could be expected.

Is Arrested.—A warrant was issued by City Recorder Butler today for the arrest of James Cox of South Marshfield, for tapping a sewer without a permit. City Plumbing Inspector Turpen preferred the charges. The city ordinance specifies that sewers can only be tapped by a regularly licensed plumber. Mr. Cox started to do the work himself, saving the expense of engaging a plumber. Other property owners along Bains street were indignant but when shown the city ordinance by Turpen that there was no alternative for him except to enforce it, the discussion ended.

Salvation Army Service.—Colonel Jenkins of the Salvation Army, who is the chief officer of this organization for the states of Oregon, Washington, Montana, Wyoming and Idaho assisted by Major Faulkner, Adjutants Storer and Whitney, will conduct the Sunday morning service in the Baptist church commencing at 11 a. m. At 3 p. m. Sunday, in the same church there will be a United Christian Praise service to which all people are invited and the pastors and members of all the Marshfield churches are being approached with a view of making this a grand united rally. There will be special music and singing and unusually entertaining services will be assured.
