WEATHER FORECAST
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Occasional rain tonight and Sunday; cooler.

BORN.

LEE—To Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Lee at their home in West Marshfield, Friday, September 24, a nine-pound baby boy. Mother and child are doing nicely, the father is happy and "Uncle" L. E. Bliven thinks he should share in the general congratulations.

Is Very Ill—Mrs. J. A. O'Kelly, who has been ill at Mercy hospital the past week, is reported in critical condition for the past forty-eight hours.

Zomoak Was Second—Zomoak, F. P. Norton's entry, was second in Wednesday's races at Portland, sharing in the $500 purse. Dan Starr was the driver.

Evans to Resign—It is announced that W. P. Evans will shortly resign as president of the North Bend Chamber of Commerce. He says that his private business and his duties on the Port Commission will not permit him to give the time to the body that it requires. His resignation will probably be tendered in a week or so, just as soon as the club's affairs terminate.

Case Is Settled—The suit of Chas. Erickson vs. C. C. Russell, which was to have been tried in Justice Pennock's court before a jury yesterday afternoon, was settled just when the trial was about to open. Mr. Russell paid $150 rent, about one-half what Erickson claimed, and each agreed to pay one-half the costs.

Rev. Douglas' View—When Rev. Douglas was sent concerning the report of his moving to Marshfield, he stated that it was all a mistake and that he intended to remain with the congregation in this city. He also stated that he had been in Marshfield to look over the field but had decided that the field was broader and could work to better advantage among his flock in this city.—Albany Herald.

Gets Big Trout—D. Y. Stafford returned last evening from his fishing excursion to South Coos River and while he wasn't laden with fish, he saw Major Tower of Empire, land a five-pound trout, one of the best that has been caught there this season.

Railway Rumors—"Have you seen Johnson Porter?" This is the inquiry that a dozen made this morning of The Times reporter as he made the rounds. No, he hadn't met Johnson Porter and neither had they but someone said he was in town. If he was in the city, he succeeded pretty well in concealing his identity. Sometime ago, Porter Brothers, who are building the Hill line down the Deschutes promised to send someone to Coos Bay but so far he has not presented any credentials to local parties.

SHOWS LATE STYLES.

Representative of Well-Known Portland House Arrives on Coos Bay
Mrs. O. F. Tipton of Portland, who has made a number of trips to Coos Bay and has come to be recognized as the representative of the latest styles in fashionable ladies' garments, is now at the Ladies Emporium where she will remain for a week with a very complete line of women's tailored suits, coats, opera coats and capes, skirts, raincoats, waists and French undermuslins from the well-known Portland house of Olds, Wortman & King. A cordial invitation is extended to the ladies to call and inspect the handsome and stylish garments she has to show.

TOWN DOG DEAD.

The Bandon Recorder says: "The town dog 'Duffy' has passed away, the cause of his death presumably being old age. He was owned by Frank Blackerby, but everybody in town had a claim on him. He could do most anything that any ordinary man could. He could play ball like a professional, and was a great favorite around the berg. The end came last Friday morning, and everybody was sad. Duffy was given a decent burial and a base ball and the colors of the Bandon ball team were laid in the casket with him. May he rest in peace is the wish of all."

NORTH BEND NEWS

The Redondo arrived today from San Pedro.

J. A. Allen this week assumed possession of the North Bend News Company.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clarey have gone to Ten Mile where they will spend their honeymoon.

Road supervisor Grout, who was injured on South Inlet a few weeks ago, is improving rapidly.

Mrs. J. Conklin and children of South Inlet, are visiting at the home of Ed. Conklin in North Bend.

E. W. Fahy and wife of Bullards, write that their little daughter was almost stung to death by hornets last week. She is now recovering.

Dr. Geo. Hollister has succeeded Dr. R. G. Gale in the firm of Gale & Bartle. Dr. Gale will leave shortly for Jacksonville, Ore., where he will spend a year recuperating.

Mrs. N. C. Wood of Grants Pass, has been elected teacher of the eighth grade in the North Bend schools and will assume charge next Monday. Emil Peterson has been elected instructor for the special room opened for the older pupils who are not sufficiently advanced in their studies to be classed with students of near their age.

The Teachers' and Mothers' Club met at the Central school yesterday afternoon. Mrs. E. E. Everett and Mrs. Mende were appointed a committee to prepare nominations for the annual election of officers on October 15. There was an instrumental duet by Misses Edith Raab and Helen Mende. Rev. J. C. Lininger delivered an address on "The Evils of the Cigarette."

HAVE LOG ROLLING.

Calling Off Carnival Doesn't Affect W. O. W. Doings.

The calling off of the proposed carnival in Marshfield the first week in October will not interfere with the big W. O. W. log rolling here when a large class of candidates will be initiated by the Portland degree team and Head Consul Boak will visit this section. The W. O. W. was anxious to have the carnival, offering $400 towards it but others failed to come through and the promoters had to drop it. October 5 is the date set for the big log rolling, and Special Organizer Smith, who has been working in this section, says it will be the greatest thing of the kind ever pulled off in this county.

ALONG THE WATER FRONT.

The M. F. Plant will not sail from San Francisco until 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, a day late to pick up freight. She will not sail from here for Frisco until Wednesday.

The Fifield came up from Bandon and is finishing her cargo at the Railroad docks. She will sail in the morning for San Francisco with passengers and freight.

The Redondo, the Simpson Lumber Company's steam schooner, came in early this morning from San Pedro. She will load at once with lumber for San Francisco.

The tug Hercules is reported to have reached Bandon yesterday to tow the steamer Bandon to San Francisco where she will be put on the dry dock to undergo repairs for the damage sustained in the recent accident. The Bandon will carry a cargo of lumber down.

The Esther Buhne will not complete her cargo for several days yet, most of the Johnson mill output being taken by the Czarina and Fifield. The Esther Buhne has eleven cars aboard out of the thirty-two carloads that she carries. The Johnson Mill Company owns the controlling interest in the Esther Buhne.
