MARSHFIELD OREGON

TATTLE OF THE TOWN

WEATHER FORECAST.
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Fair tonight and Tuesday.

New Rooming House.—Herman Krueger has rented the rooms over The Times office and will open a rooming house.

Council Tuesday.—The Marshfield city council will meet Tuesday night to take up some street improvement projects and other matters.

Kill Buck.—Billy Cox yesterday killed a fine buck in the woods back of Isthmus Slough. With him were Charley Hickox, Chas. Hunter and Mr. Kronholm.

Milk Is Higher.—The price of milk has advanced to seven cents per quart by local milkmen who are delivering it around the city. It has been selling for six cents. Scarcity of milk is assigned as the cause.

C. C. Going Injured.—C. C. Going of Goring & Harvey sustained a painful if not serious injury by running a nail into his left foot while at work in the store Saturday. Apart from suffering considerable pain and being laid up for a few days, no serious consequences are anticipated.

Gage Returns.—In the list of hotel arrivals at Roseburg Saturday is the name of Sheriff W. W. Gage. Whether Mr. Gage recaptured "Coon Skin Charlie" Neal, who made his escape near Pendleton while the sheriff was bringing him back from Idaho, is not known, but it is presumed that if he did not he would not be returning so quickly.

Gets Stray Cow.—After having been awakened a half-dozen times during the night, E. S. Bargelt arose about 3 o'clock this morning to ascertain who or what the marauder was. He finally rounded up a stray cow and had the telephone girl call the nightwatch to put her in the pond. Mr. Bargelt may begin action for damages for loss of sleep if he can ascertain the owner of the sleepless bovine.

Gow Why Sues.—Gow Why has sued Frank Riebe for $40 for rent which he claims is due him for the building next to the Alliance office that Mr. Riebe occupied for a time. Mr. Riebe claims that he paid Gow Why in full, taking into consideration improvements, that he made in the building. Gow claims he didn't authorize the improvements and does not want to allow for them. The case is to be threshed out before a jury in Justice Pennock's court this afternoon.

FOR BETTER STATISTICS.

THERE IS NO better criterion of municipal progress than a comprehensive system of building statistics. More than any other line of development operations in real estate and improvement thereon are under regulation and are susceptible to record. To these the intending capitalist and settler both look for information as to the place which they expect to aid in its progress. Active movement of real property and consistent and conservative improvement upon it are the index par excellence of a town's solidity.

In Marshfield we are confronted by an almost total absence of information on these two points. Nominal valuations in real estate transfers are the rule rather than the exception and in the building line no material facts are required of the applicant for a permit. The first difficulty is irremediable this side of the state legislature, but the second is under the control of the city council and individual members of that body are understood to be willing to provide by ordinance for a system of statistics which will blaze forth the growth of the city. It is a work worth while.

Some people offer dollars for sale at a dollar and a quarter, and then complain because advertising does not pay.
