

DOLLARS RAIN FROM WINDOW

PACKAGE OF $100 BILLS THROWN FROM UPPER STORY OF ATLANTA HOTEL CAUSES GREAT FLURRY.

ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 13.—Seized with a sudden spirit of unprecedented generosity, some unknown philanthropist, whose modesty seems to be as great as his charity, pitched an unbroken package of 100 $1 bills from a window in the New Kimball shortly after 3:30 o'clock.

The package of money, containing fresh, crisp $1 bills, fell on a passing Decatur street car, and like a shower of sparks from a freshly lighted Roman candle, flew thick and fast in all directions on the corner of Pryor and Decatur streets.

Little newsboys, fruit vendors, tramps, bootblacks and even desirable citizens dazed at first by the shower of currency, rushed with one accord out in the street and began to pick up greenbacks, thinking at the time that the blessing given the children of Israel in the wilderness when the manna fell from the skies, was repeating itself in more substantial shape.

One little newsie is said to have picked up a bunch of the bills, amounting to $15, and scampered away. Others secured one, two, five and even seven.

The scramble was in full blast, when suddenly a tall gentleman, dressed in an immaculate suit rushed out in the street. No, he was not the philanthropist who had come to see that the distribution should be equal.

The crowd paused in the mad scramble while the tall gentleman whispered hurriedly to Patrolman W. H. Bostwick, who had been attracted by the crowd.

"It's all a mistake," the crowd heard the immaculate one whisper. "Accidentally knocked out. Belongs to a friend of mine up there," pointing with his finger.

Then the policeman helped the tall gentleman to gather in the money. Some state that he received $11 back, and others say that he secured $20, but all agreed that the unknown philanthropist was a "mighty fine guy."

Upon hearing Patrolman Bostwick say that the package fell on the street car before striking the ground, the tall gentleman hurried in pursuit of the car, which was just starting off after the excitement. It was discovered, however, that the package made a clean break and the bills had scattered clear of the car in every direction.

HENS ACT AS HIS WIRELESS SYSTEM

WINSTEAD, Conn., Dec. 11.—One year ago, when a neighbor's chickens scratched up his garden and ate his tomatoes, C. D. Miles of Great Barrington, paid a lawyer to write a warning letter to the poultry owner.

When he saw his garden truck being ruined the same way this week he sent messages in a novel way. He took some corn, and to each kernel tied a string with a tag bearing the words: "Keep this chicken at home." The chickens took the corn, and being unable to swallow string and tag, went away with the notes.

HUBBY WANTED 40 KISSES EACH DAY

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., Dec. 13.—Declaring that 40 times a day is more kissing than even a woman can stand, the police judge of this city recommended that Edward Schneider and his wife seek separation. Schneider first had his wife arrested because she only allowed him 20 kisses a day, when for years he said he was getting 40.

Later, Mrs. Schneider had Schneider in court, charging that he threatened to kill her when she refused to allow him the 40 kisses. The court dismissed the case after advising the couple to break away for good.

Christmas Presents

FOR FATHER

"Why aren't there more Christmas gifts that are appropriate for men?" and "Are there any novel presents so the stereotyped collar box, hat brush or stickpin will not have to be given this Christmas?" are questions often heard at this season of the year, particularly by women who do fancy work. And for once the answer may be that there is at least one attractive gift that an ingenious woman who is clever with carpenter's tools can make. This present is a novel pipe rack. To make the rack procure four boards from a carpenter—two eighteen inches long by six inches wide and two eighteen inches long by five inches wide. In one of the latter pieces get a carpenter to bore four holes three-eighths of an inch in diameter and running lengthwise in the board. The two end holes are four inches from the ends of the board, and all of the holes are two and a half inches apart. The two larger boards are joined together by means of braces, which screw on the backs with very small screws. Five inches from the top of the longer side is fastened the board with the holes in it, so that it makes a shelf on the first piece. Then, five inches below this, is fastened the other board in the same manner as the first—by means of screws from the back. The rack is finished as far as the carpentering goes. The upper shelf is for the pipes, the holes being made for them to rest in, while the lower shelf is for tobacco boxes, matches, etc.

The next thing is to stain it the popular mission color. Then get screw eyes and put them on the back, and through these put picture wire to hang it by. The hardest thing is to print above the first shelf, "A Man's Best Friend." Paint the letters with gold paint, which sets off the dark color of the wood and gives the rack a finished, decorative appearance.

Gift For the Golfer.

For the use of the up to date father the golf score and change purse combined makes a desirable present. This is fashioned of dark brown suede kid, the back being stiffened by means of a piece of cardboard. Either buttons or buttonholes and the snappers that are used for gloves can be utilized for the clasps. A loop at the top is useful to pass over the belt, while the miniature golf stick is a toy fastened on by silk cord.

GOLF SCORE AND CHANGE PURSE

A Tobacco Pouch.

When wife or daughter makes a tobacco pouch for the father he's always delighted. A pretty pouch in rich brown or dark green, lined with a maroon silk, would be attractive when the edges are pinked and a drawstring of heavy silk with long tassels run in near the top. It's not the kid, the lining or the cord that makes these bags so unusual, for without the monogram or crest done in gilt thread or in bright colored silks the pouches, aside from being handmade, would be quite the same as those bought in the shops. But with an attractive emblem or two or three initials prettily embroidered in one corner the pouches are presents any man, no matter how surfeited with gifts, would be glad to receive at Christmas.

Not New but Well Liked Present. Knitted or crocheted ties, though not novelties, will be desirable gifts, for they are serviceable and, being made by hand, are valuable accessories to any wardrobe. In plain green, dark cardinal or made of a combination of two tone effects or of two strongly contrasting colors, such as black and red or orange and blue, they are striking contrasts as neckwear.

The Ever Useful Shaving Case. An attractive gift for a man is a shaving case. This is composed of white tissue paper cut to the proper size, while the outside case of blue linen, with the seams outlined in white silk, is in the shape of a football. The top is fastened with inch wide satin ribbon of any color.

A Christmas Present. It is not often that one can find a suitable gift for an elderly man whose eyes are weak. A reading glass of the new kind, with a handle and a leather case, would be acceptable. The person in doubt should experiment with this as a Christmas gift this year.

Christmas Presents

FOR MOTHER

The searcher after Christmas novelties will find nothing more charming than the doll workbags and dainty little gifts made from silks and old world brocades. These novelties unmistakably proclaim their Parisian origin, and, like most importations from the French capital, they are expensive. But from a description of some of these charming trifles their home manufacture is not difficult. Most attractive is a doll workbag. The head of a pretty wax doll, the size of which depends, of course, upon the size of the workbag you wish to make, is purchased. A quaint coal scuttle bonnet of flowered silk is fashioned for the doll's head, which ties in a full bow under the chin. Pieces of buckram standing out to form shoulders is next arranged about the doll's neck, and over this is fitted an old fashioned flutu of silk edged with puffings of the same. This dressed up head forms the top of the bag, the bag itself being a scanty skirt of silk trimmed with flosses in 1830 style. At the top of the skirt is the usual drawstring, which is run through the top of the doll's head and forms a sliding scale in which the bag is opened or closed.

A New Laundry Bag.

Here is a laundry bag that cannot elusively conceal in its depths any small article. This new bag is very simple in construction. It is a square of a yard or more of any material that is strong enough for the purpose. Bright cretonne is very good. This square is hemmed and each corner turned back half an inch. On each of the blunted corners thus made is sewed a loop of tape four inches long. Smaller bags can be made in the same way.

Silk Flower Vase.

Vases covered with brocaded silk are the newest things out for holding flowers, and the idea is to have three of these holders arranged together.

SILK FLOWER HOLDER

The Doll Blotter. Reminiscent of days long ago is a little "lady" fashioned from cardboard whose prosaic mission is to serve as a blotter. The face and figure are painted in water colors, the paunier-like drapery being made of purple blotting paper fastened with tiny brass headed tacks. This decorative desk adjunct costs $1.50.

OLD SAINT NICK

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dizziness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.

Kodol supplies this natural means. It performs the stomach's work for it—just as the stomach should perform it—while the stomach takes a little rest, "for the stomach's sake."

Go to your druggist today and get a dollar bottle. Then after you have used the entire contents of the bottle if you can honestly say, that it has not done you any good, return the bottle to the druggist and he will refund your money without question or delay. We will then pay the druggist for the bottle. Don't hesitate, all druggists know that our guarantee is good. This offer applies to the large bottle only and to but one in a family. The large bottle contains 24 times as much as the fifty cent bottle.

Kodol is prepared at the laboratories of E. C. DeWitt & Co., Chicago.
