

TEN RESOLUTIONS FOR 1910

- First—
WE WILL employ a perfect system for the operation of our business to the entire satisfaction of our trade.
- Second—
WE WILL give all the goods which we can to the trade for every dollar invested in our store.
- Third—
WE WILL employ first class, high grade, well paid, competent employees from the manager down.
- Fourth—
WE WILL insist that our salesmen wait upon trade when they go to our store promptly, politely and pleasantly, whether you buy or visit and the public is always welcome in either case.
- Fifth—
WE WILL appreciate it and thank our trade to report any inattention on the part of our employes, or in fact, any business matters which are not just exactly as they should be.
- Sixth—
WE WILL be in a position to give our trade better satisfaction if you will assist us to make matters right by telling us your complaints so that we may rectify and adjust them to our mutual benefit.
- Seventh—
WE WILL in the future as in the past, consider the public first, our employes next and ourselves last.
- Eighth—
WE WILL, beginning January 1st, commence the issuance of weekly special sales in some one of our lines of merchandise. Our object in doing this is to stimulate trade in all our lines and keep goods moving. Watch for these sales.
- Ninth—
WE WILL continue to sell our goods as reasonable as any of our competitors, quality considered. Our motto is "Quick Sales and Small Profits."
- Tenth—
WE WILL assure the public that our store is a business place with a system and a visit to our establishment will convince the most skeptical that the store with a system is the place to trade.

FINANCES OF COMMISSION

Treasurer Gray of Port of Coos Bay Makes First Annual Statement.

Owing to an omission in the first annual report of Treasurer J. C. Gray of the Port of Coos Bay Commission in The Times Thursday, the report is republished in full today. The omission resulted from Mr. Gray writing on both sides of the paper (an absolutely forbidden proceeding in a newspaper office). The expenditures on one side of the sheet were not set by the compositor who was accustomed to following the regular newspaper copy. It was also overlooked by the proofreader. However, the report in full is as follows:
