HOW TO BEAUTIFY MARSHFIELD.

PETHE TIMES is pleased with the announcement that the A. N. W. Club is about to inaugurate another campaign for the general beautifying of the city. The effective work accomplished by the first an- be present and friends are cordially nual "cleanup day" is remembered with gratitude by all interested in the welfare and appearance of Marsh-

But it must be remembered that the beautifying of a city, like its successful administration depends ultimately upon no particular organization. The A. N. W. Club-can spur us on to a clean-up-day that Johnson.....L. F....W. Graffney will help temporarily, but whether or not the city as a whole is beautiful L. Russell. . . L. G. Michaels or not depends upon its citizens.

And in this direction each resident of Marshfield whether residence has been long or short, has, by the fact, assumed a certain responsibil-

Beauty in this sense is not a purely esthetic or sentimental matter. but has a decided practical value. A $3.00,$3.50,$4.00 front yard ornamented with shrubs and a back yard cleaned of rubbish and decorated with a flower garden or two, not only mean more pleasure to the occupants and passerby but more money to the owner.

By experiments recently carried on in Northhampton, Mass., it was determined that wage-earners' homes with attractive plots of grass and flowers sold for 15 per cent more than those without them. A competition was carried on and prizes given for the best decorated yards in certain districts. The project is said to have been crowned with consplcuous success;

Would not be desirable for the A. N. W. to inaugurate a movement of this description, and in its commendable efforts toward beautifying the city evolve a scheme by which all citizens would naturally take
