club for next season were distributed. They are very handsome ones. The club will have miscellaneous program next year on "A Brief Study of History, Literature and Music." This week's meeting closed the 1909-10 season for the club and it has been one of the most profitable and enjoyable the club has ever had. Next Monday evening at 7 o'clock, the club will hold its annual banquet for the members and their husbands at The Chandler.

Last evening J. W. Bennett entertained Capt. T. J. Macgenn of the Breakwater at dinner at his home and later Mr. Bennett and his guest enjoyed an auto ride to Empire where they visited Mrs. Macgenn and the children.

Tonight, the congregation of the Marshfield Swedish Lutheran church will enjoy an auction and social at their hall. A feature of the auction will be the sale of curios collected by Mrs. Edman.

This afternoon, Mrs. A. E. Neff, assisted by Mrs. J. T. Harrigan, is entertaining a number of little folks at the Neff home in honor of the sixth birthday of Master Emmerson Neff. The dining room was prettily decorated in white roses and carnations for the bountiful luncheon served the little ones, following a most pleasant series of games. Among those invited were the following:

Duncan Scaffe, Esther Sullivan, Buster Sullivan, Win Kreitzer, Bess, Alice, Helen and Florence Flanagan, Edna Rees, Helen Rees, Blanche, Edna and Francis Mirrason, Gordon Shelly, Julius Matson, Helen Merchant, Tom and Eugene Crosthwait, Lolita Sleep, of North Bend, Marlon Horsfall, Eugene Jones, Jane and Lucile McLean.

The members and friends of the Epworth League of the Methodist church, gathered in the church parlors last Friday evening for their regular monthly business meeting, with Arthur Drews, president of the society in the chair. After the various reports were read and approved, six new members were admitted. The business session was an unusually long one and ended with an enjoyable social time at the parsonage. The Fourth Vice-President, Mary Hansen, and her committee having this part of the evening in charge. The new members admitted were Misses May Messerle, Wm. VinCamp, Lizzie Blake, Myrtle Colver, and Frank VinCamp.

Mr. and Mrs. Axel Erickson entertained a large number of friends at their home in Bay Park last Sunday afternoon. An elaborate dinner, consisting of several courses were served.

Mrs. E. Mings and Miss Elizabeth Kaufman are spending today at the Goodwill place on South Coos River.

J. J. Brown and wife and their son Guy Brown and his wife, left by private conveyance this week for Roseburg enroute to their home in Spokane, after a few days stay on Coos Bay. They were greatly pleased with this section. J. J. Brown is a millionaire banker of Spokane.

Last Tuesday, the members of Baker Post, G. A. R. enjoyed a picnic at Crawford's Point. The day was fine and a bountiful lunch was taken and a most delightful time enjoyed. Only a few from Marshfield were able to attend but North Bend and Empire were well represented and the comrades had a delightful visit with each other. At a business meeting, plans for the observance of Memorial Day were made.

Eastside was the scene Friday of a very enjoyable picnic held by the Ladies' Art Club and a few invited guests. After a most bounteous repast had been spread under the trees on the green sward from the overflowing baskets brought by the ladies and partaken of to each individual's satisfaction, various games were indulged in until time for the return to the city. The ladies all report that this picnic was one of the best ever held and they are anxious for another opportunity to spend the day in Eastside's shady nooks.

The North Bend and Marshfield Epworth Leagues enjoyed jointly a moonlight excursion down the Bay on Wednesday evening. There were 86 Leaguers and friends, more than half of them from North Bend, taxing the capacity of the three launches to the limit, who availed themselves of a very pleasant ride on the water in the beautiful moonlight. The party proceeded down the bay to a suitable landing place where they all went ashore, and after a stroll and a romp on the sand, while the bright moon was smiling only as the moon can smile, a nice location was selected, and soon a great bon fire was made whose light vied with that of the moon in making the evening pleasant. Then came the pleasant and agreeable fragrance of coffee cooking while the ladies of the party were busily spreading a delicious luncheon. Then came the most important event of the evening, "A banquet in the moonlight. After the feast which consisted of sandwiches, salads, coffee, cake and fruits, a few brief and interesting talks were made by some of the representative members of the two Leagues which were heartily applauded. The two Leagues unanimously gave Major Kinney a vote of thanks for the many favors and courtesies he extended to them on this occasion which materially added to the success and enjoyment of the evening, as nothing happened to mar the happiness of any one, not even the much talked of calamity attending the passing of Halley's comet.

The Marshfield Dancing Club has issued invitations for a dance to be given at the I. O. O. F. hall this evening. A large number of invitations have been sent out and it is expected that a large crowd will enjoy the hospitality of the young folks.

The Knights of Columbus have issued invitations for a ball to be given next Monday night.

Miss Kathleen Bennett and Mrs. G. A. Bennett who are spending a few weeks in San Francisco write friends that they are having a most delightful stay there. They are stopping at Hotel Merline. They will probably return week after next.

On Sunday afternoon, an automobile party from Coquille visited North Bend. L. H. Hazard in his auto, carried Mrs. Hazard and Miss Florence Atkinson, while Miss Esther Johnson, in her father's new machine carried Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leneve, Miss Emma Sherwood and L. A. Lifeqvist. It is expected that all of the automobiles in the Coquille Valley will come over some Sunday soon and be joined here by the Bay motorists in a trip and picnic near the beach.

Last evening a very delightful dancing party was enjoyed at the I. O. O. F. hall. It was tendered in honor of Miss Florence Roberts of California, who is spending the summer with friends on the Bay. The music was unusually good and the crowd a most congenial one.

Last Thursday evening Miss May Bennett was hostess to a small party at the G. A. Bennett home. It was an informal affair, various diversions contributing to the evening's enjoyment. Refreshments were served. Among her guests were Misses Mamie Mahoney, Genevieve Sengstacken, and Jessie Chase and Messrs. G. A. Brown, Tom Bennett, Jack Merceen and Jay Bassett.

The Chaminade club was entertained Wednesday evening by Mrs. Beatrice Walter at her home in South Marshfield. Previous to the regular rehearsal, papers were read by Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., Miss Evelyn Anderson and Mrs. Walter. Next Monday evening, the club will have a special rehearsal at the home of Miss Anderson and on Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. S. Coke. The club is arranging for a recital to be given at the home of Mrs. Horsfall about May 8, which will conclude the season's program.

The newly organized Pythian Sisters at North Bend entertained the members of the North Bend Knights of Pythias lodge last Wednesday evening at cards and music.

Last Wednesday evening Miss Ida B. Mitchell of the North Bend schools, entertained a few friends at "Comet Watch Party" and a most delightful time was enjoyed. Light refreshments were served. Among those present were Misses Helen and Katherine Mende, Ethel and Amy Reynolds, Nina Stahlnecker, Dinea Gray, May Peterson, Mary Freyer and Ethel Kern.

Mrs. E. W. Kammerer, who is visiting at her home in California writes Mr. Kammerer that she has fully recovered from the slight attack of ill health which was bothering her when she left Coos Bay. The children are getting along fine. They will return about July 1.

A number of young folks will enjoy a launch party to the ranch of Miss Mary Black on Catching Inlet this evening. Among those who will go are Misses Jessie Chase, Genevieve Sengstacken, Mamie Mahoney and

The Woman's Study club this year has taken a correspondence course in Oregon history under Prof. Joseph Schafer. As a fitting ending to the year's work an entertainment was held at the beautiful Nye home to which the pioneers who had been here forty years or more, were included. After a short program the pioneers were called upon for reminiscences and responded to, "What were the early ways of transportation?" "Why did you come here, how did you come here and why did you stay?" "The first churches, the first schools, the Indians and many other interesting topics. Mrs. Ben Figg recited "The Pioneers," a poem most suited to the occasion. After a most enjoyable exchange of memories the pioneers were called out to supper. The table was most beautifully banked with rhododendrons and an early time feast was served consisting of home-made pickles, hot doughnuts, miniature pots of beans and tiny rolls of brown bread, sandwiches and coffee with most delicious cream. Among the pioneers present were: Capt. and Mrs. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Schroeder, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Hersey, Mrs. Figg, Mr. and Mrs. Pike Maury, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Sherwood, Rev. Hollenback, Mrs. Goodman, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Knowlton, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Dimmick, Mr. and Mrs. Paterson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Sinclair, Mrs. W. V. Cope, Jonathan Quiek and Mrs. J. P. Messer.
