LAUNDRY

WE'RE EASY ON LINEN. ONCE, THE STEAM LAUNDRY WAS THE BUTT OF THE FUNNY MAN, BUT THE MOST THOUGHTLESS JOKER KNOWS THAT MODERN LAUNDRING HAS REACHED A POINT FAR IN ADVANCE OF HOME LAUNDRING, EVEN IN THE EASY HANDLING OF LINEN. WE KNOW OF NO LAUNDRY AS HARD UPON CLOTHES AS IS THE HOME SCRUBBING-BOARD, AND WE FURTHER KNOW THAT OUR OWN LAUNDRY HANDLES THE SOFTEST, THINNEST FABRICS IN THE FINEST MANNER POSSIBLE. WE OFFER LAUNDRY IDEALITY. EVER TRIED IT.

THE WEATHER.

(By Associated Press.)

OREGON — Fair to-night; Tuesday fair, except showers in northwest portion; cooler interior west portion; southerly winds.

Elks to Meet.—Marshfield lodge of Elks will meet Wednesday evening to take up important business.

High Elk Coming. — See, George Goodrum of the Marshfield Elks lodge to-day received word that Dr. R. A. F. McKay of Portland, district deputy, will visit the Marshfield lodge Wednesday evening, June 22.—A special meeting will be called for that date and the local lodge will endeavor to give him a royal welcome.

Child Dies.—Georgia Rose Cresor, twenty-two-months-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Cresor, died at their home at South Second and Hall street yesterday morning at 8 o'clock. She had been ailing from birth. The family recently moved here from the State of Washington, and were planning to go to Coquille yesterday, where Mr. Cresor is employed now. The funeral occurred this afternoon at two o'clock. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.

Registration Starts.—Registration for the coming primaries and election opened to-day. Some difficulty is being encountered in registering voters as each voter registering besides making an affidavit must have two Marshfield property owners as witnesses. The property owners as witnesses are not always easily picked up.

Council Tuesday.—The Marshfield city council will meet to-morrow night to take up various city matters, among which will be the question of changing the paving of Elrod avenue from plank to bituminous rock. It is hardly believed that the change can be made now owing to it being so late in the season and that the property owners are said to be far from unanimous for the change.

Weds in Portland.—Mr. Raymond Pettie and Miss Hazel Patges were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Patges at 1948 East Yamhill street, Portland, Saturday evening, June 11. Mr. Pettie formerly resided in Marshfield. About a year ago he went to Renton, Wash., where he engaged in the jewelry business, and at that place the new couple will make their home. Mr. Pettie's brother and sister reside in Marshfield.
