

1776---July 4th---1910

Many changes mark clothing styles since the days of '76. Great advance in methods of making, too.

But the greatest advance over all ordinary methods are the remarkable Clothcraft methods of scientific tailoring. These save so much in cost of making without reducing value that you can get a Clothcraft suit of pure wool—finely tailored, perfect fitting, with lasting shape—at prices you never knew such good clothes could be sold—$10 to $25.

Big change in ordinary selling methods, too, when we give you a signed guarantee that every claim we make for these clothes is true. It's a change that makes clothes buying safe for you.

THE WEATHER.
(By Associated Press.)
OREGON—Showers to-night or Thursday in west, and fair to-night and Thursday in east.

BORN.
McMANAMON.—To Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McManamon of Marshfield, a son.

More Horses Coming.—P. Donnelly's Sister Bess and R. J. Lathrop's Marin, two fast steppers of San Francisco that recently won the 2:20 pace at Tanforan Park in the fast time of 2:17½, are coming on the steamer Elizabeth and have been entered in the Coos Bay races.

Take Up Certificates.—It was rumored to-day that in the near future, the survey certificates held by local parties will be taken up by the backers of the Coos Bay and Boise Railroad. As President Clarke is not making their plans public, no official statement concerning it was secured. All of the bills against the company incurred by the survey have been paid.

young business man of Front street, who made a trip up South Coos River Sunday, was the victim of an accident that upset his boat and gave him an involuntary bath. It might be made sensational as a narrow escape from a fearful death or attempted suicide or—most anything, but regard for his sensibilities protects him. But his friends are not so forbearing and are spreading the news in all quarters.

New Front.—Willey & Schroeder's Front street plumbing shop has been greatly improved by the addition of a plate glass front that gives it a metropolitan appearance.

Is Better.—Dr. E. E. Straw received a telegram this morning stating that Dr. C. W. Tower, who is critically ill in Portland, was slightly improved.

Weds To-Day.—Miss Lucy E. Spoford arrived here to-day from Haverhill, Mass., to meet her fiancé, Stephen Floyd. They went to Coquille where they will be married. Mr. Floyd is a carpenter employed by Ladd and Hunt and came here from Haverhill some time ago.

Horses For Races.—Manager Norton, of the Coos County Racing Association, has been making strenuous efforts to bring horses for the races from the outside and is meeting
