DOUGLAS COUNTY REPUBLICANS ARE AGAINST ASSEMBLY.

(From the Roseburg Review.) With less than half the precincts in the county represented and barely one-third of the allotted number of delegates present, the county "assembly" held in Roseburg Saturday failed to show that there is any general demand for a return to the old convention system. This was further emphasized by the fact that over half of the seventy delegates present were from the Roseburg precincts. It is therefore but logical to conclude that not more than one-third of the Republicans of Douglas county are in sympathy with the purposes of the assembly movement. This is not strange, however, since the Portland Oregonian, which is leading the "assembly" movement, has declared that its first object is to kill the direct election of United States Senators under the Statement No. 1 system, which is now one of the laws of this State, and to "knife" all candidates for the Legislature who are pledged to Statement No. 1. The leaders of the "assembly" scheme are almost equally as hostile to the direct primary and the initiative and referendum laws. Those laws were voted into existence in Oregon four years ago by a majority of nearly four to one. It is, therefore, not at all surprising that two-thirds of the Republican voters now hold aloof from any scheme for nullifying or destroying them.

GOOD EVENING. The optimist exerts a wonderful influence for good. In addition to making his own life's problem easier of solution, he accomplishes, by example, what other men so often try to do by precept. The good he does is known of all men. He radiates life and hope and renewed promises, and the lives he touches are all the better for the brightness he dispenses.—Selected.

SOMEbody. Somebody did a golden deed; Somebody proved a friend in need; Somebody sang a beautiful song; Somebody smiled the whole day long; Somebody thought, "Tis sweet to live." Somebody said, "I am glad to give;" Somebody fought a valiant fight; Somebody lived to shield the right. Was that "Somebody" you? —H. WINKLER.
