OBSERVATIONS OF A "STROLLER."

Some Comment, Caustic and Otherwise on Coos Bay Conditions by the Quiet Observer.

* When your wife buys a new hat. how much attention does she pay to your taste?

All the various and novel ways of making money for a church are really nothing more than new sugar coatings for the same old pill.

People who sit on their front porches in the evening make comments on people passing. If you are one of those passing you will be talked about. If the remarks are confined to making fun of your clothes, you are lucky, but your name is bound to be tossed around by every porch crowd you pass.

Boys have certain "notions" that are common among boys everywhere, They believe, for instance, that there is a law prohibiting a boy from carrying a pocket knife with a blade more than three inches long; also, that there is a queer looking insect known as a "snake doctor," and that when one appears it means a sick snake is around; also, that any boy who plays horse too long will turn at their summer homes on South into a horse; also, that before taking a drink of water when heated a boy should pour water on his wrist; also, that when a boy sees a caterpillar he should spit, or he will get a fever; also, that when he goes in swimming, unless he performs a certain rite he will get cramps in the water and

Back in Livermore, a thriving little city near the writer's former home, the Baptists gave a dance in the parsonage. My, what a horrible shock this would be to some Coos Bay peo-NEWS ple. While I do not dance, I would rather go to a dance and watch Jim Jones hug Tom Smith's wife than to attend a gathering where Jim Jones' wife tongue-lashed Tom Smith's wife and all her neighbors. More people will dance their way into heaven than will ever reach heaven by the gossip route. Yet some of these long-faced, This is the first time there has vinegar-countenanced old scandalmongers will howl and howl about the evils of dancing when they carry around more tanks of gossip than Mrs. J. V. Hodson of North Bend could be loaded on Duncan Fergu-Heights is spending a few weeks on son's largest freight wagon. The most faithful helper the devil has is the gossip.
