My Entire Stock of

Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats Will Be Sold Regardless of Cost

The Greatest Millinery Sale Ever Offered the Ladies of Coos County Will Open At

MRS. AIKEN'S STORE

Monday, November 4th, and Will Be Continued Until November 15th

This Will Positively Be the Greatest Money-Saving Sale in the History of Marshfield

We haven't time or space to enumerate prices here, but come early Monday and see for yourself

Trimmed Hats Will $1.00 Up A Large Line of Children's $2.50 Hats From 50 Cents to.. Mrs. A. G. Aiken

Market Avenue

Next Door to Woolen Mill Store

Watch Our Window For Prices and Display

Winkleman.

PERSONAL notices of visitors in the city, or of Coos Bay people who visit in other cities, together with notices of social affairs, are gladly received in the social despartment. Telephone 133. Notices of elub meetings will be published and secretaries are kindly requested to furnish same.

Miss Eva Dresser.

forlum stage.

herry and Oregon grape.

The program was as follows:

ly and original Human Pediola

Wheeler, to the following guests:

Rev. A. F. Bassford, Mr. and Mrs.

C. H. Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Wilson, Mrs. E. Kelly, the Misses Bessie

Flanagan, Alice Tickell, Eva Dres-

Thelma Wilson, Helen McLaughlin,

Ann Smith and Alpha Mauzey, and

Messrs, Dr. G. W. Leslie, Ray Olli-want, George Doll, Clifford Doane, Edwin Dolan, and Charles Rehfeld.

HIGH SCHOOL PARTY

A Hallowe'en party was given by e Marshfield High School last

Thursday evening in the High School Auditorium, the amusements consist-mg of acts and sketches on the audi-almost all present participated was indulged in. After the hot coffee

All the performances on the stage were conducted by the Senior class.

SPIRELLA CORSETS

may be obtained in Marshfield from

Mrs. Annie Holland,

Corsetier.

stage. After the program "hot coffee march" in which CONTRIBUTIONS concerning social happenings, intended for publication in the society depart-ment of The Times, must be submitted to the editor not later than 6 e-clock p. m., Friday of each week. (Exceptions will be allowed only in cases where events occur later than the time pupils, proceeded to give a parody on "Barbara Fritchie," embellishing it with gestures appropriate to the HALLOWE'EN PARTY. Miss Frances Franse was hostess occasion and their representation. at a delightful Hallowe'en party last 3. The Three Graces in original Tuesday evening at which the members of the Baptist Young People's ser and Ray Davis gave the audience Union and their friends were guests, a trutful and exciting account of the who upon arriving were silently High School picnic and other occasunbered into the dimly lighted rooms siens, thereby causing much embarby a personage of ghostly appear- assment as well as amusement among assement as well as amusement among the students. They were dressed to the students. They were dressed to imitate the old-fashion country minture of the evening was the rhymes ister, and their introductory remarks of six lines required of every couple of "We Are Here," "We Will Sing," who by matching pictures, became "We Must Depart," and the decided partners. Several dispositions of difference in the heights of the Three poetical ability were revealed, whose Graces brought forth peals of laugh-productions if published would, no ter from their audience. doubt, put some of our very latest 4. Professor Poppenspieler, songsne. ter: Reigard again, coming out and desired to have the cur- giving a sad and mournful recital of tains of the present lifted and the fuhe sent some money back to have ture revealed to them, were given the his Duthcy girl come over from the "ould country" and how she replied milted disastrously for their fondest that she was married and settled dreams. Others were more fortun- down but was grateful for the money. e. | Poppenspieler's costume, with gen-ln the nut-guessing contest, C. H. uine wooden shoes and gay colors, arch won the prize but he, gallant- was typical of the German dress as Marsh won the prize but he, gallant-ty, gave it to the lady next highest:

so often caricatured. Classical Dramatization At the close of this most enjoyable story of Humpty Dumpty. Again the Senior girls came on, this time with a sumptuous Hallowe'en just their heads showing over the funch consisting of pumpkin pie, cofthe hostess, assisted by Miss Eddeva song when suddenly their heads distop of a sheet. They were singing a appeared and only shoes could be

The Three Graces: Lecocq, Dres-and Davis again embarassed sev-, eral by relating some secrets of the wer, Mamie Gulovson, inez Baldwin, past,

The Ballet Belles, the same consisting of Chester Isaacson. Roberson. Arthur Kolstadt and Herbert Bradley, dressed as chorus girls. singing a parody on "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet" with Leslie Isaacson singing the verses, and the rest joining in on the chorus, (meanwhile exful dances).

as Shadows, formed by darkening the atic of Hallowe'en festivities a sheet, throwing the shadow of the actors on the sheet. The following future was revealed. acts were given: Gentleman highway-exciting tale march, refreshments were served un-Village Choir Practice, represented der the supervision of the Sopho-morec lass. The auditorium was prettily decorated in greens, the front by four choir singers and their leader. An Illustrated Song-"Goodbye, of the stage being a mass of huckle-Dolly Gray.'

HONOR MISS PAINTER

Prof. Poppenspieler with his on-Out of compliment to Miss Maud Professor proved to be Max Reigard. Painter who is soon to leave Marsh-field for the winter, Mrs. E. F. Morand his human Pediola consisted of four boys: Chester Isaacson, Leslie Isaacson, Arthur Kolstadt and Dunrissey entertained informally at cards last Tuesdaw afternoon. can Ferguson, seated on a table with reported a most enjoyable time so-their feet hanging over. Reigard pro-cially. Refreshments were served. reeded to punch their feet, each one The guests were Mrs. C. F. McKnight, emitting a groan or squeak, accord- Mrs. F. G. Horton, Mrs. W. A. Reid, Irene Preuss, who received many ing to whether he was bass or tenor, Mrs. F. K. Gettins, Mrs. E. S. Bar- compliments on her excellent mantheir combined vocal stunts proving gelt, Mrs. E. W. Kammerer, the be the humming of the tune of a Chas. Van Duyn, Mrs. A. popular song.

Mrs. E. Crosthwalf, Mrs. Effic Farringer, Mrs. F. M. Parsons, Miss Cleve School of Electrocution. The Senior of Porland. Miss Ramona Radeliffe. girls, marching out in imitation of and honor guest Miss Maud Painter, the fashion of third or fourth grade

A. N. W. CLUB.

Mrs. George Murch was hostess to their sewing in preparation for the the A. N. W. Club last Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in and Saturday in November. A most sewing and conversation and a Hal-lowe'en luncheon was served. Mrs. Instead of the regular auxiliary meet-Quist assisted the hostess in serving. ing next Wednesday, the ladies will CHESTRA.

E. Allen, Mrs. F. M. Friedberg, Mrs. G. A. Bennett, Mrs. Charles Kaiser, Mrs. L. M. Noble, Mrs. J. T. Hall,
Mrs. S. Lando, Mrs. H. Reed, Mrs. E.
Mingue, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs.
Hazard, Mrs. W. F. Squire, Mrs. O.
Edman, Mrs. Murphy, Miss Cleve,
Mrs. Hugo Quist, and Mrs. George
Murch.

Murch. Mrs. W. P. Murphy will entertain the club Thursday Nov. 7.

MINNIE-WIS CLUB

Mrs. J. H. LaChappelle entertained the Minnie-Wis Club last Thursday afternoon. The afternoon was spent in a social way, everyone enjoying themselves to the fullest extent.

They were originally to meet with Mrs. Mary Thompson but on account of her illness the place was changed. After a pleasant afternoon of conver-

After a pleasant afternoon of conversation, refreshments were served to the following members ond guests:

Mrs. D. A. Jones, Mrs. W. Perkins, Mrs. C. A. Davis, Mrs. F. H. Dresser. Mrs. E. Kelly, Mrs. Helen Baldwin, Mrs. J. H. LaChappelle; the guests were Mrs. Wm. Hyden, Mrs. W. Hoagalnd, Mrs. A. Z. Downs, Mrs. M. LaChappelle, Mrs. H. Roycraft, Misses Anna Downs and Maxine Jones.

The club will be entertained Thurs-

The club will be entertained Thursday, November 16 at the home of Mrs. W. Perkins.

WELCOME NEW PASTOR.

Presbyterian church and their friends tendered a reception to the new pastor and wife, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy, Miss Noel Pummerville, Edgar Cason and Alfred Ray.

The presbyterian church and their fred Ray.

The presbyterian church and their fred Ray.

The pummerville, Edgar Cason and Alfred Ray.

The pummerville, Edgar Cason and Alfred Ray.

The pummerville of the pummer tions, a large attendance, an excellent program and delicious refreshments made the evening a most enjoyable one. Following is the pro- tained at a chafing dish supper Thurs-

Solo . . . . . . Mrs. Robinson dance.

Rev. Rutledge Mrs. McKnight . Miss Silverman Reading ..... Rev. Browning Greetings ..... Song ....

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Dorothy Dungan entertained a number of friends Friday afternoon at a Hallowe'en and birthday party. Those enjoying the hospitality of the little hostess were Stella Grant, Mary Smith, Hilmore Grant, Ellen Grant Mrs. Ernest Pickering of New York and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dungan. 4 4 4

EPWORTH LEAGUE SOCIAL

Without a doubt, the largest and most elaborate Hallowe'en party of Orchestra. ecuting what were meant to be grace- the Finnish hall under the auspices of the Epworth League of the Metho-Moving pictures, otherwise known dist church. Decorations, emblempit and baving a single light back of carried out to the minutest detail. For the small sum of two cents, the ed much excitement and many particof a robbery, chase, capturing of a ipated in that most thrilling adven-thief and return of jewels in three ture.

Some of the young people sang. others dived for apples, causing much laughter, these together with various other amusements caused the evening to pass far too rapidly. Pie, cream and fruits could be obtained for a mere pittance, the proceeds going towards paying for the hall. About one hundred persons were present and the appearance of the hall after the party had disbanded

The program, which was rendered in the early part of the evening, and the decorations and amusements were all under the direct charge of Miss graduated from the Hardin Conser-

POT-LUCK DINNER

The Ladies' Auxillary of the Presbyterian church was entertained last Thursday at an all-day session and pot-luck dinner at the home of Mrs. T. Haines. The ladies resumed be entertained by another all-day session and pot luck dinner at the home of Mrs. C. H. Walters, Thurs-The following names were elected to membership of the auxiliary: Mrs. Q. O. Sutherland, Mrs. C. F. McKnight, Mrs. W. F. McEldowney, Mrs. J. E. Burkhart, Mrs. P. W. Dodson and Mrs. R. N. Fenters Those attending the meeting last

Those attending the meeting last Thursday were Mesdames A. L. Buttz, A. R. Sears. J. E. Burkhart. A. L. Barker, G. W. Dungan, T. J. Scaife, C. H. Walters, I. S. Smith, H. Bishop, J. Dashney, E. Converse, A. E. Seaman, T. Nichois, F. M. Flye, E. Gammill, J. A. Cox, P. W. Dodson, R. N. Fenton, W. S. Nicholson, C. F. E. Gammill, J. A. Cox, P. W. Dodson, R. N. Fenton, W. S. Nicholson, C. F. McKnight, S. D. Harper, F. S. Dow, W. F. McEldowney, Q. O. Sutherland, D. A. Jones, L. W. Langdon, A. E. Diment, B. H. Morrison, A. T. Haines and Nesbit, and Misses Cleve of Port-land, Anna McEldowney, Marie Sea-man and Miss Armsby.

A. E. Gagnon was the guest of honor at a very pleasant surprise party last Tuesday evening at his home in Bunker Hill. A number of friends arrived with refreshments made their way to the home and spent a most pleasant evening. Mr. Gagnon left this week to visit at his old home in Quebec. Those present old home in Quebec. Those present were Rev. Father Munro, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. E. N. McDonnell, Mr. and Mrs. C. Burrows, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Murphy, Miss Noel

Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Horsfall enterday night after the Fortnightly dance. Their guests were Judge and

MUSICAL.

The Lew Keyzer orchestra working on Concert music under the able direction of their conductor, Mr. Lew Keyzer. It should be gratifying to Marshfield in general and music lovers in particular that Marshfield can boast such an orchestra, that she can boast such a leader.

Dr. W. A. Toye was host at a stag musicale at his home in West Marshfield Wednesday evening.

J. Nelson, just arrived from Spokane, is a trap drummer. Mr. Nelson has played with the H. Dricoll Band and the A. Reemer Band and is a drummer of no mean ability. He will be affiliated with the Coos Bay

The Norwegian Double Male Quartette, recently organized, are workng under the direction of Mr. L. K. Ballinger.

Miss Maud Painter will leave the first of December for San Francisco where she will study vocal music.

The Coos Bay Concert Band are chearsing for another public concert to be given soon. * * * R. E. Fenton. director of the Coos Bay Concert Band, is expecting a new trombone player within the week in the person of Roy Carpenter. Mr. Fenton and Mr. Carpenter are

Mrs. Wm. Horsfall, Jr., has issued invitations to a musical matinee on was sufficient proof of the good time Friday afternoon. November 8th at enjoyed. The program will be given by Miss Edna Larson, planist. and Mrs. Mayme Stanley Gidley, vocalist. Miss Larson vatory of Music at Mexico, Missouri. and this will be her first public appearance since her return home.

The Junior Musical Club which meets every Saturday with Mrs. Effic Farringer from one until two has just taken up the subject of Rythm.

menced rehearsals on Farmers' Mass Conro, Will Woods, Wm. Davis, Reyin B flat for the Christmas midnight mas. The choir is under the direction of Mr. L. K. Ballinger. tion of Mr. L. K. Ballinger.

DANCE at EAGLES' HALL SAT URDAY NIGHT. KEYZER'S OR

HALLOWE'EN PARTY

Misses Helen Davis and Ethel Davis entertained with .. Hallowe'en the afternon were favored with party Thursday evening at the form- selections by Miss Margaeria er's home. The rooms were fantas-tically decorated with lighted pump-kins and the customary black cats, Mrs. Stanley, Mrs. Swinger kins and the customary black cats, and the young ladies were dressed in weird costumes, the effect of which was most delightful. A dainty lunch was served to the following Misses Emma, Lucile and Alice Douglas, Pearl Childs, Gertrude Robertson, Harel Cook, Edna Rosse. Hazel Cook, Edna Reese, Agnes Johnson, Elsie Hillstrom, Ethel Davis and Helen Perkins.

LADIES' ART CLUB

The Ladies' Art Club had a very enjoyable meeting with Mrs. Lydia day school class last Tuesday of the usual business and sewing. The young people enjoyed a part of the property of the property

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Painter of North Bend entertained informally last Monday evening at a "crawfish" party. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wernich and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Byler.

TENDER RECEPTION.

the Presbyterian church in North Bend last evening was celebrated the third anniversary of the Miz-pah Bible Class.

The banquet room and tables were artistically decorated with the usual at a luncheon in honor of he Hallowe'en adornments. Beautiful teenth birthday. The table was festoons of huckleberry were caught tily decorated for the occasi together in the center of the ceiling after a dainty repast prepared with a huge pumpkin. Numerous Jack-o'-Lanterns were in evidence spent in a general good time and expunsite bounds of white one of the ceiling after a dainty repast prepared with the center of the ceiling after a dainty repast prepared with the ceili and exquisite boquets of white chry- present were Adelaide Clark. santhemums arranged in conspicious Graham, Marjorie Graham, places gave the decorations a most Harris and Bessle Douglas delicate and artistic finish in color and beauty.

A piano duet was enjoyed before the president, C. A. Covey, called the meeting to order. The report of the standing committees were heard and the members of the Epist accepted, and the following officers Guild last Tuesday after were elected for the next sim months: President-Clarence Covey;

Vice-president-Mrs. C. A. Covey: Secretary-Miss Mildred Rood; Treasurer-L. A. Widner.

Then followed a general discussion and the taking up of new business, after which a delightful musical pro-Concert Band and the Lew Keyzer gram was given in the following numbers:

Piano Solo—Miss Mildred Rood. Vocal Solo—Miss Grace Williams. Trombone Solo—C. H. Worrell. Mrs. C. H. Worrell, accompanist.

4. Vocal Trio-Mrs. C. A. Covey. Miss Mildred Rood and Miss Grace Williams.

Solo .- Mrs. Geo. Geisendorfer. Miss Mildred Rood, accompanist. At the banquet table, Miss Bessle Immel proved a very worthy toast-mistress and called for the following

'New Lines of Devotional Work" 'How to Obtain Better Attendance"

'Class Helps' ..... Viruil Water . . Virgil Watters. "Our Class, the Church and the Community" Miss Josephine Griffin during a visit with her six The Teacher's Remarks Those present were Mr. and Mrs.

Elmer Russell, Mrs. Kate Rood, Mr. . and Mrs. C. A. Covey, Mr. and Mrs. H. Worrell, Mrs. George Geisendorfer, Mr. and Mrs. George Hazer. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Widner, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Watters. Mr. and Mrs. J. Grubbs, Mrs. E. George Smith. Misses Kara Shouse, Gladys Kranick, Bessie Immell, Juno Young, Joseph-ine Griffin, Alpha Wicklund, Leona Smith, Grace Williams, Bessie Bain, pany. Joe Barbour, Mr ated with the color sche Alice Waters, and Clyde Thompkins, I Thomason, Carl Greves, Peter Loggie, and white in the dining Lyle Chappell, Clarence Kibbler, Har-The St. Monica's Choir has com- old Simpson, Melvin Jacobson, Lloyd

EMBROIDERY CLUB

The Social Embroidery Club was

of Mrs. Charles Tilton last W. day afternoon. The ladies by themselves with sewing and dr Wiseman, Mrs. D. Cowan, M Krick, Mrs. O. Hanson, Mrs. W. kleman, Mrs. Charles Tilton, 12 Misses Hazel Cowan, Gussie Co Marguerite Wiseman, Zella Sun

Mrs. O. Hanson will entertal club next Wednesday, November + + +

SUNDAY SCHOOL PARTY

by a dainty luncheon. Those pr were Mr. and Mrs. Alva Dell, M Florence Rehfeld, Ruth Wa Marie Wheeler, Cella Post and 6 + + +

DINNER PARTIES.

Mr. and Mrs. E. N. McDens tertained at dinner last Senda ing, their guests being Rev. F Munro, Miss Dernbach and Eigs

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Cohan of Marshfield entertained Miss Fi Alken and Mr. John Mereet a ner last Sunday evening.

A. J. Mendel will give a party Sunday evening at The Cler to a number of friends.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.

Miss Ursula Farring a number of her friends is

EPISCOPAL GUILD.

Mrs. Harry Bradfield eath which time it was decided to cake sale which is being afternoon at Perry and No store. After the general i matters had been taken up cussed, the hostess served a luncheon to the following E. Browning, Mrs. L. M. Molis J. S. Coke, Mrs. W. A. Tos. M. Upton, Mrs. Jas. Cowa, h. Deubner, Mrs. Wm. Ledwis, Fannie Hazard, Mrs. Able, Ms. Sacchi, Mrs. Archie Maddes, 48

Maud Reed.
The Guild will meet with
A. Sacchi Tuesday Nov. 12

MISS ADAMS WES

Mrs. Fannie Hazard has announcement of the wedding Helen Adams and John Smith, which took place is Washington, Oct. 17. Miss Adams Is a sister of er librarian of this city and well known and much admit friends and acquaintances

TENDER SHOWER

Miss Bessie Flye and Smith tendered a stocking shower last Tuesday ere home of the former to Mis Laurin who is soon to E M. Albee, an employee Smith machine shops Laurin is clerk in the the Coos Bay Home Tele

The color scheme of pink was also evident in the and a pleasing feature of was a huge bowl of pisk was a huge bowl of pisk chrysanthemums. Smith accompanied by Ayre rendered some very

(Continued on Last