BOULEVARD IS TALKED OVER

Marshfield-to-the-Sea Drive Project to Be Presented to County Court.

(By Associated Press to The Cooz Bay Times.)

The Marshfield-to-the-Sea Boulevard was brought up before the city council again last evening by the presentation of a bill for $500 by Fred Gettins for making part of the survey of the route.

City Engineer Gidley said that it probably could be finished for $200 or $300 more. He said that even then, the survey was being done for less than he originally expected.

As soon as this is done, Mayor Straw said the thing to do was to put it up to the county court. He said that he believed the county commissioners would defray the cost of clearing and grading the road, the same as they are doing on other county highways.

He said that the new route reduced the distance from Elrod avenue to the South Slough bridge to about five and a half miles, while it is between 11 and 13 miles.

Finally it was agreed that the survey should be completed and an effort made to hasten the project.

The council last night briefly discussed the question of cleaning the streets and the care of garbage. Many complained because Garbage Collector Lingo did not haul away the garbage in closed cans as is prescribed by ordinance.

Mayor Straw and others complained because Levi Heisner, who has the contract for cleaning the streets was not doing better work.

Mayor Straw said that Street Commissioner Lawhorne said it was useless to ask Heisner to do better work and he had given up trying.

Carl Albrecht wanted Fourth street swept once in awhile, but Mayor Straw said it was no use—that Front street was in just as bad shape.

Finally City Attorney Goss suggested that the city start suit against Arthur Hodgins, bondsman for Heisner, for non-fulfillment of contract.

Before the adjournment the council passed a resolution authorizing City Attorney Goss to appeal to the state railroad commission under the Malarkey bill.

Mr. Goss was also authorized to go to Salem from Portland next week and confer with the state officials about the matter.

It was also agreed that the company's new franchise should be brought up for detailed discussion two weeks from last night.

Mr. Goss said that the water company had not lived up to its old franchise. However, under the old law, he said the city had no recourse except to cancel the present franchise and then the city would have no better off because it did not furnish water.

He said that the council had all the Malarkey bill, which is to be voted on at this election and which will probably pass, afforded a means of appeal to the railroad commission and that body could fine or otherwise punish the company for not affording proper service.

He said also that the council could specify what the company must do. He said that the council had already served notice on the company and that the company had failed to comply.

He said that the council would take steps to enable him to appeal to the railroad commission so that the Marshfield mission soon so that the Marshfield case, if brought, would be one of the first to receive attention.

He said that he had only casually gone over the new franchise, but he saw a number of things in which he would suggest changes.

Mr. Goss read the draft of the franchise. In it, improvement in only promise of improvement in service were to put in a concrete reservoir to hold three-quarters of a million gallons, to put in three miles of new mains and to furnish 75 pounds pressure on Front street to be available for fire protection.

The new franchise requires that within two years, the city put in 40 additional hydrants at $5 per month rental, the city to pay for the hydrants and the cost of installation, and also later to put in a hydrant for each additional four hundred feet of water main to be put in.

It provided that after the expiration of five years the city have the right to purchase the plant at a "reasonable cost," but did not stipulate how the "reasonable cost" is to be ascertained.

Mr. Goss said the city is now paying $56.25 per month for the service from 33 hydrants, but under the new franchise it would be paying $365 per month. He said that he thought the present fire rate and the present house rate was too low.

He said that it was expensive to build and maintain a good water system here. He said that in view of this the city would have to pay a higher rate in the future.

He thought that possibly the rates (Continued on Page Four.)

ASK FRANCHISE IN MARSHFIELD

Cooz Bay Water Company Wants 30-Year Grant—Appeal to State.

The Cooz Bay Water Co. last night made application to the Marshfield city council for a 30-year franchise here. The application was accompanied by the draft of a franchise that they wished granted.

Before the adjournment the council passed a resolution authorizing City Attorney Goss to appeal to the state railroad commission under the Malarkey bill.

Differences of Opinion as to Division of Territory Conquered Exists.

BALKAN ALLIES STILL WINNING

Bulgarians Succeed in Cutting Off Water Supply From Capital.

(By Associated Press to The Cooz Bay Times.)

LONDON, Nov. 5.—The great powers of Europe are aligning themselves on either side of a very sharp line regarding the future of the Balkan states.

The public opinion in England, France and Russia is that the allies should have the territory which they have conquered and Russia particularly has warned Turkey that conditions could only become worse should further disaster occur in Tschatalja.

On the other side is Austria-Hungary, Germany and Italy all being directly interested. Being the nearest neighbors to the Balkan seat they will not it is believed, sit quietly by and see the Balkan league establish itself across her path to the Aegean sea, in which direction her trade is expanding while at the same time the Servians spread to the Adriatic sea.

The Austrian government points out that the Albanians are as much a nation as any of the allies and that Albania should be reserved for Albanians.

The first sign of dissension among the Balkan allies themselves, comes in a dispatch from Belgrade in which it is said the Servians are beginning to declare that the "autonomous Albania" which was agreed upon before the war started, has now faded away.

Instead of a twenty mile stretch of the Adriatic coast hitherto claimed by Servia, the same dispatch says Servia now wants sixty miles and that in return Montenegro is to get more than her allotment of the district of Novipazar.

Meantime the Bulgarian troops in the vicinity of Tschorlu are preparing to resume their advance on Tschatalja. It is officially stated in a dispatch from Belgrade that the Servians have already passed through Sofia on their way to Adrianople, the bombardment of which continues without abatement.

Go To the Front.

(By Associated Press to Cooz Bay Times.)

SOFOIA, Nov. 5.—Reinforcements continue to proceed to the front from the Bulgaria capital in considerable numbers and some Servian troops passed through here yesterday for Adrianople and today eight battalions of volunteers including Macedonians and Russians were entrained for the front.

It is reported that fighting still continues in the neighborhood of Serai and Tschorlu.

Fleet Starts.
