THIS BRAND

is the brand which put Aluminum Ware into common use. The brand whose quality is never questioned, the brand which has stood the test of time beyond all others—the neatest, nicest and best cooking utensils made.

You will use "Wear-Ever" Aluminum Utensils

always, if one such utensil is placed in your home—so the manufacturers believe. That is why they sacrifice their profit and we cut ours in two on this one-quart Saucepan, which is yours at the Special Price, 30c

Replace utensils that wear out with utensils that "Wear-Ever"

Coos Bay will meet next Monday to take up various matters. The Cooston Channel dredging will also come up again, W. E. Homme asking a rehearing.

Leave on Auto.—Among those leaving on the Roseburg auto line for Roseburg this morning were Mamie Rogers, Miss Catherine Harrington, H. N. Sanborn, W. K. Weeks and H. S. Johnson.

Will Give Dance.—Arrangements have been made by the people of Libby for a dance to be given there next Saturday evening and a number from Marshfield are planning to attend, the affair being public.

Choir Meeting.—A meeting of the choirs of the Protestant Churches has been called for Saturday evening at 7:30 at the M. E. Church to rehearse for the musical program for Sunday evening's union service.

Buys Lot.—It is reported that Chas. Thom, of the North Bend brewery, has purchased a lot at the corner of Sherman and Washington in North Bend from John and George Herron for $5000. It is an excellent business corner.

Kills Bobcat.—Clem Wells went out about 3 o'clock this morning to try out a new varmint dog. He started in back of Cooston and in a little while had bagged a good-sized bobcat which he brought back to town to display to Chas. Hickox and other varmint hunters.

Is Improving.—S. Lando, who is at Lane Hospital is rapidly improving, according to a letter received today by Marshfield friends. He is now able to be wheeled out each day for awhile and had not had a severe hemorrhage for eight days when the letter was written.

Fast Service.—Ned Galloway is completing arrangements for his new fast service between Marshfield and Lakeside. He expects to start it some day next week and with the new boat and auto will make the trip from Marshfield to Lakeside, going or coming, in two hours.

Missionary Coming.—Rev. M. E. Anderson, of the Swedish Missionary Society of the Pacific Northwest, will arrive here tomorrow on a tour of this county in behalf of the society. He will hold services in Swedish at the Methodist Church at 3 p. m. and 8 p. m.

Railroad Men Coming.—Mr. Crichton, of Porter Brothers, telephoned in today for a launch to meet him and two or three others at the North Inlet landing. They came down over the railroad and were in a hurry to reach here. It is believed that J. P. Porter is one of the men with Mr. Crichton.

Get Contract.—Ladd & Harris have been awarded the contract for the construction of the new brick veneer block which Mrs. Agnes Hutcheson will build on the site of the frame buildings which have been occupied by the Bradfield Barber Shop and Union Saloon, just north of the Postoffice.

Used Orpheum.—Last evening the stereopticon to be used in the illustrated lecture at the Christian Church failed and Tower Brothers arranged to show the views at the Orpheum following their regular show and the entire congregation came down about 10 o'clock from the church and witnessed the exhibit.

Relatives Here.—Mrs. Willis S. Dunway, wife of the Oregon State Printer who succumbed this week, was formerly Miss Alice McCormac, a sister of Dr. J. T. McCormac, of Marshfield. She and Mr. Dunway were married in 1894. Mr. Dunway was personally known to a number on the Bay who will greatly regret his sudden demise.

Peck Appointed.—Arthur K. Peck has been appointed by County Clerk Watson to register the voters in South Marshfield, precinct No. 9, and yesterday filed his bond and other qualifications. Justice Penock was named for the Central Marshfield precinct but it has not been announced who will serve in the North Marshfield precinct.

Building Wrong.—A survey of the lot at the northwest corner of Second and Central, on which T. C. Russell is erecting a one-story brick veneer block, shows that the Carl Johnson building is four inches over the line on Mr. Russell's property. It is expected that the Johnson building can be moved four inches further north and adjust the mixup.

Will Remodel.—Robert Marsden, Sr., has let the contract to J. F. Telander to remodel the Blanco cigar store and put in a modern front. It is proposed to lower the floor to the sidewalk level. Mr.

Marsden decided that the appearance of the Blanco cigar store was not sufficiently modern appearing for his ideas of progressiveness and hence the improvement.

Finishes Work.—Photographer Wester, of the Southern Pacific, is today finishing his work here. He has taken over 200 views and this afternoon planned to get a fine panoramic view of the city from Knob Hill. Yesterday he and John W. Motley went to North Inlet and took some views of the J. H. Pinkerton cranberry ranch.

Return From Outing.—An auto party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Bargel, Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Matson and son, Jullus, and Miss Grace Kruse, returned last evening from a delightful summer outing trip to Medford and Crater Lake. They returned on the coast road via Crescent City and Wedderburn. They report the roads good everywhere except in Coos and Curry.

Three Are Fined.—W. Murphy, a cook at the Coaledo logging camp, was fined this morning for being drunk. Hansen Brothers were also fined for intoxication. It seems that they went home all right last night, but one of them got into a row with the landlord of the rooming house and was fired out and the latter went out to see that no harm befell his brother and both landed in jail.

Catholic Picnic.—The members of St. Monica's Catholic Church and their friends will enjoy a picnic at Charleston Bay next Sunday. Mass will be celebrated at 8:15 and 8 o'clock and the last regular launch for the picnic grounds will leave from the rear of the Ekblad store at 9:15. The Wah-Ta-Waaa, Kanger and other boats will make the trip. Lunch baskets may be brought to the Rectory where arrangements will be made to send them to the picnic grounds.

Long Nap.—A good joke is betold on Henry Walters, the young son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Walters today. He went to the Presbyterian picnic yesterday and en route home went to sleep in the cabin of the Alert. When the Alert landed the others left the boat without arousing him. About 10 o'clock last evening his absence from home was noted and his father started out to look for him. He went to the Alert and found Henry still asleep in the cabin.

Farm Home Burned.—The ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Blake on Catching Inlet was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. It evidently started from a defective flue and had gained considerable headway when noticed by the members of the family who were out milking at the time. Most of the contents were burned. They carried about $1500 insurance and plan to rebuild at once, being quartered in the A. Gunnell home meanwhile. The many friends of the family in Marshfield will regret to hear of their loss.

Hold Meetings.—Meetings to instruct the members of the Christian Church in Coos County, and especially the Sunday School teachers and leaders of the various branches of church work, were conducted yesterday, C. F. Swander, of Portland, corresponding secretary of the Missionary Society; Mrs. Essons, of Forest Grove, field worker of the Bible School Department and Mrs. Hunter, of Grants Pass, a leader in the C. W. B. M., were the visitors present in charge of the work. At noon yesterday, the congregation united in a fine dinner at the Swedish Lutheran Church parlors. The meetings were very interesting, some of the addresses being illustrated by stereopticon views.
