LUNCHEON

A delightful luncheon was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. L. C. Reynolds at her home on North Bend Heights. As it was Marian Reynolds' twenty-second birthday, the decorations were red and white, the colors of Harvard University, where Mr. Reynolds is at present a student. Those present were: Mesdames Fred Hollister, Wm. Vaughan, David Vaughn, Niel Banks, Henry Burmester and L. L. Thomas.

DISCUSS SCHOOLS.

Last evening's meeting of the Marshfield Patrons and Teachers' Club at the high school building was fairly well attended. It was devoted principally to a discussion of preventing bad habits among children and the tobacco habit among school boys was the principal one dwelt upon. Mrs. J. Wright Wilson presided. She read an able paper. Among those participating in the discussion were Superintendent J. W. Wilson, Mrs. M. A. Sweetman and Mrs. Thomas.

CHRISTENINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Nasburg have named their daughter, whose advent this week brought more joy and sunshine into their home, Sarah Ellen, in honor of Mrs. Nasburg's mother, Mrs. McGraw, of Oakland. Walter Lazelle, Jr., is the name that Mr. and Mrs. Walter Claybaugh have conferred upon their first son. Mrs. Claybaugh, who has been at Mercy Hospital, will probably return home early next week.

Robert McCann Smith is the name that Mr. and Mrs. E. George Smith of South Coos River have conferred upon their first child. The name is in honor of Robert McCann, the well-known North Bend pioneer, who is Mrs. Smith's father and who is greatly elated over his first grandson.

FAREWELL PARTY.

The North Bend Mizpah Bible Class and the Christian Endeavor Society, united in a farewell party for Tom Stora, who left today for Los Angeles, at the home of Judge and Mrs. V. E. Watters. About thirty-five young folks were present, and games and music made it a most enjoyable affair. Light refreshments were served.

ENJOY BALL.

The "ragging ball" given by the Non-a-me at the Finnish Hall last evening was enjoyed by about thirty Marshfield and North Bend couples. It was the first of a series of the club, composed mostly of members of the Outing Club are giving.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Miss Bessie Sandquist gave a party last Saturday afternoon, the occasion being her fifteenth birthday. The decorations were beautiful, the color scheme being red and white. Red and white dahlias were used in profusion. The refreshments were carried out in the same color scheme. The afternoon was immensely enjoyed by all present, games being played and a social time had. Those present were: Anna Downs, Ruth Anderson, Ruth Mc-

Laughlin, Myrtle Isaacson, Carol Ralskopf, Ruby Cooley, Elsie Thomas, Clara Ferguson, Mary McArthur, Ruth Sandquist and Agnes Sandquist.

NORWEGIAN YOUNG PEOPLE

The Norwegian Young People's Society met at the Norwegian Hall last Saturday evening. They held their regular business session, after which delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Chris Lee and Talmer Nelson. The evening was spent in a social way, enjoyed very much by all the members present. The next meeting will be held on Saturday evening, November 22. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. R. O. Thorpe, Mr. and Mrs. Chris Lee, Misses Dorothy Johnson, Thea Larson, Edna and Jennie Johnson, Elsie Larson and Mabel and Cora Mathison; Messrs. Peter Ommel, Emil Gabrielson, Louis Knutson, K. Branner, Andrew King, Alfred Jaren, E. G. Mellen, Oas Kirkret, Talmer Nelson, Chris and Peter Thorpe, O. Olsen, Nelson Anderson, Dweset Larson and Arneson.

LITERARY SOCIETY

Last evening the young people of the First Baptist Church met at the church parlors and organized a literary society. Miss Belya Planagan was elected temporary chairman, who then read the constitution, which was accepted. The following officers were elected for a term of six months: President, Miss Belya Planagan; vice-pres., Halbert Carlisle; secretary, Miss Carrie Ross; treasurer, Miss Helen McLaughlin. It was agreed to meet again Tuesday, November 25, at the church parlors. The evening closed with music, games and dainty refreshments.

Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. A. F. Bassford, the Misses Ruth Hedden, Mildred Storey, Ruby Cooley, Vera Harris, Tori Lund, Rilla and Carrie Ross, Bessie and Belya Planagan, Florence Rehfeld, Frances Franse, Eva Dresser, Bess Ayre, Helen McLaughlin, Lola Montgomery, Alpha Mauzey, and Messrs. Charles Smith, Loren Cooley, Clifford and Charles Doane, Albert Bassford, Jr., Joe Rooney, Earl Slagle, Halbert Carlisle, Eugene Montgomery, Will McDonald and Charles Froedellius.
