THE WEATHER REPORT OREGON — Fair; frost tonight; northerly winds

LOCAL TEMPERATURE RECORD For the 24 hours ending at 4:43 a. m., May 23, by Benj. Ostlund, special government Meteorologist: Maximum... 56 Minimum... 40 At 4:43 a. m. ... 41 Precipitation since Sept. 1, 1915... 83.48 Precipitation same period last year... 65.18 Wind: Southwest, cloudy SUNRISE AND SUNSET Tuesday May 23. — Sun rises at 4:29 and sets at 7:24.

Resigns Position.—"Jack" Guyton has resigned his position with The Times and is no longer connected with this newspaper in any capacity.

Postpone Supper.—The supper which was announced to be served the public by the Presbyterian ladies at the church tomorrow evening has been postponed indefinitely.

Going to Reunion.—Carroll Smith, son of C. A. Smith, has gone back to New Haven, Connecticut there to attend the reunion of his class at Yale. He expects to be gone for about two months before returning again to Coos Bay.

Broadband Postoffice.—A postoffice has been ordered established at Broadbent in the upper Coquille Valley and the populous, prosperous dairying community will now enjoy daily mail service. Postmaster Roselle will open the office June 1.

Back Again.—George Stough, the old man chimney sweep, is back on Coos Bay after a long absence. A chimney at Sacramento fell with him and put him in the hospital for 23 months. He is warmly welcomed by old friends.

Is Finally Ended.—It's finished at last, the baseball game between the nines of young Gene Crosthwaite and Herbert Murphy, Jr. The score was 56 to 53 favoring Crosthwaite's aggregation. The game was unique in that it extended over several days, being played on the installment plan.

Funeral Tomorrow.—The local order of Eagles will have charge of the funeral of Mark H. Clint tomorrow afternoon. The service is to be in the Wilson Undertaking parlors at 2 p. m. Mr. Clint was drowned at the entrance of Sunset Bay Sunday morning when his boat overturned.

Right on the Spot.—Though the bond issue carried by a good majority Charles Hall did not feel that the time for the shouting had come until the county court canvassed the vote and declared it carried. For this reason he went over yesterday to see that no objections to the election were raised.

Brother Is Nominated.—James T. Brand has received word from Roseburg that his brother, Charles Brand of that city, has been nominated on the Republican ticket for state representative from Douglas county by a large majority. Mr. Brand is a very prominent fruit grower six miles out from Roseburg.

Roads Bad.—F. G. Horton returned Sunday night from a trip to Brewster in his auto with his wife and her folks who are here from the east. He says that the roads are still in a bad shape and that anyone who has driven a car over the route should return a confirmed booster for good roads for the rest of his life.

Seeks Divorce.—V. A. Buell who was formerly connected with a number of Marshfield restaurants but is now in Roseburg has begun suit for divorce. His wife was formerly Dossie Mobley of Coos River and they became estranged while here. She gained some notoriety in the Shook white slave case and the divorce petition is a rather salacious one.

Ford Improves.—G. A. Bonebrake has received word that J. E. Ford of the Union Market who has been critically ill in Portland is now recuperating but it will probably be several weeks before he will recuperate sufficiently from typhoid to return home. Mr. Bonebrake will go to Portland about June 1 to visit him.

Graham Loses Again.—R. A. Graham builder of the Coos Bay and Myrtle Point railway, has again lost his suit for big damages and back salary in connection with the project, Spreckels and the Southern Pacific being joint defendants in the federal court at Portland. The case was tried a month ago and the decision against Graham was handed down this week.

Wed Here.—Miss Emma Hansen and Ed Horton were married last evening at 9 o'clock by Rev. Father McDevitt at his home. Miss Laura Dubay and Clifford Goane attended the couple. The bride is well known and has been employed for some time in Pugsley's Candy Factory. The groom is a local train man. Mr. and Mrs. Horton left this morning for a two or three weeks' honeymoon trip to Portland.

Buys a Ranch.—D. T. Pennington, of Everett, Washington, passed through here this morning enroute home from Langlois where he has been for the past month. He is a shingle weaver by trade and has just purchased 160 acres of farm land, 40 acres of which is bottom land. He may come back later and farm it, he said. All of the sawmills in the vicinity of Everett are going full blast, he said.

Has No Heart.—The Weather Man is relentless this year. Some people say he is running "hog wild." Be that as it may, the total rainfall for Coos Bay since last September stands this morning at 83.48 inches, or almost three and one half inches better than the highest record in some 20 years. And the end is not in sight for the sky is still overcast and there are still more than three months to go before next September.

Ledward Improving.—Wm. Ledward, who went to California with his wife and daughter to visit a son while recuperating from injuries sustained in a fall off the Blanco a few months ago, writes from Los Angeles that they are having a fine visit. It is uncertain how much longer they will remain. His wrist is still in a cast and his hip is quite strong, he says. Miss Abbie is attending a manual training school and they are enjoying the visit immensely.

Attended Commencement.—M.

and Mrs. John D. Goss are expected home on the late afternoon train from Berkeley where they have been attending the graduation exercises at the University of California. Roger Goss was one of the large class that this month graduated from the courses. He may go east this summer, taking a transcontinental auto tour with some friends and enter Columbia University in New York next year for post graduate work.

Does Well in Sweden.—Joel Ostlund in writing his brother here, Jen Ostlund, from Stockholm, Sweden, says that he is getting along very manwell. He has charge of the piano manufacturing business left by his father who died a year ago. The business at the factory has been as good in the first three months of this year as it was in all of 1915. Business in all lines is prosperous and everyone seems to have and to be making money. Joel Ostlund left here several months ago after living here for some time. He has a great many friends in Marshfield.

Has New System.—Perhaps nowhere else than in the fertile brain of H. S. Murphy could such a clever ventilating plan have been evolved. All day long he has been sitting in the John D. Goss offices, working away for days and then it finally dawned on him that the smoke settled down about him like a cloud. Yesterday when he lighted his cigar at the same time he turned an electric button and a fan went into action. This shoots the smoke through an open window, sometimes in such a cloud that passersby think the building is on fire. Just whose campaign cigars he is airing he did not state.

Coming in Full Force.—The Cherrians, of Salem, have perfected their full plans for the invasion of Coos Bay during the Railroad Celebration, expecting to come via a special train with their band. All they want now is the date. A. R. Wilson, secretary of the Cherrians, writing for "King Bing," says, "You may rest assured we will be with you and if you can get away from this bunch of hyenas alive you will have something to be thankful for the rest of your lives. I would suggest your entrenching and ordering a battery of rapid fire guns, also a few submarines just for self protection. Or at least order one keg of Kentucky Blue Grass."
