

LINCOLN COUNTY LEADER.

J. F. STEWART, Editor and Proprietor.

Published every Thursday at Toledo, Lincoln County, Oregon.

Subscription Rates:
 One year, $1.50
 Six months, .75
 Three months, .50

Entered at the postoffice at Toledo, Oregon, as second-class mail matter.

Advertising rates made known, on application

Business locals will be inserted in these columns at five cents per line per week, and will be run until ordered discontinued.

Every postmaster in Lincoln county is authorized to act as agent for the LEADER.

Official County Paper.

A PAPER FREE!

For the purpose of securing delinquent subscriptions and inducing new subscribers we make the following liberal offer: We will give the Toledo Blade free for one year to all new cash subscribers who subscribe before October 15; also to all subscribers who are one year or more in arrears who will pay up to date.

LOCAL NOTES

The trade center—Gowell's.
 Mrs. T. P. Fish is quite sick.
 Make your wants known at Gowell's.
 Chattel mortgages for sale at this office.
 Sheriff Landis went to Newport Tuesday evening.
 Lee Wade made a business trip to the Agency Monday.
 Our fishermen are all making good catches these nights.
 C. B. Crosno carries his arm in a sling, caused by a felon on his thumb.
 The Red Seal Lye or Potash is the best. For sale at Tellefson's store, Yaquina.
 The best cake in the United States is the Hoe Cake Soap, for sale at Peter Tellefson's, Yaquina.
 Fred Ross went to Salem yesterday morning, where he will pitch for the Salem ball nine during the fair.
 W. J. Wade and sons Seth, Ben, and Dye, left last Sunday for a few days' hunt in the vicinity of Otter Rock.
 Go to Gorman's, at Yaquina, if you want to buy latest improved Wheeler & Wilson sewing machines, at wholesale prices.
 Mr. and Mrs. Landis visited with Dr. Wakefield and family, of Eddyville, from Saturday morning until Monday evening.
 Miss Lola Vincent returned to this place last evening from Salt Lake City, where she had been spending the summer with her father.
 S. L. Kline paid a business visit to Lincoln county last week, and says Toledo is one of the most thriving towns in Oregon.—Corvallis Gazette.
 Albert Meaker shipped another load of cattle to the Valley this morning. He also shipped a carload of hogs. The hogs came from the Siletz.
 The steamer Richardson came up today and moved Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Campbell with their household furniture, etc., to Newport, where they will take charge of the Bay View house.
 There will be a grand hoppickers' dance at Jones' hall in this town tomorrow (Friday) night. Rosebrooks' orchestra will furnish the music. Tickets 50 cents. While this is called a hoppickers dance yet it is intended that not hoppickers alone but that everybody should come and take part in having a good time.

It pays to trade at Gowell's. Trolling is the sport of the day. Winter rains the first of the week. The saw mill started up again today.

Gowell sells all the popular brands of goods.
 R. A. Bensell was up from Newport last Tuesday.
 Ira Wade is enjoying the presence of a felon on his hand these days.

G. T. Smith and A. Rae were down from Storrs last Tuesday.
 Judge Stearns came up from Alsea Bay last Monday morning.

Lincoln county has a Klondike, and Gowell sells and buys everything.
 Al Hoskins and family of Newport left for California an Saturday morning's train.

Charley Hyde returned home last Monday after an absence of several weeks.
 Mrs. J. O. Carter and children and Misses Caddie and Nona Hooker of Storrs, were in town today.
 Ross & Bogue caught 102 salmon on Monday night. Pretty good catch for this time of the season.

Peter Tellefson, Yaquina, has a full line of fresh fruit, and are selling same at low figures.
 Quite a number of teams are coming in to buy fish. Two loads went out Monday morning.

You can at any time find a full stock of flour and feed, oats and wheat at Peter Tellefson's, Yaquina.
 There has been thirteen houses built in Toledo during the past summer, and several more will be built yet this fall.

Frankie Harmon and family left for Waitsburg, Washington last Wednesday morning, where they will engage in farming.
 The addition to the Fischer building, occupied by Gowell's store, is nearing completion and will soon be ready for occupancy.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Vincent can, we think, boast of having lately eaten the largest chicken in the county. The fowl weighed twelve pounds.
 Mrs. G. E. Davis, accompanied by her cousin Miss Etta Campbell, of Corvallis, came down from Pioneer last evening, and are visiting Mrs. Davis' mother here.

Clarence Atree got the contract for doing the grading for the extension of the switch, and had a force of men and teams at work the latter part of last week and a part of this week.

Agent Gaither, Dr. Turner, Sam Center and John McGee, of the Agency and J. F. Stewart, of this place are on a business and pleasure trip down the Siletz River this week.
 Nearly all of the hop pickers have returned and reported having had a fine time. They bring considerable money home with them and we suppose the country will be running over with money for the next few weeks.

The will of the late Samuel Case was filed for probate with the clerk last Tuesday. The instrument was executed August 16, 1897. After directing the payment of all just debts and funeral expenses and setting apart of $1,000 for the education of his daughter Carrie Case; $500 for the education of his daughter Nora Case, and $2,000 for the education of Roy Case, the balance of the property is to be divided equally among his wife, Mary Case, and his five children, Nellie Buckley, Ida Ingalls, Nora L. Case, Roy Case and Carrie Case. His wife, Mary Case, and two sons-in-law, John Buckley and W. S. Ingalls are named to act jointly as executrix and executors. M. S. Woodcock, of Corvallis, is named as legal adviser.

Gowell sells an average bill for less money than any house on the Bay.
 The largest and nicest salmon of the season was caught last Friday night by Messrs. Bogue and Ross, and weighed 51 pounds.

A mistake was made in our last issue in announcing preaching by Rev. Ellsworth last Sunday. Rev. Ellsworth is to preach here next Sunday, October 3, at 11 a. m.

Chester Holden came over from Tillamook last Saturday evening for a week's visit among friends here. Chester has a host of friends here who are more than glad to greet him. He reports everything lively at Tillamook, three creameries running at full blast there.

GRAND BALL.

The I. O. O. F. lodge of Elk City will give a grand ball at that place on Friday evening, October 8th, the occasion is to celebrate the first anniversary of that order in that place. The receipts of the dance will be used in furnishing the lodge room. See posters.

Assessor Lutz furnishes us the following copy of the summary sheet taken from the 1897 assessment roll, showing valuation of all taxable property in Lincoln county:

Value of tillable land.....	$52,174
" of non-tillable land.....	320,560
" improvements on land.....	53,955
" all lots.....	203,402
" Imp. on town lots.....	55,985
" Imp. on land not deeded or patented.....	10,470
" miles of R. R. bed.....	41,100
" R. R. rolling stock.....	33,437
" telegraph & telephone lines.....	872
" merchandise and stock in trade.....	20,469
" farming implements, wagons, etc.....	4,101
" steamboats, sail boats, stationary engines, etc.....	16,700
Amount of money.....	500
Amount of notes & accounts.....	25,337
Value of shares of stock.....	150
" household furniture.....	15,756
" horses and mules.....	7,415
" cattle.....	21,726
" sheep and goats.....	4,516
" swine.....	197
Gross value all property.....	$388,862
Exemptions, number 112, $.....	57,103
Total taxable property.....	$331,759
Number of polls.....	279.

STATE FAIR TICKETS FREE.

The Statesman Is Giving Them Away to Its Weekly Readers.

The big 12 page Weekly Statesman, of Salem has added 327 new subscribers to its list during the past five weeks. It wants the number to reach 1000 before Nov. 1st. It is Salem's leading paper and is only $1.50 per year. In order to secure these new names the Statesman will this week receive trial subscriptions of two months for only 25c—and each new subscriber will be presented with a ticket of admission to the state fair. The new names will be numbered as fast as received and every fifth one will be presented with two free tickets. Address all orders to the Statesman, Salem, Oregon.

Tetter, Salt-Rheum and Eczema.
 The intense itching and smarting incident to these diseases, is instantly allayed by applying Chamberlain's Eye and Skin Ointment. Many very bad cases have been permanently cured by it. It is equally efficient for itching piles and a favorite remedy for sore nipples, chapped hands, chilblains, frost bites and chronic sore eyes. 25 cts. per box.

Dr. Cady's Condition Powders, are just what a horse needs when in bad condition. Tonic, blood purifier and vermifuge. They are not food but medicine and the best in use to put a horse in prime condition. Price 25 cents per package.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents.
 Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists.

GOWELL'S, Toledo, Ore.
 The Trade Center of Lincoln County.

If You want the county to Subscribe for the LEADER

FURNITURE
 We HAVE A LARGE STOCK OF
FURNITURE, STOVES
 AND HOUSE FURNISHING
Coffins, Caskets and Burial Supplies
 Call and See my stock.
FASH & GAAR, Toledo

ELK CITY ITEMS.

Appearance of fall rain.
 Hop pickers have arrived from the Valley just in time.
 Dr. Carter's family have moved to Philomath.
 Elk City school commenced Monday with the usual attendance. Mrs. C. W. Young, of Salado, is teacher.
 J. H. Van Orden and son, George, came up from Toledo the first of the week, where they have been for the past month doing some carpenter work for Henry Lewis.
 F. C. Hoffman will soon have the machinery at work in the Sunset Quarry in the shape of a saw-mill for sawing stone. In this manner the stone will be cut to the size required at the quarry, and save the freight on waste rock.
 Lester Waugh, of Toledo, was among the cattle buyers visiting this vicinity during the last week.
 Mrs. Royal Skaggs, from Idaho, a former resident of this place, is visiting friends here.

It is reported that the Pioneer and Rochester quarries both have large contracts from San Francisco.

I. W. Deyoe spent a couple of days among the pheasants in the vicinity of Philomath last week, the result of which was every body at Elk City enjoyed a mess of China birds, and for his kindness and good will we will permit him to go again.

We have expected for the past two years to furnish the next agent for the Siletz agency, but from the appearances now we will be obliged to place a stay chain upon another old wheel-horse in the republican ranks.

BATTLE AXE.
 September 29, 1897.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away.
 To quit tobacco easily and forever, be manly, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

Allen Logan, the big man-laugher in the big Independence last week, returned to his home at It is very doubtful whether struck the fatal blow. to have been a general were using clubs. The innocent of all intent to crime, and may be indicted of even striking the killed the man.—Union.

Hotel Arrivals.

The following is a list at the popular Toledo Hotel the past week:
 P. M. Abbey, Newport; Murphy, Independence; Wade, Turner; Dr. Carter, City; Geo. Van Orden, E. Geo. King, Yaquina; F. Portland; J. H. Wilson, Bob Ingalls, Newport; J. Siletz; Geo. Stovall, J. G. Callison, Salem; Phillips, Siletz; C. W. San Francisco; John Newport; M. M. Davis, Yaquina.

A Cure for Bilious Colic.

Resource, Scriven Co. I have been subject to bilious colic for several Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera Diarrhoea Remedy is the relief. It acts like a charm, dose of it gives relief when er remedies fail.—G. D. For sale by O. O. Krogsdal, gist.

It Saves the Croupy Children

Seaview, Va.—We have did sale on Chamberlain's Remedy, and our customers ing from far and near speak the highest terms. Many that their children would of croup if Chamberlain's Remedy had not been given lam & Ourren. The 25 and sizes for sale by O. O. Krogsdal, druggist.