

Three Fatal Accidents.

Last Friday evening 12-year old Harold Chitwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Chitwood, of Chitwood, went out to drive home the cows, taking his rifle with him. Waiting a reasonable length of time for his return the father started out to hunt him. After searching but a short time he came on to the dead body of his son. The cause of the accident is not known but it is supposed the hammer in some way was caught, discharging the weapon, the bullet entering the boy's head. The death of this son occurred exactly five months after the sudden death of an older son, Rufus.

Tuesday afternoon while working in the logging camp on Depot slough John Gatens, 19 years old, was struck by a cable and instantly killed. He was behind a stump when the line whipped over striking him on the back of the head and crushing the skull. He was the son of Game Warden James Gatens of Ona. The following morning the body was taken to the home for burial.

Thursday of last week an unknown man was drowned while attempting to cross the mouth of the Siletz bay on a raft. The tide was running out as he attempted to cross and he was carried to sea, and the body has not been recovered. The intention of the man in making the attempt, whether suicidal or otherwise, will always remain a mystery.

Decoration Day.

The members of the Grand Army and Woman's Relief Corps and citizens observed Decoration Day in this city. In the morning they marched to the cemetery and decorated the graves and in the evening services were held at the courthouse. Rev. Pearce, acting as chairman, made a short but interesting speech then introduced Rev. J. R. N. Bell of Corvallis, who came over on the evening train to address our people. Rev. Bell is one of the speakers in the state, and having been a soldier in the thickest of the battles during the entire four years of the war, had many interesting incidents to relate. The speaker's principal point was that that the war is ended and that this the greatest country on earth was again united stronger than ever before. The speaker was talking to the men that were his deadliest enemies during the conflict, but he left no doubt in the minds of his hearers that all enmity and strife was ended and that all were brothers.

Remember tomorrow afternoon is the date of the school election, held for the purpose of voting bonds for the building of a new school building. Nothing enhances the value of property like the having of good schools and buildings. It is up to you as a good citizen of Toledo to provide your children with the best educational advantages. Vote yes.

Port Commissioners Lee Wade and J. F. Stewart went to Portland Monday to consult with Government Engineers regarding the port and the work to be done here. While in the city they employed an engineer to make a survey of the river. The engineer will be here and begin the survey the first of next week. At the meeting of the board of commissioners last week it was decided to make a channel from the city wharf at Toledo to deep water at the west end of the port district at Oysterville a depth of fourteen feet.

The Truant took a crowd of over sixty to Newport last Saturday night to see the boxing contest. As the steamer is allowed to carry but fifty passengers she towed the launch Chicora. The crowd was well pleased with the boxing exhibition, which consisted of two six round bouts, first between Geer of Elk City and Sharkey of Newport. The second bout was between McElwain of Toledo and Fogarty of Newport. All the boys displayed much science in the art of self defence. A jolly time was had on the boat coming home.
