INFERNAL MACHINE HOAX.

Washington Story Outgrowth of Joke on Green Reporter.

Washington, D. C.—Hazing of a green reporter by a veteran White House newspaperman has been given as the solution of a story sent broadcast over the country by special dispatches and a certain news agency, and printed in many morning papers, to the effect that an infernal machine had been sent to President Taft and that Assistant Secretary Sherman Allen, in opening it, had narrowly escaped death.

When the new reporter entered the executive offices Thursday night he was asked: "Did you get the infernal machine story?" He said he had not, and then, with great detail, he was told the yarn.

When the young man became excited the hoaxers told him the whole thing was a joke, but the report already had spread throughout the country through his agency. All attempts by the secret service to "kill" the report then only aroused further suspicion, and the story was widely credited; the White House was deluged with telegrams from far and near and the wildest rumors developed.

The original report was that Allen's hands had been badly burned when he grasped the sputtering fuse of the infernal machine, but the hands of the assistant secretary exhibited no scars. And the White House newspapermen, including the hoax reporter, were asked to circulate a declaration that the White House did not wish to dignify such an absurd report by an official denial.

EAGLE POINT ITEMS.

Editor Tidings: As you were kind enough to publish an article I sent you some time ago, I thought that perhaps it might be well to try your patience again.

Since I last wrote there have been no special changes in Eagle Point, although there is considerable business being done. Since my last, Louis Smith and Mrs. Dasey Evans went to Ashland to visit her mother, and Roy Willets and his brother Merle have been to Ashland on business—that is, Roy went on business and his brother went to keep him company, while on the road. Roy Willets is the contractor for carrying the mail from here to Prospect.

W. E. Hammel's father and brother arrived from the east a few days ago. They were met at the train by W. E. and taken right to the Hammel farm about five miles north of here.

C. K. Carey of Talent has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. William Knighton of this place.

The P. & E. Railroad Company have put a small force of men to work on the railroad.

Rev. L. L. Simmons, recently from the state of Washington, has located among us and taken charge of the Baptist church of this place. He seems to have made a good impression and hopes are entertained that he will not only be acceptable but will become a power for good. He is successor to Rev. Lamar, who has been pastor here for some time and who now has charge of the church in Central Point.

Mr. A. Corbin, the man who bought the old Bradshaw orchard between here and Brownsboro, is having the old dwelling house remodeled and enlarged and is building a large packing house and having the old packing house cut up into rooms for the accommodation of the laborers on the place.

Since my last the I. O. O. F. have had the installation of the following officers by D. D. G. M. Frank Salter, assisted by D. G. M. P. B. Diamond: N. G., C. S. Painter; V. G., B. H. Bryant; secretary, Charles A. Bacon; treasurer, W. L. Childreth; R. S. N. G., Homer Hess; L. S. N. G., Norman McQuoid; R. S. V. G., Clay Cole; L. S. V. N., W. J. Phillips; R. S. S., Scott Bruce; L. S. S., Jake Jonas; chaplain, Dr. W. W. P. Holt; I. S. S., James Ringer; O. S. G., Robert R. Minter. The lodge of I. O. O. F. was organized a few months ago and the new officers were installed on the 7th.

There is a move on foot to organize a woman's suffrage club here on Monday, the 22nd, and I will try to tell your readers something of the result if this is not thrown into the wastebasket. DICK.

FOSS BREAKS RECORD.

Massachusetts Governor Has Pardoned Over Hundred.

Boston.—Governor Eugene Foss of this state has established a world's record for pardoning criminals. During the first year of his term he opened prison doors to 77 inmates. So far this year 55 have been freed. In addition there has been the commutation of one death penalty to life imprisonment. He has released two prisoners who were serving life sentences for murder in the first degree and who have escaped execution by commutation, and 19 men who were serving life sentences for murder in the second degree.

DISAGREEMENT PROBABLE.

Naval Appropriations Bill May Be Curtailed.

Washington, D. C.—Tillman's refusal to abandon the $300,000 improvement item at the Charleston navy yard, and the demand of the house that all battleships be cut out of this year's building program, will probably result in a disagreement over the naval appropriation bill.

An effort is under way, however, to secure a compromise in the house whereby one battleship will be agreed to.

Money to loan on improved ranches, first mortgages; mixed farms preferred. W. D. Hodgson, Ashland. Phone 427-J.

Second Week Better Than Ever

McGee's Clearance Sale

The clearance sale grows in interest. The fourth day was better than the first. That is because the values given are real bargains and the patrons come back again.

Many new items will be added this week to the list of sale goods.

Watch Wednesday's Valley Record for announcement.

Still Closing Out!

We are still closing out every garment in our ladies' and children's ready-to-wear department at cost and less.

This means a saving of big dollars to everyone buying suits, coats, waists, skirts, dresses, sweaters, muslin underwear, umbrellas, parasols, children's hats and many lots of ladies' and children's underwear, hosiery, etc.

Other stores can't get down to our prices for the reason that we are simply cutting down stock regardless of cost on many lines.

This won't last more than a week or two longer, so lay in your supply.
