SUFFRAGE SURE TO WIN

So Say Eastern Supporters of the Movement-Leaders Are Confident.

Portland, Ore .- After an investigation of equal suffrage conditions in Oregon, Miss Mary Wood and Miss Helen Varick Boswell of New York say they believe the women of Oregon will be granted the ballot after the election in November.

The cause of suffrage in New York has been advanced more by proper organization than in any other way," said Miss Wood. "The sufragists have a captain to direct the work and a place of meeting. The members attend the public meetings, find out the sentiments of candidates, and make a house-to-house canvass by which they are enabled to judge of the strength of the suffrage movement. These methods should be pursued here. The precinct workers, but recently organized under Mrs. A., C. Newill, have set about their work on the right lines and they will accomplish a wonderful amount of good

'All indications point to a successful issue at the polls. I have spoken to many men on the subject since my arrival in Oregon, and one prominent business man told me that he had no doubt but that equal suffrage would pass. City and rural conditions are favorable. I think that the fact that Oregon is surrounded by suffrage states will have a good infinence with the voters.

I have met some of the so-called anti-suffragists, and not one seemed as if she had real convictions against the movement, but rather was opposed because of jury service and other duties to which she might be liable. As 1 pointed out to these women, very few voters now serve marines, thus practically cutting the on juries or want to do so, yet they would be indignant if their privilege were taken away from them for that reason.

frightful accidents recorded in the county occurred last Thursday, when a team of mules driven by Henry Doan, a rancher on Little Mc-Kay creek, became unmanageable and ran away in the field where James Doan was operating a mower.

As the mules struck the mower the machine was overturned and the team of horses drawing it started off at a mad gait. Doan was thrown from his seat and dragged for a considerable distance, one wheel of the mower passing over his body. Having freed themselves from the mower and driver, the excited team dashed on until a deep open well was encountered and both animals plunged into the same.

Before aid could reach them the horses were dead. The injured man, James Doan, was rushed by automobile to the hospital, where it was found his hip was broken, and only by skilled surgical aid were two fingers on his left hand saved. A long scalp wound was also sustained, as well as severe body bruises and cuts. Witnesses to the accident marvel that Doan was not killed outright when the wheel of the mower passed over him. That he escaped without being cut to pieces by the mower is considered marvelous. Physicians say he will recover.

ADMIRAL AND CITY IN TILT.

Charleston Gate of Navy Ward Is Closed and Trade Is Diverted.

Puget Sound Navy Yard .- Ordering the close of the Charleston gate of the navy ward to all sailors and town of Charleston off from all trade from the yard, Rear Admiral V. L. Cottman has made an emphatic protest against the refusal of Charleston city council to revoke the license of the fourth saloon in the town.

Charleston formerly had four saloons, but one of the licenses was revoked last year because the place was improperly conducted. This left but three bars, and the city authorities so reported to Admiral Cottman at the beginning of this year.

Since that time the new marine barracks have been completed and occupied at the Charleston end of the yard. Recently George W. Oklahoma's Blind Senator And His Wife at Baltimore

LTHOUGH it is not true, as some reports have it, that Senator Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma, is attended on all his journeys by his wife, it is a fact that his wide reading is accomplished through her. While he was practicing law she aided him by reading to him the authorities on his cases, and she still pursues with him his studies of political economy, history and biography, which form the bulk of their reading. Their first meeting took place at a combination political gathering and picnic such as are common in the southwest, and the young man then and there determined that Miss Kay should be his wife. When the blind lawyer decided to make the campaign for the senatorship his wife and his brother entered actively into the work of canvassing in his behalf and conducted his entire correspondence. So helpful has Mrs. Gore been to her husband that, it is said, he does not think of his blindness as a cause for complaint or unhappiness, his only worry being her rather delicate health. The photograph here reproduced was taken at the Baltimore convention,

FROG LIVES IN STOMACH, Egg Swallowed in Drinking Water Just Before Hatching.

Washington .- A frog that crawled and clawed and croaked lived for nearly a year in the stomach of Mrs. L. V. King of Deanwood.

After clawing away at the lining of the woman's stomach until it was raw, almost strangling her as it climbed into her throat, and reducing her to a living skeleton, it was finally extracted by physicians of the emergency hospital by a large pump. The frog is preserved in alcohol

It is a weak, colorless, wrinkled, shapeless specimen which bears a faint resemblance to the normal frog. It's legs are long and scrawny and thin as toothpicks. It measures about seven inches.

Just as it was breaking out of the egg, the tadpole was swallowed by Mrs, King in well water last August Weeks passed before the woman realized there was some living animal in her stomach. She consulted doctors. but they laughed.

Last spring the frog, then reaching its full growth, began to climb into her throat and nearly suffocated her. It clawed away at the membrane until she fainted with pain, Still the doctors, when told of her

Two months ago, Mrs. King declares, the frog began to croak. She distinctly heard it, and her relatives bear her out. This determined her to leave the physicians of Deanwood alone and consult "city doctors."

She did so. She went to the emergency hospital and the frog was pumped out. The frog lived for ten minutes in a tub of water. It croaked just like any regular frog. Then it died.

According to physicians, this is the first time on record that any animal as large as a frog has lived in a human stomach as much as eleven months.

NEW SPEED RECORD.

Minute on Typewriter.

Spokane, Wash .- The world's typewriter speed record for one hour's continuous writing on unfamiliar copy was broken Thursday by Miss Florence E. Wilson of New York, in the national contests held under the auspices of the National Commercial Teachers' Federation.

Miss Wilson copied, 7,219 words in the hour, with 68 errors. Deducting five words for each error, this gave her a net score of 6,879, or an average of 115 words a minute. The former record, held by H. O. Blaisdell of New York, was 112 words a minute.

The amateur championship for operators who have operated a typewriter less than three years was won by Miss Bessie Friedman of New York, who wrote 3,208 words in 30 minutes, or an average of 107 words. This broke the former record held by Gus Trefzger of New York, of 98 words.
