

The Power of Money

is exemplified every day. The chance to make a good real estate buy—the chance to get into business—the chance to furnish a partner's capital—but you can't avail yourself of any of the opportunities because you haven't saved up any money.

Begin to save TODAY!

GRANITE CITY SAVINGS BANK

Ashland, Oregon

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Mrs. George Noble of Klamath county is here visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casey.

Miss Nissley has returned for her work in the public schools.

Cliff Payne makes wardrobes.

Wright Brothers are building a new barn on their property near the Bellview school house.

Miss Ethel Patty is ill at her home on Auburn street.

Mining location blanks for sale at the Tidings office.

Misses Belle and Hazel Moore of Harrington, Wash., are guests at the home of their uncle, Mr. John Patty. Their parents expect to move to Ashland soon.

F. Herrin, Jack Bailey and F. Ramsey left Saturday for a duck hunt on Klamath river and lakes.

The Natatorium swimming pool is fine these days. Near the heart of town.

Mrs. Justin Brand of Gresham, Ore., is here visiting her cousins, H. R. and C. B. Lamkin. She is already entranced with Ashland and the country in general.

Mrs. H. S. Palmerlee left Thursday for Oklahoma City, Okla., for a two months' visit with her sister.

The full line of Polytechnic School books and supplies are carried at the East Side Pharmacy.

Mrs. Baesemann of Wausau, Wis., sister-in-law of H. F. Pohland, arrived Thursday for a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Pohland. Mr. Pohland had not seen her for 42 years.

Robert Forbes of Duluth, Minn., is visiting at the home of O. L. Young on Granite street.

W. C. Sanderson and family returned the latter part of the week from Deadwood, in the Dead Indian country. They brought back 40 gallons of huckleberries.

Harold Roberts returned to his home in Cedarville, Cal., Saturday, after a two months' stay in Ashland.

Miss Gertrude Engle is home from her work in the summer school at Berkeley. She returned by boat from San Francisco to Coos Bay, where she spent several weeks visiting old friends, coming across from that point to Roseburg by stage and home over the Southern Pacific.

Thomas Williamson of Philen, Ariz., is visiting his parents at 43 Church street. Saturday they went to Lily Glen for a few days' outing at the Lindsay ranch.

Berlin, the ladies' tailor, will be in Ashland September 11 and 12. Every lady who wishes to have beautiful hand-made suits by expert men tailors should call at the Hotel Oregon, September 11 and 12.

Mrs. Emma Fulton of Ohio is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. J. Edwards, on Laurel street. This is her first trip west and she is delighted with this section. She will remain until some time in October.

George Irwin and wife, Robert Casey and Miss Norridge returned Thursday from the huckleberry patch near Lake of the Woods, bringing with them 70 gallons of huckleberries and a fine buck. Mr. Casey says he got the buck. On the day of their arrival, 144 persons were encamped on the shores of the lake.

J. M. Potter, who was operated on for strangulated hernia at the Granite City Hospital last week, is reported to be doing well.

Ashland-Klamath Exchange will buy all your empty sacks.

Mrs. W. T. Van Scoy returned Friday from an extended visit in Iowa. She says the Van Scoy family back there are all standing pat on the presidential election, the professor here being the only real progressive in the lot. Mrs. Hartley accompanied her, returning Thursday.

W. H. Norman of Central Point was at visitor at the Riley home on B street over Sunday.

The Electric Shoe Shop is all equipped and ready for business, 343 East Main street.

Charles O'Gara, from the Black Hills district of South Dakota, is in the valley visiting his brother, P. J. O'Gara. He was given a view of Ashland and the upper end of the valley by C. B. Lamkin last Saturday and expressed himself as highly pleased with the conditions here.

Mrs. M. V. Norman, mother of Mrs. M. B. Riley, left Thursday for Wynnewood, Okla., for a visit of two months.

Protect yourself against loss by fire, but see Cliff Payne before you take out a policy—he can save you money.

The Misses Rose Bodays and Martha Fordney left for Salem Saturday, the former to resume her school duties at Sacred Heart Academy, the latter for a visit to northern points, after which she will resume her studies in the Western College of Music.

Lawson Riley returned Saturday from a hike to Pelican Bay. He caught a nine-pound trout, next to the largest catch of the season at that point.

Mrs. Ross Applegate left Saturday for a two months' visit with relatives in Dodge Center, Minn.

J. L. Grubb, son, Larkin, and daughters, Amy and Katie, returned Saturday from a week's vacation in the Dead Indian country. They visited Swastika and Lake of the Woods, returning with 18 gallons of huckleberries.

Rev. H. T. Chisholm and wife have returned from a month's camping trip on Hoxey creek, in the Brush mountain district. They report a delightful vacation. Rev. Chisholm was successful in bagging a fine five-point buck.

O. A. Stillman, candidate for congress from the first district, was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Putnam, former acquaintances and close friends. Mr. Stillman's father was a prominent lawyer of Wisconsin, while his mother was a school teacher for fifty years.

SPIRELLA CORSETS.—Boned with the most flexible and indestructible corset boning, guaranteed not to break in regular corset wear. Phone 263-R. Residence, 369 Hargadine.

A. W. McPherson has returned from Sacramento, where he went in response to a call to the bedside of his boy. The child died from a relapse after measles. Mrs. McPherson, it is reported, went on to Mexico. Mr. McPherson brought the remaining two children back with him.

Will Myer and wife, their daughter, Bernice, and Edith Moody returned Friday from a ten days' trip to the Dead Indian country. They spent the time in picking huckleberries, returning with 30 gallons.

Word has been received here that Prof. H. A. Scullen, graduate of the Ashland normal school, class of 1906, has been elected to a professorship in Iowa State College at Ames, Iowa. He left with his wife recently for the new field.

Ashland friends of Mrs. W. L. Mellinger will regret to learn of an accident to her in a runaway in Nebraska. Mrs. Mellinger suffered three fractured ribs. The children, who were in the rig with her, escaped without injury. Mr. Mellinger has recently submitted to an operation for a complication of troubles in Kansas City. He hopes now to regain his health, which has been poor of late.

W. M. U. Meeting.

The Woman's Missionary Union of the Congregational church will meet Friday afternoon with Mrs. A. E. Northland at 1193 Boulevard. Mrs. Northland and Mrs. Gray will entertain.

If It Rains Wednesday.

In case of rain on Wednesday the Equal Suffrage Club basket picnic will be held in G. A. R. hall instead of the park. The speaking will be in the Chautauqua building as advertised.

O. E. S. Meeting.

Alpha chapter No. 1, O. E. S., will meet in regular session Tuesday evening, September 3, to resume labor, after having suspended during the summer.

By order of worthy matron, LEAH M. CALDWELL, Sec.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its annual election of officers Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 p. m., in the parlors of the Methodist church. Delegates to the county convention also elected members to be present.

By order of president.

Miss Benedict Wins.

Prof. Van Scoy announces that the prize offered by the Tidings for securing the greatest number of scholarships for the Polytechnic College has been awarded to Miss Pina Benedict, who will take the normal course offered by that institution.

Scale receipts at Tidings office.

FINE FALL CLOTHES

A REVERSAL OF PRECEDENT

¶ We are taking no chances on this season's business. We are going after it to get it and get it early. We are making an absolute reversal of precedent in starting the season's business with price reductions. Our determination is to make a complete turn of this stock in two months' selling at a smaller profit but with some profit on every garment.

Prices Cut on All New Fall Suits

SEPTEMBER SUIT SALE BEGINS WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 4th

Cash only. Extra help in this department.

NAVY SERGE SUITS, ALL SIZES, SEPTEMBER SALE, $15.00.

Fall style in good quality serge, yarn-dye satin lining, one breast pocket. A suit we expected to make a leader of at $16.50, but now placed on sale at $15.00.

$18.50 SUITS, SEPTEMBER SALE $16.50.

Including mostly fancy mixtures. Jackets plain tailored or Norfolk. Mostly finger-tip lengths. We felt when marking these suits at $18.50 that they were exceptional bargains, but under our new plan for selling this fall the price is $16.50.

$22.50 SUITS, SEPTEMBER SALE $18.75.

The suits we have marked at $20.00 to $22.50 include a lot of exceptionally well made serges and mixtures, most of them lined with Skinner's satin. Belted effects and plain tailored. Never have such suits been offered in Ashland and an opening price of $18.75.

$25.00 SUITS OPEN AT $22.00.

$25.00 has always purchased more quality and style here than usually go into garments of this price. This is our big line. Chevots, serges and fancy mixtures, shields, Skinner's satin, man tailoring. September sale, $22.00.

$27.50 SUITS AT $23.50.

The regular price cannot convey to your minds the style and excellent workmanship on these garments. You must see them to know.

$32.50 AND $30.00 SUITS $27.50.

Our best suits can be bought at season's opening at December prices. Get a full season's use of your garment by buying early.

LADIES' AND MISSES' COATS.

We are unable to quote a range of prices on coats as they have not yet arrived, but assurance is given that prices will be in accordance with those on suits. Shipment is due this week.

No big opening profit. There is no reason why you should not buy early this year and get a full season's wear while the garments are in good style. We wish to close out every suit by the end of October.

BEDDING PRICES.

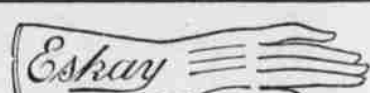

There is NOTHING SMALL about our new comforters. The fault many find with ready-made comforters is that they are too small. Direct mill shipment. Full size 78x84 comforter, 5 1/2 lbs. weight, covered and lined with fine printed silkoline, $3.25. 72x78, covered with fine silkoline border with plain to match, lined with printed silkoline, $2.90. Mill shipment of wool blankets, splendid values at $3.75 to $6.00. All-wool plaid blankets, 1 1/4 size, a very slightly blanket and splendid quality, $5.00. Cotton blankets 50c to $3.50 per pair.

NEW DRESS GOODS.

800 yards of new things in wool dress goods. A most complete showing of serges, diagonals, tweeds, chinchillas, cloakings and suitings. Imported and Oregon made. Shipment just received. 98c to $3.00 yard. A good 54-inch Oregon made suiting 98c yard. Beautifully shaded chinchillas for coats and Norfolk $3.00 yard. All qualities between. 49c buys regular 60c to 65c mohairs, batistes, serges, etc. We are going stronger than ever after this popular-priced trade.

LADIES' SWEATER COATS.

The season's favorite, the popular rough-neck sweater, heavy Shaker yarn, pockets that cannot sag, a splendid value at $5.00. Ladies' heavy rough-neck; white, gray and cardinal, at $3.50. Extra good one at a special, $2.49. Misses' sweaters $1.00 to $2.75. Infants' knit romper suits $1.25. Infants' knit sets, coat, leggings and cap to match, $1.75 and $2.00. Watch for the high school hat, the fad at colleges. For both boys and girls. High school colors, cardinal with white band.

TWO FAMOUS GLOVES.

DERBY—Two-clasp, heavy kid glove, one of the best all-service gloves made, $1.75. ESKAY—Fine French kid, two-clasp, absolutely no better glove on the market at $1.50.

ASHLAND, OREGON.

Pictorial Review Patterns and Publications

Fall Quarterly Style Book 20c. Embroidery Book 10c. The September Pictorial Review Magazine on sale September 17 will be a big Fall Fashion number.

AMERICAN BANKERS ASSOCIATION TRAVELERS' CHEQUES

The Citizens Banking and Trust Co.

issues "A. B. A." Cheques and recommends them to tourists. The safest and most convenient travel funds. Hotels all over the world are glad to cash them for guests. Railways, steamship lines, and the best shops generally, accept them.

A Day of Sams.

This is a day of Sams. Sam Potter takes over a rooming house on Fourth street, Sam Netherland becomes proprietor of the Ashland hotel, and Sam Lindsay takes possession of the Star Laundry. So many Sams switching about in one day has not heretofore been known in Ashland.

Owing to the failure of the rice crop in Siam and Burmah, the price has now reached the highest point ever known.

Your Property Insured

The moment you allow your fire insurance to run out is the time a fire generally occurs. Many a man has been made poor by allowing his policy to lapse. Don't let this happen to you. If you don't carry fire insurance, or feel the need of more protection, see

BILLINGS AGENCY

41 E. Main St. Phone 211-J.

Unclaimed Letters.

List of letters remaining in the Ashland postoffice for the week ending August 31, 1912:

Ladies—Mrs. Elvia Bovee, Miss Regina Duffy, Miss Nora Gorman, Mrs. Ella Jennie (2), Mrs. Nelly Johnson, Mrs. L. A. Finder, Miss Mabel Snyder, Miss Zelma Sedge, Mrs. Jessie Spears, Mrs. Anna E. Weeks, Miss Ruth, 177 Main street.

Gentlemen—Harold Arnold, Roy Banta, C. C. Greenham, Mr. Gary, the lampman, Will R. Hancock, Samuel Leven, W. R. Lamb, Thos. J. Lewis, W. H. Parrish, C. L. Radcliff, M. C. Rozin, A. S. Sillsby, Wm. Searles, Roy Wyatt (2), Giovanni Zenic. These letters will be sent to the dead-letter office Sept. 14, 1912, if not called for before. In calling for the above, please say "advertised," giving date of list. A charge of one cent will be made on delivery. JOHN R. CASEY, P. M.

Boy Thrown 50 Feet Only Bruised.

Centralia, Wash.—Jesse Monette, a 16-year-old Centralia boy, was struck by a Great Northern passenger train at a local grade crossing Thursday night, but in spite of the fact that he was hurled 50 feet, no bones were broken. However, the youth was badly bruised around the head and shoulders.

Fall Millinery.

Correct hats at the right prices. Madame Dilhan's Millinery Store.

Carson D. Boren, the last survivor of the party that founded the city of Seattle, is dead.

Bride Weighs 660.

Miss Alpine Blitch, weight 660 pounds, has been married in Brooklyn to Louis H. Aiken, weight 135 pounds. The blushing bride wore 36 yards of pale blue for a dress and a 14-inch bracelet supplied by the groom, and a wedding ring the size of a napkin ring. The wedding was the result of a six-year courtship. Her husband is a printer.

A special committee appointed by Governor Harmon of Ohio has recommended a pension system for widows with children under 14 years of age.

MISS THORNE

Graduate Nurse

64 THIRD STREET
PHONE 809-J.

Ashland Restaurant

BEST MEAL IN TOWN
25 Cents
86 NORTH MAIN.

Only Two Left

We wish to call the attention of prospective buyers to the fact that we have only TWO FORD CARS LEFT in stock and will be unable to secure any more until October. Phone your order now for a

FORD TWENTY, $820

Pellett's Garage