DISTRIBUTING SEED.

Southern Pacific Aiding Flood-Stricken Farmers.

San Francisco, Sept. 18.—The hundreds of thousands of dollars' damage done by the inundation of farming lands because of the overflow of the Mississippi river has been recognized by the Atlantic lines of the Southern Pacific Company and an appropriation has recently been made for the purpose of purchasing and distributing seeds and buds to the small farmers in that territory, thus enabling them to replant their crops and secure some returns from their lands. Many of these farmers had been practically ruined by the floods and the seed contributions have met with a hearty response and appreciation at the hands of the Louisiana farmers.

Few, if any, medicines have met with the uniform success that has attended the use of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. The remarkable cures of colic and diarrhoea which it has effected in almost every neighborhood have given it a wide reputation. For sale by Poley's Drug Store.

Coming Winter Will Be Wet.
Porterville, Colo.—According to the tribesmen of the Tule Indians, the coming fall and winter will be the wettest for the past 50 years. The statement is made in view of the remarkable crop of pine cones—an old Indian sign of winter weather. The Tules are already making preparations for unusually heavy rains. Tourists generally have spoken of the large crop of cones, though whether this sign is an infallible one remains to be seen.
