LOCAL AND PERSONAL

Cliff Payne makes gates. Good rooms at Park Hotel. Mrs. W. G. Lawrence left yesterday for Seattle to visit friends. The Tidings is for sale at W. M. Poley's Drug Store, 17 East Main St. Mrs. Avery Johnson of Chicago, a former resident of Ashland, arrived in this city Friday for an extended stay at the home of Mrs. Ellen H. Wagner. Eldred M. Beaver is down from Portland for a few days. Have your cleaning and pressing done at Fuller's, 81 Oak street. Phone 119. H. S. Newton is over from his ranch in Klamath county, having been called here by the dangerous illness of Mrs. Newton's father, T. J. Miller, who resides with his daughter at 662 A street. Pine blocks, by the wagon load. Would also be glad to sell you a carload. Carson-Smith Lumber Co. 34-3t

S. S. Harsh of Portland is in the city for a few days on business. A. J. Beigle's hardware store is being brightened up by having the plastering, which was discolored, painted. Porter & Sowerby are doing the work. Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Boyd, who arrived in Ashland a few days ago, left Friday afternoon for their future home in Tulare county, California. J. D. Hedgepeth left on No. 15 Friday for Calahan, Cal., on a mining deal. Eyes tested, glasses fitted. Good work, reasonable prices. Residence, 19 Granite street. Phone 217-J for dates. W. A. Freeburg. 34-3t

S. F. Moore, who has been visiting at the home of his brother, Charles Moore, leaves today for his home in Newburg, Ore. Madame Dilhan returned Friday from her trip to Portland. Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Will, who have been spending some time in this city, left this afternoon for Los Angeles, where they will make their home for the present.

Mrs. M. M. Avery of Gold Hill visited at the F. G. McWilliams home and attended the conference, returning home today. Factory blocks for sale. Carson-Smith Lumber Co., phone 98. 34-3t

J. W. Needham of Tacoma and G. W. Needham of Salem have been visiting friends and looking over our city. Born to Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tilt, Talent, Ore., Sunday, September 22, 1912, a son. Mother and child are both doing nicely. Those who are particular about their clothes, order them at Fuller's. He satisfies. Mrs. Mary E. Squire, who had been visiting her cousins, Mrs. R. P. Neil and Miss Hargrove, and other friends for the past month, left today for her home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Doerr of Creighton, Neb., spent a day or so looking over this city and surrounding country. They are much impressed with the valley and may return to make Ashland their home. Warren Taylor and family of Napa, Idaho, were in the city most of last week, Mr. Warren being on a land deal with F. G. McWilliams. Protect yourself against loss by fire, but see Cliff Payne before you take out a policy—he can save you money. 34-3t

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Wright of Forest Grove, formerly of Ashland, are attending the conference and visiting relatives and friends in Ashland. They are guests at the home of their nephew, Thomas Acklin. Mrs. J. D. Ellis and Mr. J. R. Ott were Medford visitors Saturday. SPIRELLA CORSETS.—Boned with the most flexible and indestructible corset boning, guaranteed not to break in regular corset wear. Phone 263-R. Residence, 369 Hargadine. Mrs. Otto T. West, who has been seriously ill at the former home of Ransie Rouse, on Liberty street, is much improved, though still confined to her bed. J. C. Robnett of Central Point was in the city Friday on business. SUNSET MAGAZINE and Ashland Tidings one year $2.75 to old or new subscribers. Regular price of Sunset Magazine is $1.50 per year. A. W. Hubbs, a former Ashland merchant, has been spending several days in the city renewing old acquaintances. He leaves this evening for Albany. While here he assisted in McGee's sale for a few days. Mrs. J. H. Provost has been confined to her bed the past day or two with illness. Mr. and Mrs. Ed Carter of Ashland spent Wednesday in Medford, says the Mail Tribune. Good rooms at Park Hotel. C. T. Bowen, Max Pracht, O. F. Carson and P. S. Provost left Saturday morning for Yreka in Mr. Bowen's auto. They expected to visit Shovel creek and other points before returning, the trip being one to cobline business and pleasure. Mrs. P. S. Provost left Sunday forenoon for Oakland, Cal., called there suddenly by the dangerous illness of her father, William Storm, formerly of this city. The Tidings printery gives satisfaction. Prices reasonable. F. S. Hazelton of Norton, Kan., is a recent arrival here to join his wife, who has been in Ashland for several months past visiting her daughter. Mr. and Mrs. Hazelton are the parents of Mrs. Clark Bush, and incidentally are visiting a number of old-time Kansas friends who are only a degree removed from the immediate family circle. Dr. Lawrence A. Saunders of San Jose, Cal., arrived in this city last week for an indefinite stay. He is a retired physician, and accompanied by his wife the couple are looking for a location in which to enjoy the beauties of scenery and advantages of climate from the health-giving standpoint. I am going, for the next thirty days, to sell off my buggies and spring wagons from $10.00 to $20.00 less than the regular price. This will enable you to get your vehicles for cost for this time, and also give me a chance to order a new whole and fresh carload for the spring trade. These are all high-grade Racine and Studebaker buggies and fully guaranteed, so come in early while they last. Respectfully, Emil Peil. Claud Coon, formerly of the firm of Coon & Danford, electricians, was over from Klamath Falls, where he now resides, several days last week, visiting friends. He came over on a motorcycle and says the road beyond Pelican bay is bad, but this end is much better. Mr. and Mrs. Greenlease, who are here visiting their daughter, Mrs. Sam McNair, together with Mrs. McNair and O. Winter, made a trip to Crater Lake in Mr. Winter's auto, leaving here Saturday morning and returning Sunday evening. They report a very pleasant trip and that there have been 500 autos driven from the valley to Crater Lake this season so far as against 200 for the entire season last year. B. W. Findley of Douglas, Ga., passed through the city Friday. Mr. Findley was in Mexico several years up to last year, when unsettled conditions there forced his return to the United States. He states that the Americans in Mexico are a unit against intervention, as it would mean instant death to them, and many have interests there that it is almost impossible to leave. If all Americans were out of Mexico he would favor instant intervention.

To Attend State Grand Commandery. George J. Walton, eminent commander of Calvary Commandery, Knights Templar, leaves in a few days for Eugene, where he will attend the meeting of the state grand commandery as delegate from the local commandery, which opens in that city Thursday, says the Klamath Northwestern. At this session of the commandery the local commandery, which has been operating for several months under a dispensation, will be granted a charter. The local commandery was opened April 29 with 19 charter members, and since that time nine new members have been received.

Reflects Past Conditions. Everybody has been hoping and believing that better times were close at hand, and yet Dun's report of failures for the month of August shows the heaviest list of liabilities for any August in 14 years, with one exception. The total was 1,102 failures for $16,153,166, as compared with 926 failures for $11,116,631 in August of last year. The editor of the Dun report thinks that this does not reflect present business conditions, but past ones.

Inheritance Tax on Klamath Estate. Salem, Ore., Sept. 20.—By an agreement, entered into today between State Treasurer Kay and Thomas Drake, administrator for the Albert C. Hopkins estate, the value of holdings in Klamath county is raised from $650,000 to $825,979 for the purpose of fixing the inheritance tax. This increase brings the value of the estate up to $1,045,004.56. The rest of the estate is located in Jackson county.

The Original Democrat. Noah smiled. "Two ships a year are too many," he cried. "I find it sufficient to build one." Thus he established himself as the original democrat.

SUNSET MAGAZINE and Ashland Tidings one year $2.75 to old or new subscribers. Regular price of Sunset Magazine is $1.50 per year.

The Stayton Woolen Mills are again successfully operated by John P. Wilbur, for eight years head of the woolen mills at Union, Ore.

Difficult. "My small boy can ask questions nobody can answer," said one statesman. "Nothing remarkable about that," replied the other. "So can my constituents."

C. R. Keller, John Brown and C. L. Crenshaw are organizing to erect an acetylene gas plant at Gresham. Dallas will install four public drinking fountains. Remember that the Tidings want ads bring results.
