Reception to Pastor's Wife A reception was given at the home of G. C. McAllister last Friday night in honor of Mrs. W. L. Mellinger, wife of the pastor of the Christian church, who will leave with her family this week for her new home in Ogden, Utah. About fifty people were present, members of the congregation and close friends of Mr. and Mrs. Mellinger, and a pleasant evening was spent, despite the note of sadness that prevailed on account of the separation that was due to come. Fine refreshments of ice cream and cake were served, and the ladies of the congregation presented Mrs. Mellinger with a fine cut glass set. Much regret is felt over the removal of Mr. and Mrs. Mellinger, who have been closely associated with Ashland church and educational affairs for a number of years, and their many

The cake which proved to be most deliclous and perfect in every way, was made by Mrs. Marsh Wagner, who thereby earned everlasting fame as a cakerette, or whatever you call

'em, who make superior cakes. The friends who came from Medford were Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Alford and Mr. and Mrs. Miles. The two guests of honor, Mrs. Roper and her daughter, Mrs. Landers, expressed their great pleasure at this informal gathering of their old neighbors who are also personal friends, and assured them that Ashland and friends would always be held in warm remembrance. They are returning home this week if the trains are running.
